Families In Schools A Chorus Of Voices In Restructuring:

Families in Schools Edward P. St. John, Alison I. Griffith, Leetta Allen-Haynes, 1997 A rich and highly credible account of what is possible when schools and families become partners in school restructuring Mothering for Schooling Alison Griffith, Dorothy Smith, 2005-07-08 This book looks at the relationship between the work women do with and for their children in relation to schooling Reinterpreting Urban School Reform Louis F. Miron, Edward P. St. John, 2003-04-09 A critical look at urban school reform efforts Public Relations in Schools Theodore J. Kowalski, 2011 For educational administration and leadership students studying school and community relations A contemporary and practice based school public relations text that centers on the importance of communication relationships and technology Outfitting students with a wealth of practical practice based knowledge that they can take directly into the halls of their school the new fifth edition of Public Relations in Schools has a fresh contemporary focus on both how administrators can effectively communicate with the community and how building strong relationships with stakeholders can ultimately lead to overall school improvement Through a blend of theoretical and tacit knowledge this text offers students an in depth guide to 1 how to successfully communicate with both internal and external school entities 2 how to build and maintain positive and active relationships via social and political capital and 3 how to translate the value of these relationships into positive change within the school While exploring these three central themes the book emphasizes how new technologies can aid school success At the same time real world case studies at the beginning of each chapter introduce readers to actual public relations issues and bring the material to life The revised fifth edition of Public Relations in Schools is updated with new materials and references throughout the text including two new chapters one on harnessing technology for your public relations needs and one on collecting assessing and applying public opinion In addition the new fifth edition text contains a matrix at the front of the book showing how content relates to ELCC NCATE Standards the widely used criteria for administrator preparation and licensing Reframing Persistence Research to Improve Academic Success Edward P. St. John, Michael Wilkerson, 2006-07-28 This volume of New Directions for Institutional Research proposes and tests new approaches to institutional research IR that attempt to break down barriers to academic success particularly focusing on minority students working students and others in nontraditional circumstances The chapters in this volume review prior research on best practices as well as evaluations of retention programs and persistence by students of color then go on to propose and test new approaches to assessment action research action inquiry and evaluation Lessons learned from this volume should contribute to strategies used by administrators and faculty for collaborative projects involving IR professionals and other higher education researchers in interventions designed to improve academic success for all students This is the 130th volume of New Directions for Institutional Research a quarterly publication published by Jossey Bass Access our complete list of New Directions for Institutional Research titles for a wide variety of IR topics Educational Yearning Thomas Oldenski, Dennis

Carlson,2002 What room is there for a language of spirituality and the spirit in democratic forms of education This is the question posed in this collection of essays by a broad range of scholars working in education Beginning with the premise that postmodernism is associated with a re spiritualization of culture the authors seek to explore ways in which this re spiritualization can be pushed in democratic rather than rightist or fundamentalist directions What they celebrate is diversity of progressive traditions and discourses of spirituality that educators and other cultural workers can draw upon to inform practice even as they trouble all essentialistic notions of spirituality Together these essays move democratic education onto a fundamentally new cultural terrain and they suggest that the metaphor of the journey of the spirit is one of the most enduring and potentially democratic ways of thinking about what it means to teach and to become educated Urban

Schools Mickey Lauria,Luis F. Mirón,2005 Urban Schools documents the quality of resistance and identity politics in relation to both the formal and hidden curricula of urban schools their pedagogical practices and their administrative norms and policies Building on the notion that the study of marginality is equally as important as an understanding of the school s structural connections to the wider society Mickey Lauria and Luis F Mir n demonstrate how resistance is much more than a random series of psychological events Indeed within the social context of the formation of racial and ethnic identity in schools in New Orleans Louisiana students acts of resistance alter the ideological structures of schooling American
