Engaging Luther A New Theological Assessment:

Engaging Luther Olli-Pekka Vainio, 2010-04-26 The Reformer Martin Luther is the source of endless fascination and dispute Not only his antagonists but also his supporters have created a host of representations of his thought On the one hand Catholic and other similar voices have accused Luther of being the major agent in the birth of modern secularism On the other hand Lutherans themselves are divided on the meaning of Reformation In view of all these interpretations and dismissals of Luther and the Lutheran Reformation it requires a certain boldness to claim that Luther's theology is intellectually fascinating and contains exceptional resources This is precisely what the present volume claims The studies collected in this volume aim at showing in which sense Luther remains a fully Catholic and genuinely Augustinian theologian who is not so much a forerunner of problematic modernity as a representative of classical Christianity At the same time Luther's theology contains ideas that can be made fruitful in dialogue with currents like communitarianism or Radical Orthodoxy The volume consists of articles written by scholars affiliated with the project known as the New Finnish Interpretation of Luther The topics include Luther's theological anthropology Trinity christology sacraments faith theology of the cross the Virgin Mary sexuality music and the spiritual reading of the Holy Scriptures

Martin Luther's Understanding of Faith and Reality (1513-1521) Ilmari Karimies, 2022-08-03 Ilmari Karimies investigates Martin Luther's understanding of reality and faith He examines Luther's understanding of reality from three perspectives firstly God as the self giving highest good uniting opposites and hiding beneath them secondly the visible and invisible world and thirdly human beings as tripartite body soul spirit and bipartite flesh spirit The author explores the cognitive conflict between these in relation to spirit's grasping of God and the invisible world with reference to Augustinian Platonism He analyses aspects of faith from the perspective of the theory of divine illumination and shows that Luther represents a realistic Augustinian view Faith functions as the theological intellect grasping the invisible world and showing human beings the future good in a manner similar to the medieval notion of ecstatic knowledge It differs from vision in glory because of sin as mixed with humanity and as partial knowledge Luther's Theology of Music Miikka E. Anttila,2013-08-29 The sweetness of music is something that has puzzled Christian theologians for centuries In this study Luther s theology of music is approached from the point of view of pleasure It examines the significance of joy beauty and pleasure in relationship with music and Luther s theology The notion of music as the supreme gift of God requires also a discussion about the idea of gift Music opens up new perspectives into Luther s thinking Luther has seldom been reckoned among aesthetic theologians Nevertheless Luther has a peculiar view on beauty understanding faith as a kind of aesthetic contemplation

African Theology as Liberating Wisdom Mari-Anna Pöntinen,2013-03-27 In African Theology as Liberating Wisdom Celebrating Life and Harmony in the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Botswana Mari Anna P ntinen analyses contextual interpretations of the Christian faith in this particular church These interpretations are based on the special wisdom tradition which embraces monistic ontology communal ethics in botho and the indigenous belief in God as the Source of Life and the Root of everything that exists The constructing theological principle in the ELCB is the downward orientated and descending God in Christ which interprets the Lutheran spirit in a liberating and empowering sense It deals with the cultural mythos which brings Christ down into people s existence unlike Western connotations which are considered to hinder seeing Christ and to prevent existential self awareness Encyclopedia of Martin Luther and the Reformation Mark A.
