Speaking of God Robert D. Cornwall, 2023-01-30 Theology is a complex subject with many subdisciplines and is known for thick volumes with dense prose This book bucks that trend but hitting the basics briefly but carefully In this 50th volume of the Topical Line Drives series theologian and church historian Dr Robert D Cornwall provides a clear introduction to the basics His approach is not to give you a set of beliefs about God but rather to provide you with an introductory foundation to the way Christians talk about God Key concepts such as omnipotence impassibility transcendence immanence and yes love along with many others The content is brief but carefully designed as a launching pad for further study Read this book in order to make all your other theological reading more profitable It will keep you from missing out because some of the basics were passed over or were obscured by extensive discussion Besides individual reading this volume is useful as an introductory reading in theology courses or for small groups in churches who would like to better understand their other curricula and more profitably discuss their ideas about God

Wonder as a New Starting Point for Theological Anthropology José Francisco Morales Torres,2023-04-04 In Wonder as a New Starting Point for Theological Anthropology Opened by the World Jos Francisco Morales Torres constructs a new theological anthropology that begins with wonder He contends that the visceral experience of wonder is an opening up of the human by an excess that saturates the world This opened by ness points to a transforming receptivity as the basis of the person and to an extravagant Generosity that grounds all creation Thus wonder which is grounded in generous Excess is not only a gift but a demand it calls for a liberative praxis that resist the forces that flatten the fullness of life into what is useful and profitable and that reduce the limitless worth of fellow humans to mere commodities to be exploited and exchanged at the altar of the idolatrous Market Wonder reveals a primordial receptivity in the human person which demands of us an ethic of sustainability that does not reduce the other to commodity a vulnerability that risks being opened by the other a commitment to solidarity and liberation that resist the forces of an insatiable idolatrous Market that seeks only to steal and kill and destroy

Faith Seeking Understanding Matthew Charles Ogilvie,2001 How can doctrines be made intelligible within the context of our modern world This book throws new light upon Lonergan s response to this challenge in his presentation of the functional specialty systematics within his Method in Theology This book primarily aims to present a thorough understanding of systematics function We first investigate systematics specific function as a promotion of understanding of the mysteries of faith We then examine the need for and grounds of this functional specialty and we place systematics in relation to the other functional specialties within Lonergan s Method in Theology Of special concern to this work is an investigation of what Lonergan could have meant by explaining systematics function by reference to the statement of the First Vatican Council that human reason can attain an understanding of the mysteries both by analogy with what human reason naturally knows and by the interconnection of the mysteries with each other and with humanity s last end To make systematics function more intelligible we investigate the conditions prevailing in Catholic theology that prompted Lonergan to develop his theological method assess the value and place of systematics and evaluate Lonergan s presentation of systematics in relation to the goals he set himself in developing a theological method

Theology as Construction of Piety David T. Ngong,2013-12-10 This book argues that a primary purpose of theological discourses is to construct piety or spirituality If this is the case theologians need to constantly inquire into the kind of piety or spirituality which their work may construct Drawing from some important moments in the development of Christian theology such as the development of the Christian doctrine of God in the early church the role of material things in the Christianity of medieval Europe some elements of contemporary postliberal theology and the theology of inculturation in Africa the book argues that theological discourses that appear to be orthodox and innocuous may actually construct forms of piety that may diminish human flourishing The book therefore calls for an ethics of theology intended to ensure that the theologies we construct help in developing a piety that is conducive to human flourishing in the modern world especially for Africans who have suffered and continue to suffer unspeakable dehumanization The book proposes that a theology that may contribute to the flourishing of Africans in the modern world is one that constructs an interdisciplinary spirituality that takes both the spiritual and the scientific seriously

