Krafcik, 2024-06-10 In the midst of a contentious atmosphere of the interwar period the far eastern province of Subcarpathian Rus attracted the personal curiosity and professional attention of Russian ethnographer and theoretician Petr Bogatyrev and Czech journalist writer Ivan Olbracht Both traveled extensively in the region and immersed themselves deeply in the life and culture of the local residents Carpatho Rusyns and Hasidic Jews Witnesses to Interwar Subcarpathian Rus The Sojourns of Petr Bogatyrev and Ivan Olbracht explores for the first time in English the legacy they bequeathed in their respective work Bogatyrev as an apolitical ethnographic collector and theoretician and Olbracht as a passionately committed Communist whose reports and brilliant stories from the region including Nikola uhaj Brigand and The Sorrowful Eyes of Hannah Karadjic capture a glimpse of a world destined to change radically as a result of the ravages of war Theoretical and Comparative Perspectives on Nationalism Taras Kuzio, 2007-12-17 This volume brings together 15 articles divided into four sections on the role of nationalism in transitions to democracy the application of theory to country case studies and the role played by history and myths in the forging of national identities and nationalisms The book develops new theories and frameworks through engaging with leading scholars of nationalism Hans Kohn's propositions are discussed in relation to the applicability of the term civic with no ethno cultural connotations to liberal democracies Rogers Brubaker over the usefulness of dividing European states into civic and nationalizing states when the former have historically been nationalizers Will Kymlicka on the applicability of multiculturalism to post communist states and Paul Robert Magocsi on the lack of data to support claims of revivals by national minorities in Ukraine The book also engages with transitology over the usefulness of comparative studies of transitions in regions that underwent only political reforms and those that had quadruple transitions implying simultaneous democratic and market reforms as well as state and nation
