

The background of the book cover is a painting of a stone bridge over a river. The bridge has a low wall and a wooden railing. In the distance, a monk in a brown robe is walking across the bridge. The scene is set in a lush, green landscape with trees and foliage. The overall tone is peaceful and contemplative.

Essential Monastic Wisdom Writings On The Contemplative Life:

Essential Monastic Wisdom Hugh Feiss, 1999 For everyone seeking to experience some of the deep tranquility of contemplative life this artfully crafted guide brings together concise selections from the great writings of the tradition from Saint Benedict to Thomas Merton It explores all the essential ingredients of monastic life in brief chapters on such themes as speech humility discernment patience longing and love By providing a brief account of how monastic life evolved and the best examples of monastic writing through the centuries from the desert fathers to the medieval nuns Julian and Hildegard to John Chittister today Father Hugh Feiss offers a rich treasury of monastic wisdom on living a full life

Secular Monasticism Jane Fitz-Gibbon, Andrew Fitz-Gibbon, 2012-09 Like an underground river the monastic tradition keeps on resurging in a host of unexpected times and places Secular Monasticism A Journey describes one of its most recent incarnations The founders and members of the Lindisfarne Community share with us their bold attempt to be a secular monastic religious order open to the exigencies of the contemporary world Age old wisdom once again reveals its perennial relevance in helping us learn how to be followers of Christ in God s today Brother John Taiz In the first five pages I thought of ten people I know who should read this book young people old people all people tired of taken for granted spirituality Devour this book Let it help you dream up a way of joining or creating a micro community of prayer and action that frees you to experiment in following the ways of Christ That s what these folks have done This story helps us imagine ourselves out of the boxes and buildings Christianity has become The Rev Dr Dori Baker Scholar in Residence The Fund for Theological Education Lindisfarne Community has graciously accepted God s call to dance with the radical and sometimes wearying changes of our time Like the Celts they find meaning in their ongoing spiritual evolution through poetry and story through a willingness to navigate the waters of the soul while remaining fiercely loyal to the good earth that bore us and nurtures us Like the Celts this family of secular monastics hungers more for mystical union with the Divine Mystery than for any trappings of earthly renown or success Carl McColman author and blogger from the foreword

The Routledge International Handbook of Education, Religion and Values James Arthur, Terence Lovat, 2013-08-21 The academic fields of religion and values have become the focus of renewed interest in contemporary thinking about human activity and its motivations The Routledge International Handbook of Education Religion and Values explores and expands upon a range of international research related to this revival The book provides an authoritative overview of global issues in religion and values surveying the state of the academic area in contributions covering a wide range of topics It includes emerging controversial and cutting edge contributions as well as investigations into more established areas International authorities Arthur and Lovat have brought together experts from across the world to examine the complexity of the field of study The handbook is organised around four key topics which focus on both the importance of religion and values as broad fields of human enquiry as well as in their application to education inter agency work and cross cultural endeavours The Conceptual
