Geographers Elizabeth Baigent, André Reyes Novaes, 2019-12-26 Women are the exclusive focus of the 38th volume of Geographers. For the first time in the series history the entire volume is devoted to important work of distinguished female geographers amply demonstrating how these scholars' professional lives enrich the discipline's history. It also illustrates how reading and writing their biographies not only expands our understanding of geography's past but points to its more diverse future. The collection includes biographies of Doreen Massey winner of geography's Nobel prize the prix Vautrin Lud for her remarkable contribution to geography and neighbouring disciplines which discovered the importance of space through her work Helen Wallis geographer and historian of cartography who for many years had charge of the UK's foremost collection of maps Alice Saunier Set who applied her geographical training and formidable energy to teaching and educational reform in France Isabel Margarida Andr who lived through a turbulent political period in her native Portugal and meticulously investigated its effect on women and political geography and the many women who helped to create the UK's first Geography department the University of Oxford's School of Geography including Fanny Herbertson Nora MacMunn Marjorie Sweeting Mary Marshall Barbara Kennedy and other women geographers who are memorialised in a group article Modernism, Theory, and Responsible Reading. Stephen Ross, 2021-08-26 Introducing readers to a new theory of responsible reading this book presents a range of perspectives on the contemporary relationship between modernism and theory. Emerging from a collaborative process of comment and response it promotes conversation among disparate views under a shared commitment to responsible reading practices. An international range of contributors question the interplay between modernism and theory today and provide new ways of understanding the relationship between the two and the links to emerging concerns such as the Anthropocene decolonization the post human and eco theory. Promoting responsible reading as a practice that reads generously and engages constructively even where disagreement is inevitable this book articulates a mode of ethical reading that is fundamental to ongoing debates about strength and weakness paranoia and reparation and critique and affect.

May Sinclair Rebecca Bowler, 2016-12-05 May Sinclair was a bestselling author of her day whose versatile literary output including criticism philosophy poetry psychoanalysis and experimental fiction now frequently falls between the established categories of literary modernism. In terms of her contribution to dominant modernist paradigms she was until recently best remembered for recasting the psychological novel as stream of consciousness narrative in a 1918 review of Dorothy Richardson's Pilgrimage. This book brings together the most recent research on Sinclair and re-contextualises her work both within and against dominant Modernist narratives. It explores Sinclair's negotiations between the public and private the cerebral and the corporeal and the spiritual and the profane in both her fiction and non-fiction. Narratology beyond the Human David Herman, 2018-03-01 Showing how questions of narrative bear on ideas of species difference and assumptions about animal minds Narratology beyond the Human underscores our inextricable interconnectedness with other forms of creatural life and suggests that stories can be used to resituate imaginaries of human action in a more than human world

The Man Who Wasn't There Anil Ananthaswamy, 2015-08-04 Nominated for the 2016 PEN E O Wilson Literary Science Writing Award An NBC News Notable Science Book of 2015 Named one of Publishers Weekly's Best Books of 2015 A Book of the Month for Brain HQ Posit Science Selected by Forbes as a Must Read Brain Book of 2015 On Life Changes Network's list of the Top 10 Books That Could Change Your Life of 2015 In the tradition of Oliver Sacks a tour of the latest neuroscience of schizophrenia autism Alzheimer's disease ecstatic epilepsy Cotard's syndrome out of body experiences and other disorders revealing the awesome power of the human sense of self from a master of science journalism Anil Ananthaswamy's extensive in depth interviews venture into the lives of individuals who offer perspectives that will change how you think about who you are These individuals all lost some part of what we think of as our self but they then offer remarkable sometimes heart wrenching insights into what remains One man cut off his own leg Another became one with the universe We are learning about the self at a level of detail that Descartes I think therefore I am could never have imagined Recent research into Alzheimer's illuminates how memory creates your narrative self by using the same part of your brain for your past as for your future But wait those afflicted with Cotard's syndrome think they are already dead in a way they believe that I think therefore I am not Who or what can say that Neuroscience has identified specific regions of the brain that when they misfire can cause the self to move back and forth between the body and a doppelgänger or to leave the body entirely So where in the brain or mind or body is the self actually located As Ananthaswamy elegantly reports neuroscientists themselves now see that the elusive sense of self is both everywhere and nowhere in the human brain

