Family Ties And Aging Connidis:

Family Ties and Aging Ingrid Arnet Connidis, 2010 This advanced textbook covers issues of family ties and aging broadly the goal being to provide an integrated and thorough representation of what we know from the current research Whereas books on families and aging have traditionally focused on ties to a spouse and to children and grandchildren Family Ties Aging is more extensive and more reflective of contemporary society The text includes groups and relationships that typically receive short shrift exploring such neglected populations as single divorced and childless older people and their family relationships as well as sibling relationships among the elderly live in partnerships not formalized by marriage and the kinds of family ties forged by gay and lesbian persons over the life course The book weaves the vast range of information we now have about the many facets of family relationships and aging into a critical comprehensive and integrated whole Family Ties and Aging Ingrid Arnet Connidis, Amanda E. Barnett, 2018-10-05 Providing an integrated and thorough representation from current research and contemporary society Family Ties and Aging shows how pressing issues of our time an aging population changing family structures and new patterns of work family balance are negotiated in the family lives of middle aged and older adults Focusing on key questions such as How do current trends and social arrangements affect family relationships and What are the implications of what we know for future research theory practice and policy authors Ingrid Arnet Connidis and Amanda E Barnett explore groups and relationships that are typically overlooked including the unique family situations of older single and childless persons sibling ties older lesbian and gay adults and new forms of intimate relationships The Third Edition is thoroughly updated to include the latest research and theoretical developments recent media coverage of related issues and new information on intimate relationships in later life and elder neglect abuse

Family Ties and Aging Ingrid Arnet Connidis, 2001-06-19 This book presents a wealth of information on family ties and aging and would be a good text for undergraduates Victor G Cicirelli Purdue University Overall the book is really very good All the chapters are excellent impressive in its breadth and depth There is nothing like it on the market and I predict that it will be widely adopted Sarah Matthews Cleveland State University I am very excited about this book I believe it will fill a crucial niche in the field of gerontology There have been a few slim textbooks on family and aging issues in the past but none as comprehensive as this one There are many attractive features excellent coverage of diversity in family experiences according to racial ethnic and sexual orientation group membership indication of diversity of family and aging experiences according to socioeconomic class many useful examples of critical thinking section introductions and summaries that serve as useful learning tools I like the fact that U S and Canadian data are intertwined I think it will give students a broader perspective of the world than they typically get from textbooks Rosemary Blieszner Virginia Polytechnic Institute State University The book is written in a style that is easy to read and presents details carefully but without tedium It would be appropriate for an advanced undergraduate course or a graduate course I enjoyed reading this book This is a topic I am interested in and I think the author did a nice job of communicating both the old and the new the traditional and the nontraditional issues of importance in the study of the family Toni Antonucci University of Michigan This book examines the vast range of information about the many facets of family relationships and aging and compiles it into a critical comprehensive and integrated whole providing an integrated and thorough representation of the field

Family Ties & Aging Ingrid Arnet Connidis, Amanda E. Barnett, 2019 NEW TO THIS EDITION Key themes and theoretical orientation have been expanded to reflect developments in the field including the concept of ambivalence and increased attention to how what happens inside families relates to what happens outside them Each chapter begins with questions to consider to guide readers their learning as they pay attention to the critical issues New discussion of current issues on research and policy Chapters have been reorganized for emphasis and to bring clarity to the flow of ideas The long term intimate ties of middle aged and older persons spouse or partner gay or straight are explored in Chapters 3 and 4 The chapter on transitions in intimate relationships is now two chapters Chapter 5 on transitions in intimate ties and Chapter 7 on new opportunities for intimacy in later life Other intimate relationships and opportunities including cohabitation LAT living apart together and dating are discussed in Chapter 7 The growing complexity of family ties over the life course and the changing realities of what it is to be single or childless are examined Discussion of the family lives of gay and lesbian middle aged and older persons throughout in order to be deliberately inclusive regarding all aspects of family life rather than isolating the family ties of gay and lesbian persons in a separate chapter Updated discussion of a range of research and policy issues as they relate to understanding and supporting complex and diverse family ties in the later stages of life

