End Of Year Comments For Kindergarten:

Teaching Literacy in Kindergarten Lea M. McGee, Lesley Mandel Morrow, 2005-05-05 Kindergarten is a time for playful and enriching learning activities that support children's literacy emergence while enhancing their social and cognitive development. The routines of a busy engaged productive kindergarten classroom are vividly brought to life in this information packed book. Demonstrated are whole class and small group strategies for helping children acquire concepts about print and the alphabet, build phonological and phonemic awareness, learn to read sight words, develop their listening comprehension and writing abilities, and much more.

Includes music. Education and Society Kevin James Dougherty, Floyd M. Hammack, 1990. Educating Young Children from Preschool Through Primary Grades Laverne Warner, Judith Sower, 2005. Catering to the first time teacher, the authors provide day to day challenges of what it means to teach young children in the classroom while fostering a mentoring environment for pre service teachers entering the field. Chapter 4 addresses children with special needs and commonly used modifications for each of the disabilities. A unique chapter on teaching fourth graders, chapter 10, has been included that may be covered or skipped depending upon state requirements. Lesson planning is emphasized throughout and sample lesson plans and mini lessons have been included for every grade level and subject area.

Self-Fulfilling Prophecy Robert T. Tauber, 1997-02-25. What we expect all too often is exactly what we get. Nowhere is this more true than in education where teachers' expectations of students are crucial. The self fulfilling prophecy should be of great interest to teachers both those in training and those in service. Whether or not a teacher is aware of it, the self fulfilling prophecy is at work impacting students either to their benefit or their detriment. It follows that teachers should be made aware of the SFP and how it can be used effectively in education. Using the new on line research facilities, Dr. Tauber has compiled over 700 doctoral dissertations and countless journal articles on stereotyping, perception of social differences, race, gender, ethnicity, body features, age, socioeconomic levels, special needs, and other personal and situational factors. The last part of the book presents a collection of testimonials written from the viewpoint of practitioners.