Recycling the Remnants of the Literary Text Mounir Guirat, Henda Ammar-Guirat, 2024-07-15 Recycling the Remnants of the Literary Text Verandas for the Residual and the Emergent addresses literary recycling as a creative endeavour that supplements meaning through appropriating remnants of texts and transforming them into traces or echoes of their former selves within a new narrative design It approaches recycling as a process that extends verandas of meanings and creates sites for ongoing discursive accretion of signification through the dialogic encounter between the old and the new the residual and the emergent Whether seen as markers of the capacity of the literary text to surprise and haunt its readers or residues of systems of representations predicated on selective inclusion and strategies of exclusion remnants can offer rich material for setting in motion new cycles of renewal The contributors of this volume propose recycling as writing and reading strategies The first grants the remnants an afterlife and allow for an opening up of new narrative possibilities while the second constructs alternative readings by allowing unwanted remnants to return and fill in gaps and silences These oddments of the literary text are essential to question the iniquities of cultural racial and class prejudices They are unavoidable in the construction of an emergent literary and cultural matrix for disruption and change manuscript pages      Essays Virginia Woolf Vol.6 Virginia Woolf,2017-08-24 With this sixth volume The Hogarth Press completes a major literary undertaking the publication of the complete essays of Virginia Woolf In this the last decade of her life Woolf wrote distinguished literary essays on Turgenev Goldsmith Congreve Gibbon and Horace Walpole In addition there are a number of more political essays such as Why Art To Day Follows Politics Women Must Weep a cut down version of Three Guineas and never before reprinted Royalty rejected by Picture Post in 1939 as an attack on the Royal family and on the institution of kingship in this country Thoughts on Peace in an Air Raid and even America which I Have Never Seen Americans are the most interesting people in the world they face the future not the past In The Leaning Tower 1940 Virginia Woolf faced the future and looked forward to a more democratic post war age will there be no more towers and no more classes and shall we stand without hedges between us on the common ground Woolf stimulates her readers to think for themselves so she never forges manifestos issues guidelines or gives instructions that must be followed to the letter Maria DiBattista In providing an authoritative text introduction and annotations to Virginia Woolf s essays Stuart N Clarke has prepared a common ground for students common readers and scholars alike so that all can come to Woolf without specialised knowledge      Using Computers in the Translation of Literary Style Roy Youdale,2019-06-13 This volume argues for an innovative interdisciplinary approach to the analysis and translation of literary style based on a mutually supportive combination of traditional close reading and distant reading involving corpus linguistic analysis and text visualisation The book contextualizes this approach within the broader story of the development of computer assisted translation including machine translation and the use of CAT tools and elucidates the ways in which the approach can lead to better informed translations than those based on close reading alone This study represents the first systematic attempt to use corpus linguistics and text visualisation in the process of translating individual literary texts as opposed to comparing and analysing already published originals and their translations Using the case study of his translation into English of Uruguayan author Mario Benedetti s 1965 novel Grac as por el Fuego Youdale showcases how a close and distant reading approach CDR enhances the translator s ability to detect and measure a variety of stylistic features ranging from sentence length and structure to lexical richness and repetition both in the source text and in their own draft translation thus assisting them with the task of revision The book reflects on the benefits and limitations of a CDR approach its scalability and broader applicability in translation studies and related disciplines making this key reading for translators postgraduate students and scholars in the fields of literary translation corpus linguistics corpus stylistics and narratology      Collected essays (Virginia Woolf) Volume one Virginia Woolf,      Good Karma How To Find It And Keep It Joan Oliver (Duncan.),2006      Collected Essays of Virginia Woolf Virginia Woolf,2013-02-14 This volume contains an extensive collection of Woolf s seminal essays covering a range of subjects from feminism to biography A must have collection for those with a keen interest in feminist literature      The Essays of Virginia Woolf, Volume 5 Virginia Woolf,2017-08-24 Fiction was the core of Virginia Woolf s work

But she took her essay writing very seriously spending a great deal of time on each essay and finding they provided a refreshing diversion from fiction Her essays informed her fiction and vice versa this volume shows her thinking about the possibility of poeticising the novel The Waves was the result and in some of these pieces Women and Fiction Women and Leisure she considers the relationship between women writing and society the preoccupation that would become such a large part of her legacy The Common Reader Second Series comprises a significant part of this volume it was first published in 1932 to excellent reviews They are wholly delightful They are sensitive acute picturesque humorous and yet severe Vita Sackville West Is there anybody writing anywhere in the world at this moment who could surpass the essay so beautifully moulded into a form appropriate to its content that what is an authentic critical masterpiece seems as light on the mind as a song Rebecca West This collection shows Woolf's genius as a critic and essayist as well as displaying her perceptive understanding of writers and their work it also offers us an important insight into her creative mind Continuing the work of former editor Andrew McNeillie Stuart N Clarke brings fresh light to Woolf's essays and enriches them with variations This penultimate volume forms part of an indispensable unique collection from one of our greatest writers

The Essays of Virginia Woolf - Volume I Virginia Woolf, 2017-01-03 Adeline Virginia Woolf was born in 1882 and was to become a founder of modernist writing Her background is filled with elements of tragedy that she somehow overcame to become a revered writer Her mother died when she was 13 her half sister Stella two years later and with it her first of several nervous breakdowns She began writing professionally at age 20 but her father's death two years later brought a complete mental collapse and she was briefly institutionalised Three of her half brothers had sexually abused her so further darkness was added to her life But out of this came great innovations in writing she was a pioneer of stream of consciousness Whilst the dark periods continued to interrupt her emotional state her rate of work never ceased Until on 28 March 1941 Woolf put on her overcoat filled its pockets with stones and walked into the River Ouse and drowned herself leaving behind a note which read in part Dearest I feel certain that I am going mad again I feel we can't go through another of those terrible times And I shan't recover this time I begin to hear voices and I can't concentrate So I am doing what seems the best thing to do
