

The background of the cover is a traditional Japanese woodblock print illustration. It depicts a samurai in a room, possibly a study or a chamber. The samurai is seated on a tatami floor, wearing a dark kimono with a patterned obi. He is looking towards the left. In the foreground, there are various objects on the floor, including a small table with a book or scroll, a bowl, and some other items. The room has a sliding door (shoji) in the background, and the overall style is characteristic of Edo-period art.