The Oxford Companion to Christian Thought Adrian Hastings, Alistair Mason, Hugh S. Pyper, 2000-12-21 Embracing the viewpoints of Catholic Protestant or Orthodox thinkers of conservatives liberals radicals and agnostics Christianity today is anything but monolithic or univocal In The Oxford Companion to Christian Thought general editor Adrian Hastings has tried to capture a sense of the great diversity of opinion that swirls about under the heading of Christian thought Indeed the 260 contributors who hail from twenty countries represent as wide a range of perspectives as possible Here is a comprehensive and authoritative though not dogmatic overview of the full spectrum of Christian thinking Within its 600 alphabetically arranged entries readers will find lengthy survey articles on the history of Christian thought on national and regional traditions and on various denominations from Anglican to Unitarian There is ample coverage of Eastern thought as well examining the Christian tradition in China Japan India and Africa The contributors examine major theological topics such as resurrection the Eucharist and grace as well as controversial issues such as homosexuality and abortion In addition short entries illuminate symbols such as water and wine and there are many profiles of leading theologians of non Christians who have deeply influenced Christian thinking including Aristotle and Plato and of literary figures such as Dante Milton and Tolstoy Most articles end with a list of suggested readings and the book features a large number of cross references The Oxford Companion to Christian Thought is an indispensable guide to one of the central strands of Western culture An essential volume for all Christians it is a thoughtful gift for the holidays

Faith Seeking Understanding Daniel L. Migliore, 1991 This timely stimulating introduction to Christian theology is both critically respectful of the church's classical theological heritage and critically open to the emphases of contemporary theology especially feminist black and Latin American liberation theologies

A Theology of Divine Vulnerability Peter Hooton, 2024-05-20 A Theology of Divine Vulnerability The Silence that Gives Light understands confidence in the idea of God to rest largely on three claims The first is that God is responsible in some quite fundamental way for the existence of the universe for the fact that there is anything at all The second is that God's own existence and essential goodness are not vitiated by the presence of evil in the world And the third is that God knows we are here and shares fully somehow in the joys and pains of transient life Peter Hooton considers these claims on the whole sympathetically He prefers to traditional Christian views of God s omnipotence a more nuanced understanding of God s power and draws on a rich plurality of voices to describe God as much more loving than wrathful as persuasive rather than coercive as more passible than impassible and the Christian s relationship with God as essentially a compassionate participation in the reality signified by the crucified and risen Christ World Christian Trends Ad30-ad2200 (hb) ,2001 The Faith of the Christian Church Tyron Inbody,2005-04-14 Tyron Inbody has taught the basics of Christian theology for more than twenty five years Having seen over the years what issues and questions his students bring to class he now offers this engaging accessible introduction to all the major beliefs of the Christian faith Meant especially but not exclusively for readers new to theology Inbody s Faith of the Christian Church covers twelve traditional areas of Christian teaching theology revelation faith God creation suffering and evil humankind Jesus Christ salvation church sacraments and the end times Inbody also dives into provocative topics not usually treated in introductory texts creationism the devil miracles the virgin birth and more The book s broad ranging perspective which intentionally defies labels commends it to individuals and small groups from many church traditions Quote boxes and illustrations drawn from popular culture make the text visually interesting and enjoyable to read Inbody does not hide his own stance on issues but presents a full range of interpretations and openly points readers to other possibilities they can pursue The Faith of the Christian Church offers just enough questions to provoke reflection and just enough answers to encourage readers to form their own grasp on the Christian faith Paperbound Books in Print ,1992 Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,2003 Contextual Christology L. H. Lalpekhlua,2007 With reference to Mizoram India Paperbound Books in Print 1995 Reed Reference Publishing,R5ference Reed,1995-12 Freedom, Necessity, and the Knowledge of God Paul D. Molnar,2021-12-30 Paul D Molnar discusses issues related to the concepts of freedom and necessity in trinitarian doctrine He considers the implications of non conceptual knowledge of God by comparing the approaches of Karl Rahner and T F Torrance He also reconsiders T F Torrance s new natural theology and illustrates why Christology must be central when discussing liberation theology Further he explores Catholic and Protestant relations by comparing the views of Elizabeth Johnson Walter Kasper and Karl Barth as well as relations among Christians Jews and Muslims by considering whether it is appropriate to claim that all three religions should be understood to be united under the concept of monotheism Finally he probes the controversial issues of how to name God in a way that underscores the full equality of women and men and how to understand universalism by placing Torrance and David Bentley Hart into conversation on that subject
