King,2021-11-09 This book presents new perspectives on Southeast Asia using cases from a range of ethnic groups cultures and histories written by scholars from different ethnicities generations disciplines and scientific traditions It examines various research trajectories engaging with epistemological debates on the global and local on insiders and outsiders and the role played by personal experiences in the collection and analysis of empirical data The volume provides subjects for debate rarely addressed in formal approaches to data gathering and analysis Rather than grappling with the usual methodological building blocks of research training it focuses on neglected issues in the research experience including chance error coincidence mishap dead ends silence secrets improvisation remembering digital challenges and shifting tracks Fieldwork and the Self is relevant to academics and researchers from universities and international organisations who are engaged in teaching and learning in area studies and social science research methods A rich and compelling set of writings about fieldwork in and beyond Southeast Asia Lyn Parker Emeritus Professor University of Western Australia A must read for all especially emerging scholars on Southeast Asia and a refreshing read for critical old hands on the region Abdul Rahman Embong Emeritus Professor Institute of Malaysian and International Studies IKMAS Universiti Kebangsaan Malaysia An impressive collection of essays by two academics who have devoted their academic life to anthropological fieldwork in Southeast Asia Shamsul A B Distinguished Professor and UNESCO Chair Universiti Kebangsaan Malaysia The contributors share an unquenchable and passionate curiosity for Southeast Asia They have survived the uncertainties and disillusionment of their fieldwork and remained first grade scholars

Marie Sybille de Vienne Professor National Institute for Oriental Languages and Civilisations Paris A penetrating reflection on current social science research on Southeast Asia Hans Dieter Evers Professor Emeritus and Senior Fellow University of Bonn Framing Indonesian Realities Peter J.M. Nas,G.A. Persoon,2021-10-01 Ritual language wild and domestic animals and objects of material culture like houses palaces and works of art are often loaded with symbolic meaning Reading the landscape or giving meaning to the natural environment is a cultural act as well and one must discover what mountains coastlines and islands mean to different groups of people In this book written on the occasion of Professor Reimar Schefold s retirement from the Department of Cultural Anthropology at Leiden University colleagues and former students from the Netherlands and abroad demonstrate the variety and wealth of the field of symbolic anthropology The regional focus of the book is Indonesia The studies presented range from small island communities in western northern and eastern Indonesia to urban settlements in Java and Sumatra All the contributions are in one way or another related to Reimar Schefold s work over the past thirty five years work that includes extensive studies on material culture rituals and the use of symbols in the expression of ethnicity among the various cultural groups of Indonesia International façades Marcel Bilow,2012-09-08 International Facades CROFT links the fields of architecture building services and building physics It aims at an international diversity in fa ade design to reduce energy consumption in building design Current architectural planning practices such as the International Style perceive the climate often as a problem rather than an opportunity to work with it This doctoral thesis presents a Facade Expert Tool FET that analyses the climate and the combination of the fa ade and building services The goal of FET is to easily analyse the climate of a particular location and to then limit the possible combination of fa ade and building services components to a practical level Through FET Marcel Bilow has developed Climate Responsive Optimised Facade Technologies CROFT CROFT demonstrates the potential for sustainable building operation through the use new technologies that respond to the requirements posed on fa ades in climate zones as diverse as those found in Moscow Singapore Berlin and Dubai AA Files ,1998 Encyclopedia of 20th Century Architecture R. Stephen Sennott,2004 For more information including the introduction a full list of entries and contributors a generous selection of sample pages and more visit the Encyclopedic of 20th Century Architecture website Focusing on architecture from all regions of the world this three volume set profiles the twentieth century s vast chronicle of architectural achievements both within and well beyond the theoretical confines of modernism Unlike existing works this encyclopedia examines the complexities of rapidly changing global conditions that have dispersed modern architectural types movements styles and building practices across traditional geographic and cultural boundaries New Vernacular Architecture Vicky Richardson,2001 Considering the synthesis of modernity and tradition in contemporary architecture this book focuses on 37 buildings completed in the 1990s It examines a broad range of examples of international architecture that reinterprets rather than revives traditional forms materials and construction techniques The projects covered in this study range from better known works by renowned architects such as

Michael Graves Renzo Piano and David Chipperfield to less familiar buildings in Hungary Nepal Latvia and elsewhere
Traditional Dwellings and Settlements Review ,2007      Indonesian Houses: Tradition and transformation in vernacular architecture Reimar Schefold,P. Nas,Gaudenz Domenig,2003 The volume is intended to provide an introduction to all relevant vernacular architectural traditions and developments in western Indonesia The 21 contributions all written by researchers with long first hand experience in the area they are dealing with are arranged according to the location of the ethnic groups from west to east from Aceh to Western Java Each contributor was asked to enrich the architectural description with a self chosen particular topic illustrating social ideological and environmental peculiarities of the field situation The book takes account of the rich diversity of the various contexts and artistic elaborations that developed in the region      RIBA Journal ,1999
