Sketch for a Theory of the Emotions Jean-Paul Sartre,2015-10-15 Philosopher novelist dramatist and existentialist

Jean Paul Sartre is one of the greatest writers of all time He was fascinated by the role played by the emotions in human life and placed them at the heart of his philosophy This brilliant short work which contains some of the principal ideas later to appear in his masterpiece Being and Nothingness is Sartre at his best insightful engaging and controversial Far from constraining one's freedom as we often think Sartre argues that emotions are fundamental to it and that an emotion is nothing less than a transformation of the world With a new foreword by Sebastian Gardner

Nietzsche on Human Emotions Yunus Tuncel, 2021-11-23 Much has been said on particular feelings that appear in Nietzsche's works such as pity revenge altruism guilt shame and resentment But there has not been a significant study on Nietzsche's overall teachings on feeling and emotion What does Nietzsche mean by feeling and the related phenomena Out of such disparate types of feelings and disparate reflections by Nietzsche on them can one make sense or can one speak of a theory of feelings in Nietzsche If so how does this theory fit with his philosophy of value On the other hand how do his teachings relate to some of the later concepts of his philosophy such as the overhuman the will to power and the eternal return of the same While the book will contextualize Nietzsche's emotive theory in relation to other emotive theories in the history of ideas it will also explore Nietzsche's influence on later generations in this area Although Nietzsche is a brilliant and original philosopher of the emotions and passions there has been to date no concerted attempt to present and examine him as such This admirable study by Yunus Tuncel goes a long way towards meeting this need and is essential reading for all scholars and readers of Nietzsche Keith Ansell Pearson Emeritus Professor of Philosophy University of Warwick It's remarkable there hasn't been a good book on Nietzsche and the emotions until this remarkable work by Yunus Tuncel His insightful discussions range from resentment and Schadenfreude to a crucial emotion in these sad times the feeling of power Graham Parkes University of Vienna

The Possibility of Universal Moral Judgement in Existential Ethics Joseph Kariuki, 1981 The problem at the core of this ethical study is how Existentialist Ethics comprises the absolute character of obligation and how it is able to join the ethical postulate to the concrete situation without losing the absolute Kariuki is chiefly interested in Sartre because he presents in a most logical fashion a model of Realistic Ethics that excludes all transcendence At the same time Kariuki shows the similarity between Sartre and A I Melden
