Enemy Cripple And Beggar Shadows In The Hero's Path:

Enemy, Cripple, Beggar Erel Shalit, 2009-05 In Shadows in the Hero's Path the Enemy the Cripple and the Beggar Erel Shalit provides new thoughts and views on the concepts of Hero and Shadow From a Jungian perspective this forthcoming Fisher King Press publication will elaborate on mythological and psychological images Myths and fairy tales explored include Perseus and Andersen's The Cripple You'll also enjoy the psychological deciphering of Biblical stories such as Amalek The Wicked Warrior Samson The Impoverished Sun and Jacob the Divine Adversary With the recent discovery of The Gospel of Judas Dr Shalit also delves into the symbolic relationship between Jesus and Judas Iscariot to illustrate the hero function's inevitable need of a shadow Clinical material concerning a case of a powerful erotic counter transference is also an integral part of this deeply insightful body of work

The Hero and His Shadow Erel Shalit, 2011 In an era in which all seemed to dwell in the self imposed solitary confinement of virtual reality life in vitro behind the screen the young take to the streets and gather in the squares Attempting to break the bonds of oppressive regimes and cold hearted mammonism they have raised their voice across the globe demanding freedom solidarity and justice Will these voices persevere to withstand the strong silencing forces of darkness of ruthlessness and oppression Will the Voice of Wisdom be listened to so that we may dwell safely without fear of evil Prov 1:33 The Hero and His Shadow Psychopolitical Aspects of Myth and Reality in Israel introduces a psychological perspective on the history development and myths of modern Israel The realization of Zionism relied on the pioneer who revolted against the Way of the Father and sought spiritual redemption through the revival of Mother Earth in the ancient land Myth and history psyche and matter are constantly intertwined in the birth and development of Israel for example when in the Declaration of Independence we are told that pioneers make deserts bloom the text actually says they make spirits blossom Pioneer guardsman and then warrior were admired hero ideals However in the shadow of the hero and the guiding myths of revolt redemption strength and identity change are feelings of despair doubt weakness and fear Within renewal lurks the threat of annihilation Suppressed aspects of past and present myths which linger in the shadow are exposed Psychological consequences of Israel's wars from independence to the present war of terror are explored on a personal note and from a psychoanalytic perspective Shadow aspects of the conflicting guiding myths Peace and Greater Israel are examined as well as mythical connections such as between Jerusalem and the respective archetypal images of Wholeness and Satan

Out of the Shadows Elizabeth Clark-Stern, 2010 The year is 1910 Sigmund Freud and his heir apparent Carl Jung are changing the way we think about human nature and the mind Twenty two year old Toni Wolff enters the heart of this world as Jung's patient His wife Emma Jung is twenty six a mother of four aspiring to help her husband create the new science of psychology Toni Wolff's fiercely curious mind and her devotion to Jung threaten this aspiration Despite their passionate rivalry for Jung's mind and heart the two women often find themselves allied Born of aristocratic Swiss families they are denied a university education and long to establish themselves as analysts in their own right Passionate and self educated they hunger for another intellectual woman with whom to explore the complexities of the soul the role of women in society and the archetypal feminine in the affairs of nations Their relationship spans 40 years from pre World War I to the dawn of the Atomic Age Their story follows the development of the field of psychology and the moral and professional choices of some of its major players Ultimately Toni and Emma discover that their individual development is informed by both their antagonism and their common ground They struggle to know the essence of the enemy the other and to claim the power and depth of their own nature

The Human Soul (Lost) in Transition At the Dawn of a New Era Erel Shalit,2018-12-01 Well known Jungian analyst author and lecturer Erel Shalit passed away in early 2018 This is his book The Human Soul Lost in Transition At the Dawn of a New Era published posthumously The aim of this book wrote Shalit is to present a depth psychological perspective on phenomena pertaining to the present postmodern era As such its origins are in the depths symbolically in the depth of the waters in which the sacred is reflected Likewise this book centers around the image which has travelled from the forbidden zone of the transcendent command make no graven image through the interiority of the human soul to become an exteriorized computerized robot generated image that virtualizes as well as augments reality This book explores the changing character of the relationship between us humans and the image and the dramatic impact this has in post modern culture

