The Fall of the House of Usher Edgar Allan Poe,2017-02-25 The short story The Fall of the House of Usher opens with the unnamed narrator arriving at the house of his boyhood friend Roderick Usher Having received a letter from him complaining of an illness and asking for his help Roderick s symptoms include hypersensitivity and an excessive preoccupation about having a serious illness It is revealed that Roderick s twin sister Madeline is also ill and falls into death like trances Roderick tells the narrator that he believes the house he lives in to be sentient and that this sentience arises from the arrangement of the masonry and vegetation surrounding it "The Fall of the House of Usher," by Edgar Allan Poe

Edgar Allan Poe,2010 The Fall of the House of Usher Edgar Allan Poe,2017-02-23 The Fall of the House of Usher shows Poe s ability to create an emotional tone in his work specifically feelings of fear doom and guilt These emotions center on Roderick Usher who like many Poe characters suffers from an unnamed disease Like the narrator in The Tell Tale Heart his disease inflames his hyperactive senses The illness manifests physically but is based in Roderick s mental or even moral state He is sick it is suggested because he expects to be sick based on his family s history of illness and is therefore essentially a hypochondriac Similarly he buries his sister alive because he expects to bury her alive creating his own self fulfilling prophecy The House of Usher itself doubly referring both to the actual structure and the family plays a significant role in the story It is the first character that the narrator introduces to the reader presented with a humanized description its windows are described as eye like twice in the first paragraph The fissure that develops in its side is symbolic of the decay of the Usher family and the house dies along with the two Usher siblings This connection was emphasized in Roderick's poem The Haunted Palace which seems to be a direct reference to the house that foreshadows doom