KEY FEATURES Weaves the vast range of information about the many facets of family relationships and aging into a critical comprehensive and integrated whole Explores a range of intimate relationships what happens when they end and pathways to intimacy in old age Emphasizes diversity in terms of gender age class race ethnicity and sexual orientation throughout to help readers learn about similarities and differences in family relationships as we age Links the discussion of various family relationships in mid and later life to current and future directions for research practice and policy Chapters and sections end with a summary and conclusion and quotes from various sources are used throughout to bring concepts to life

Handbook of Families and Aging Rosemary Blieszner, Victoria Hilkevitch Bedford, 2012-09-20 This comprehensive state of the art textbook and reference volume in family gerontology reviews and critiques the recent theoretical empirical and methodological literature identifies future research directions and makes recommendations for gerontology professionals This book is both an updated version of and a complement to the original Handbook of Families and Aging The many additions include the most recent demographic changes on aging families new theoretical formulations innovative research methods recent legal issues and death and bereavement as well as new material on the relationships themselves sibling partnered and intergenerational relationships for example Among the brand new topics in this edition are step family relationships aging families and immigration aging families and 21st century technology and peripheral family ties Unlike the more cursory summaries found in textbooks the essays within Handbook of Families and Aging Second Edition provide thoughtful in depth coverage of each topic No other book provides such a comprehensive and timely overview of theory and research on family relationships the contexts of family life and major turning points in late life families Nevertheless the contents are written to be engaging and accessible to a broad audience including advanced undergraduate students graduate students researchers and gerontology practitioners Serious lay readers will also find this book highly informative about contemporary family issues

Care Managers: Working with the Aging Family Cathy Cress, 2009-10-07 Care Managers Working with the Aging Family addresses the unmet needs of care managers working with aging clients as well as the client's entire family With its in depth focus on the aging family system this book fills a gap for medical case managers and geriatric care managers giving them tools to better meet the treatment goals of aging clients and their families as the older clients move through the continuum of care in institutional based settings or community based settings Care Managers Working With the Aging Family uniquely focuses on helping the entire family unit through the process of death and dying helping midlife siblings to work together to render care to aging parents It adds proven techniques to the care manager repertoire such as family meetings forgiveness technology and care giver assessment It offers multiple tools to do an effective care plan so that both the needs of the family and the older client are met

Gender and Ageing Sara

Arber, Kate Davidson, Jay Ginn, 2003 This book is a follow up to Arber and Ginn's award winning Connecting Gender and Ageing 1995 It contains original chapters from eminent writers on gender and ageing addressing newly emergent areas within gender and ageing including gender identity and masculinity in later life Early work on gender and ageing was dominated by a focus on older women The present collection breaks with this tradition by emphasizing changing gender roles and relationships gender identity and an examination of masculinities in midlife and later life A theme running through the book is the need to reconceptualize partnership status in order to understand the implications of both widowhood and divorce for older women and men as well as new forms of relationships such as Living Apart Together LAT relationships There is also an underlying focus on how socio economic circumstances influence the experiences of ageing and the ways transitions are negotiated Written with undergraduate students and researchers in mind Gender Ageing will be an invaluable text for those studying social gerontology sociology of later life gender studies health and community care and social policy

The Social Networks of Older People Howard Litwin, 1996-10-30 This edited volume examines the social networks of older people in nine countries from a range of perspectives in order to determine the potential of informal support structures to deliver the bulk of care in today's society Researchers from the United States Canada England and Wales France Spain the Netherlands Sweden Finland and Israel present up to date analyses of support networks in each of their countries The social policy implications of the comparative data are critically reviewed The findings clearly suggest that social network availability is diminishing for a significant minority of elderly people However current practice in most countries reveals little purposive interweaving of formal services and informal networks in order to strengthen the function of the latter and to prolong their presumed benefits
