Trauma, Survival and Resilience in War Zones David Winter, Rachel Brown, Stephanie Goins, Clare Mason, 2015-10-16 This book based upon a series of psychological research studies examines Sierra Leone as a case study of a constructivist and narrative perspective on psychological responses to warfare telling the stories of a range of survivors of the civil war The authors explore previous research on psychological responses to warfare while providing background information on the Sierra Leone civil war and its context Chapters consider particular groups of survivors including former child soldiers as well as amputee footballers mental health service users and providers and refugees Implications of the themes emerging from this research are considered with respect to how new understandings can inform current models of trauma and work with its survivors Amongst the issues concerned will be post traumatic stress and post traumatic growth resilience mental health service provision perpetration of atrocities and forgiveness The book also provides a critical consideration of the appropriateness of the use of Western concepts and methods in an African context Drawing upon psychological theory and rich narrative research Trauma Survival and Resilience in War Zones will appeal to researchers and academics in the field of clinical psychology as well as those studying post war conflict zones "Be Focused... Use Common Sense... Overcome Excuses and Stupidity..." Reuben van Rensburg, Zoltan Erdey, Thomas Schirrmacher, 2022-07-07 Manfred Kohl has served in many senior roles in theological education and holds the distinction of having personally visited more theological institutions than anyone else in history 495 He has published over 120 books and articles and has received numerous awards and honorary doctorate degrees He founded World Vision the well known Christian Humanitarian Organization in several European Countries Re Forma which has set a global standard for non formal theological education the Galilean Movement calling for annually an additional 1 million women and men for biblical ministry and co chairs the Integrity Commission of the World Evangelical Alliance and the Lausanne Movement In this festschrift more than 30 scholars from around the world pay tribute to this remarkable man by each contributing an article focused on the areas of his career where he has made telling contributions As theological educators theologians Christian leaders and students read this book it will not only result in his legacy living on but will make a significant contribution to theological education both in the formal and non formal sectors

Theology of Reconciliation in the Context of Church Relations Rula Khoury Mansour, 2020-01-31 Christians are called to be peacemakers in a world rife with conflict but how should Christians respond when the source of strife is not outside the church but within it Built on an in depth analysis of three Palestinian church splits this text examines the cultural and theological implications of intra church conflict in Arab evangelical communities in Israel Translating Miroslav Volf s formative theology of reconciliation into her contemporary Palestinian context Dr Rula Khoury Mansour provides a critical evaluation of both Volf s theory and Palestinian peacemaking models Through her research and analysis Dr Mansour develops a Middle Eastern theology of reconciliation and encourages congregations around the world to develop greater cultural and theological awareness in their quest to experience lasting peace within their churches and wider communities

Forgiveness and Reintegration Stephanie Goins, 2016 Forgiveness essential for all healthy human relations becomes all the more critical when speaking of good reintegration for child soldiers Children were both victims and perpetrators of horrendous crimes during Sierra Leone's ten year civil war that ended in 2002 Many former child soldiers sought to reintegrate with their families and communities though the receptiveness of families and communities was essential for this process to be successful This book examines forgiveness and reintegration from psychological theological philosophical and anthropological perspectives and asks if forgiveness can contribute to and facilitate reintegration for former child soldiers Despite the magnitude of atrocities experienced Sierra Leone's people have demonstrated that indeed the transformative process of forgiveness has enabled them to live in forgiving ways for more than 13 years This remarkable book on child soldiers in Sierra Leone combines philosophical theological and psychological theory and narratives in an exploration of the sometimes painful and always complex history of violence perpetrated on and by children Focusing on the role of forgiveness in their rehabilitation and reintegration it offers both insights and hope making an excellent resource for programmatic guidance and teaching Jo Boyden Professor of International Development and Director Young Lives Department of International Development University of Oxford To say that this book has moved me is an understatement Stephanie Goins research and data clearly support that forgiveness is a useful and necessary component of the reintegration and rehabilitation process for former child soldiers In other words The study stands on a solid theoretical ground where particularly psychology and theology are in constant dialogue This dialogue is a major contribution to the fields of both psychology and theology From the Foreword by Knud Jorgensen Adjunct Professor in Missiology Communication and Leadership at MF Norwegian School of Theology Having begun her career in psychology Dr Stephanie Goins is currently serving as Executive Programs Director for a human rights organization focusing on prevention and aftercare for trafficked and exploited children Dr Goins is passionate for the well being of children deeply committed to justice and dedicated to a lifestyle of forgiveness She has spent considerable time abroad and discovered how critical it is to frame our understandings through the eyes of the other particularly those of a child These values and beliefs led her to Sierra Leone where she discovered that recovery from even the most horrendous of crimes could be facilitated through the transformative power of forgiveness

