Existentialism and Human Emotions Jean-Paul Sartre,1985 Proposes that individuals must create their own values take responsibility for their actions and find a sense of meaning while living in a universe without purpose The Emotions Jean-Paul Sartre,2000-12-01 In this book the eminent French philosopher seeks to develop a new theory method of psychologic interpretation Delving into the mystery of the emotional process he analyzes the roles that fear lust melancholy and anguish play in the life of man The Neuropsychology of Emotion Joan C. Borod,2000-05-18 This volume represents a comprehensive overview of the neuropsychology of emotion and the neural mechanisms underlying emotional processing It draws on recent studies utilizing behavioral paradigms with normal subjects the brain lesion approach clinical evaluations of patients with neurological and psychiatric disorders and neuroimaging techniques The book opens with an introduction summarizing each chapter and pointing to directions for future research The first section is on history the neuroanatomy and neurophysiology of emotion and techniques that have been widely used to examine emotional processing neuropsychological assessment and neuroimaging Theoretical perspectives on emotion are offered next including psychological social cognitive neurobiological and neuropsychological models A set of chapters on the neural substrates of emotion deals with a spectrum of emotional conditions elation and mania sadness and depression anxiety and stress anger and impulsivity and apathy and flat affect The book concludes with clinical implications including a description of emotional deficits in neurological and psychiatric disorders e g stroke head injury depression and schizophrenia Highlighted in this section is an overview of rehabilitative treatments and brain interventions for emotional processing deficits This authoritative volume will be an important resource and text for neuropsychologists clinical psychologists speech language pathologists neuroscientists psychiatrists neurologists rehabilitation specialists and their students and trainees The Philosophical Library Existentialism Collection Martin Buber,Martin Heidegger,Jean-Paul Sartre,2018-02-13 Explore the work of three great existential philosophers together in this collection Hasidism Zionist philosopher Martin Buber shares the results of forty years of study and introduces the philosophies of Hasidism to a Western audience In this modern masterpiece Buber interprets the ideas and motives that underlie the great Jewish religious movement of Hasidism and its creator Baal Shem Essays in Metaphysics German philosopher Martin Heidegger presents two lectures in which he explores the nature of identity in the history of metaphysics He offers illuminating insights on vital issues like technology religion language history and more The Emotions French philosopher Jean Paul Sartre attempts to understand the role emotions play in the human psyche Sartre analyzes fear lust anguish and melancholy while asserting that human beings begin to develop emotional capabilities from a very early age which helps them identify and understand the emotions names and qualities later in life

Existentialism and its relevance to the contemporary system of education in India: Existentialism and present educational scenario Rukhsana Akhter,2014-05-01 Existentialism represents a protest against the rationalism of traditional philosophy against misleading notions of the bourgeois culture and the dehumanizing values of industrial civilization Since alienation loneliness and self estrangement constitute threats to human personality in the modern world existential thought has viewed as its cardinal concerns a quest for subjective truth a reaction against the negation of Being and a perennial search for freedom From the ancient Greek philosopher Socrates to the twentieth century French philosopher Jean Paul Sartre and other thinkers have dealt with this tragic sense of ontological reality the human situation within a comic context The book put forward is the beginning of an attempt to revive existentialism by addressing these issues The idea is eventually to present a conception of personhood that is recognizably existentialist or similar to that presented by writers like Kierkegaard Heidegger Jaspers and Sartre in certain fundamental ways but that takes into account the last twenty years of developments in the many different areas of philosophy that directly affect our understanding of what it is to be a person The result will hopefully be a more sophisticated existentialist theory of personhood that can be presented in contemporary terms as a serious challenge to current dogmas in metaphysics and moral theory and be defended against the ascendant naturalistic rationalistic or pragmatist alternatives

Rhetoric and Philosophy Richard A. Cherwitz, Henry W. Johnstone Jr., 2014-06-03 This important volume explores alternative ways in which those involved in the field of speech communication have attempted to find a philosophical grounding for rhetoric Recognizing that rhetoric can be supported in a wide variety of ways this text examines eight different philosophies of rhetoric realism relativism rationalism idealism materialism existentialism deconstructionism and pragmatism The value of this book lies in its pluralistic and comparative approach to rhetorical theory Although rhetoric may be the more difficult road to philosophy the fact that it is being traversed by a group of authors largely from speech communication demonstrates important growth in this field Ultimately there is recognition that if different thinkers can have solid reasons to adhere to disparate philosophies serious communication problems can be eliminated Rhetoric and Philosophy will assist scholars in choosing from among the many philosophical starting places for rhetoric

On Loving Our Enemies Jerome Neu, 2012-05-30 This essay collection discusses the role of emotion in ethics the relationship between emotions and authenticity and freedom the role of emotions in the law and includes discussions of Freud and his critics

The Death of Meaning R. J. Rushdoony, 2018-03-26 For centuries on end humanistic philosophers have produced endless books and treatises which attempt to explain reality without God or the mediatory work of His Son Jesus Christ Modern philosophy has sought to explain man and his thought process without acknowledging God His Revelation or man's sin God holds all such efforts in derision and subjects their authors and adherents to futility Philosophers who rebel against God are compelled to abandon meaning itself for they possess neither the tools nor the place to anchor it The works of darkness championed by philosophers past and present need to be exposed and reprov'd In this volume Dr Rushdoony clearly enunciates each major philosopher's position and its implications identifies the intellectual and moral consequences of each school of thought and traces the dead end to which each naturally leads There is only one foundation

Without Christ meaning and morality are anchored to shifting sand and a counsel of despair prevails This penetrating yet brief volume provides clear guidance even for laymen unfamiliar with philosophy

Ethics: Contemporary Readings Harry Gensler,Earl Spurgin,James Swindal,2004-08-02 Ethics Contemporary Readings is designed to lead any student into the subject through carefully selected classic and contemporary articles The book includes articles by the leading figures in the field and provides an excellent entry to the topic The book complements Harry Gensler s Ethics A Contemporary Introduction Routledge 1998

An Existentialist Curriculum of Action Shaireen Rasheed,2007 This book contextualizes Maxine Greene s educational pedagogy within an existentialist tradition By drawing on the works of Jean Paul Sartre Paulo Freire and Merleau Ponty Professor Rasheed analyzes how Greene s work represents an advance in existentialist discourse via her interpretation of concepts such as choice freedom and possibility within an educational setting The aim of this work is to create an existentialist curriculum of action that is grounded in a vision of leadership Educators teachers students policy makers and curriculum theorists can implement this critique as part of an emancipatory and transformative pedagogy By developing an ethical language of existential possibility Professor Rasheed creates a space where discourse explores the various intersections of gender race class ethnicity religion and sexual orientation which coexist within a participatory definition of democracy