Requiem Erel Shalit,2010 Requiem returns us to an eternal theme a dialogue with Soul and we know quite well what happens when one dialogues with Soul we change consciousness is enlarged the impossible becomes possible and we no longer are compelled to blindly follow in the deathly path of our forefathers Requiem is a fictitious account of a scenario played out in the mind of many Israelis pertaining to existential reflections and apocalyptic fears but then as well the hope and commitment that arise from the abyss of trepidation While set in Israel sometime in the present it is a story that reaches into the timelessness of history weaving discussions with Heine and Kafka into a tale of universal implications

Jacob & Esau Erich Neumann,2016-02-01 In 1934 Erich Neumann considered by many to have been Carl Gustav Jung s foremost disciple sent Jung a handwritten note I will pursue your suggestion of elaborating on the Symbolic Contributions to the Jacob Esau problem The great difficulty is the rather depressing impossibility of a publication Now eighty years later in Jacob and Esau On the Collective Symbolism of the Brother Motif his important work is finally published In this newly discovered manuscript Neumann sowed the seeds of his later works It provides a window into his original thinking and creative writing regarding the biblical subject of Jacob and Esau and the application of the brother motif to analytical psychology Neumann elaborates on the central role of the principle of opposites in the human soul contrasting Jacob s introversion with Esau s extraversion the sacred and the profane the inner and the outer aspects of the God image the shadow and its projection and how the old ethic expressed for example in the expulsion of the scapegoat perpetuates evil Mark Kyburz translator of C G Jung s The Red Book has eloquently rendered Neumann s text into English Erel Shalit s editing and introduction provide an entr e into Neumann s work on this subject which will be of interest to a wide range of readers from lay persons to professionals interested in Jungian psychology and Jewish and religious studies Erich Neumann was born in Berlin in 1905 He emigrated to Israel in 1934 and lived in Tel Aviv until his death in 1960 For many years he lectured and played a central role at Eranos the seminal conference series in analytical psychology His writings include Depth Psychology and a New Ethic The Origins and History of Consciousness and The Great Mother The correspondence between C G Jung and Neumann was published in 2015 Dr Erel Shalit is a Jungian psychoanalyst in Israel and founding director of the Analytical Psychotherapy Program at Bar Ilan University He is the author of several books including The Cycle of Life and The Hero and His Shadow Dr Mark Kyburz specializes in scholarly translation from German into English and is the co translator of C G Jung s The Red Book 2009 He lives and works in Zurich Switzerland

The Cycle of Life Erel Shalit, 2011-09-25 The art of life is the most distinguished and rarest of all the arts C G Jung CW 8 par 789 The Cycle of Life explores the patterns that unfold over the course of our lives as we set out to find our place in the world in our efforts to live authentically and in our search for home that place within ourselves that can so easily be neglected or disregarded in this fast paced modern world In the first half of life the task of the young traveler is to depart from home to adventure out into the world to find his or her own individual path However in the second half we find ourselves on what often amounts to a very long journey in search of home In many a tale the hero for instance Gilgamesh sets off on his road to find life s elixir while other stories such as the Odyssey revolve around the hero s long and arduous journey home Many are also familiar with the journey of Dante who at the very beginning of his Divine Comedy finds himself Midway along the journey of our life The archetypal journey of life is constantly reenacted in the never ending process of individuation We find ourselves returning to this venture repeatedly every night as we set out on our voyage into the landscape of our unconscious Many dreams begin by being on the way for instance I am on my way to I am driving on a road that leads into the desert I am walking through one room after the other in a long corridor like building I am walking towards my office but it looks different than in reality I walk on the pavement and on the opposite side of the street someone seems to be following me I go down into an underground parking I am in my car but someone I don t know is driving I have to go to the place from where I came