Amnesty and the Niger Delta Conflict. Effects and Solutions According to the Conflict Transformation Theory Frank Adogbeji Enakemu, 2021-07-01 Master's Thesis from the year 2021 in the subject Politics Topic Peace and Conflict Security grade 8.5 University of Port Harcourt course Master's in Conflict and Security Studies language English abstract The paper is about amnesty the Niger delta conflict and the conceptual Framework like the concept of amnesty and the concept of disarmament demobilisation and reintegration The research examined the impact of the Federal Government's 2009 Amnesty programme for ex militants in the Niger Delta The focus was on security and development in the region it also focused on oil pipeline vandalism The study made use of the Conflict Transformation theory The central thesis of conflict transformation theory is that contemporary violent conflicts require interventions than transcend more than a mere change of position and the identification of win win outcomes The study utilized mainly qualitative methods the Focus Group Discussion FGD and In Depth Interviews IDI Secondary sources of data collection such as journals articles books government publication internet articles and newspapers were also utilized the data were descriptively analysed The sampling technique employed for the study was the purposive sampling to select the audience for the FGDs and IDIs The findings revealed that the amnesty programme was able to address the security problem in the region to enable government to successfully carry out oil exploration and increase the nations earning from oil production The findings also revealed that issues relating to governance and development in the region are still a fundamental problem in need of dire solutions The research recommends the following The federal government should push for restructured Nigeria The federal government should look into ways to improving on the present programme on Niger Delta oil cooperation s must be made to participate in providing basic amenities in the Region the federal government must prioritize the clean up of the region due to continuous oil spill and pollution in the environment

Repairing Communities Through Restorative Justice John G. Perry,2002 Restorative justice is a relatively new concept in corrections Repairing Communities examines how restorative justice can be used to rehabilitate offenders as opposed to simply punishing them This book s contributors examine the benefits of restorative justice to the offender the victim and corrections Topics discussed include Moral and Philosophical Foundations of Restorative Justice Community is Not a Place Linking Crime Prevention to Restorative Justice Practical Concerns Building Peace the VORP Approach and Community Justice Sanctioning Models This book includes the vocabulary of restorative justice and real life examples which demonstrate the principles examined

The Linacre Quarterly ,1999 Restorative Justice and Practices in New Zealand Gabrielle M. Maxwell,James Hou-fu Liu,2007 The quest for justice has been a powerful driving force in all human societies In recent times the notice of restorative justice has gained currency To achieve restorative justice all those affected by a crime must be involved in finding a solution one that repairs the harm and restores broken relationships This means striving to rebuild the damaged lives not only of those who have suffered but also of those who have caused suffering to others It means the healing of hurts the reconciliation of offenders and victims and the eventual reintegration into the community of those who have offended as responsible and productive members of society This is no easy task But it is vital to building a cohesive inclusive and fair society Moreover restorative practices need not be limited to the criminal justice arena They are equally applicable in other fields of human endeavour where people have been harmed and where the restoration of broken relationships is needed This book provides an up to date account of how restorative processes and practices are being applied in New Zealand in the justice system education civil disputes and government responses to historical wrongs It will be a valuable source of ideas and inspiration for all those who are seeking to build a more restorative society      Restoring Justice Daniel W. Van Ness, Karen Heetderks Strong, 2002 The book outlines why criminal justice is in need of a new vision and how restorative justice can meet this need The authors define restorative justice and its values explore its foundational underpinnings and details ways to build restorative justice into policy and practice The book grew out of a three year project investigating the theory behind restorative justice the principles for its application and the implementation of practical programs to advance the restorative justice vision This second edition continues with the mission by examining how restorative justice concepts have been applied and by evaluating the conceptual and practical objections and obstacles to restorative justice in practice      The Journal of Speculative Philosophy William Torrey Harris, 2010      Sociology, 2001      Encyclopedia of Crime and Punishment David Levinson, 2002 The Encyclopedia of Crime and Punishment provides the much needed practices policies and research and will be of interest to students teachers and the general reader alike This work should be on the shelves of all libraries with collections in the social sciences Larry E Sullivan Ph D Chief Librarian John Jay College of Criminal Justice Crime It started with Cain and Abel and it won't end with the Sopranos Our fascination with transgression and its punishment is universal And now from Sage the publisher of criminal justice abstracts and other standards in the field comes the ultimate reference source on this all consuming subject comprehensive authoritative up to the second Comprehensive and balanced coverage of Concepts and theories Correction Law Crimes Methods and statistics National surveys Organizations Police science Social and cultural context Features and benefits 100% original content Broader more up to date coverage than any other source on the market 275 Contributors 425 Signed entries 150 Illustrations Prestigious advisory board overseeing quality 1 5 million words 250 sidebars offering key primary source documents 100 factoids spotlighting important and sometimes startling information International coverage with focus on the contemporary United States Chronology master bibliography and general index Appendixes Careers in criminal justice Professional organizations Guidance on using the Web to collect accurate information Encyclopedia of Crime and Punishment covers the waterfront Entries include Broken windows theory Child witness Environmental crime Interpol Media Pathology Prison industry Religion in prison Securities fraud Spectator violence Television Victimization War crimes Wrongful convictions ADVISORY BOARD Anita Blowers University of North Carolina Charlotte Eve Buzawa University of Massachusetts Lowell Ric Curtis John Jay College of Criminal Justice Harry Dammer Niagara University Obi Ebbe University of Tennessee Chattanooga Frank Horvath Michigan State University Phyllis Schultze Rutgers University Larry Sullivan John Jay College of Criminal Justice      Postwar Recovery Alpaslan Ozerdem, 2009 Though conflict has been the focus of much academic attention the processes of recovering from war and conflict have been little studied Confusion still exists as to whether post war reconstruction is concerned with relief or development with physical rebuilding economic recovery social reintegration or political reconstruction The result is an all too frequent fragmentation and waste of effort on the ground An understanding of the need to plan and integrate the many different activities for reconstruction and recovery within a shared vision is therefore crucial The International Library of Post war Reconstruction and Development will set out a conceptual and strategic framework for post war reconstruction practice at the same time exploring and illustrating specific aspects of practice for those working in the field or training to do so The series will also act as a focus for a continuing dialogue between academics and practitioners at the forefront of developing the discipline BOOK JACKET British Humanities Index ,2005 Civil Society ,1996 Reducing the Risk of Policy Failure Christine Parker,2000 Peace Research ,2000 Bulletin of the New York Public Library New York Public Library,1979 Includes its Report 1896 1945 Annual Review of Political Science ,2008 The mission of Annual review of political science is to provide systematic periodic examinations of the field through critical authoritative reviews The comprehensive critical review not only summarizes a topic but also roots out errors of fact or concept and provokes discussion that will lead to new research activity Each review contains title author s key words abstracts review and bibliography OECD Working Papers ,2000
