Brueggemann, 2014-08-29 The Psalms express the most elemental human emotions representing situations in which people are most vulnerable ecstatic or driven to the extremities of life and faith Many people may be familiar with a few Psalms or sing them as part of worship Here highly respected author Walter Brueggemann offers readers an additional use for the Psalms as scripted prayers we perform to help us reveal ourselves to God Brueggemann explores the rich historical literary theological and spiritual content of the Psalms while focusing on various themes such as praise lament violence and wisdom He skillfully describes Israel's expression of faith as sung through the Psalms situates the Psalmic liturgical tradition in its ancient context and encourages contemporary readers to continue to perform them as part of their own worship experiences Brueggemann's masterful take on the Psalms as prayers will help readers to unveil their hopes and fears before God and in turn feel God's grace unveiled to them Into Your Hand Walter Brueggemann, 2014-12-03 This set of seven sermons follows the traditional church sequence of The Seven Last Words of the Cross utterances that the gospel narratives place on the lips of Jesus These utterances are drawn from the several gospel narratives In the liturgical life of the church however the sequence has a significance and staying power of its own quite apart from the gospel narratives in which the utterances are embedded These sermons take seriously the faith voiced by Jesus in his context of wretched abuse by the Roman Empire They attempt moreover to connect that reality of faith and abuse in our contemporary world of concentrated ruthless power The intent of such sermons on Good Friday is to replicate for us in our context what such an interface of faith and abuse must have been like These sermons were preached last Good Friday in the preacher's home congregation Finding Rest for Our Souls Amber Mattingly, 2024-11-22 In a world that often feels chaotic and overwhelming Finding Rest for Our Souls offers a balm for the weary soul Pause Elizabeth F. Caldwell, 2024-01-02 Lent is an ideal time to step back and reflect on the deeper movements of the spirit and Elizabeth Caldwell helps readers do this through a simple but profound approach Pause Spending Lent with the Psalms invites us to take up the spiritual practice of encountering sinking into and deeply engaging with one psalm each week during Lent and Holy Week The season of Lent encourages Christians to consider a different pace one of slowing down noticing pausing than what our dominant culture values The invitation to pause with the Psalms begins on Ash Wednesday starting with a mark of ashes on our foreheads that reminds us that in spite of our failures things we have done or failed to do we belong to God Readers are then guided into an exploration of Psalm 51 and the theme of a clean heart Each chapter helps readers to connect an image drawn from that psalm such as paths faces blessing tables waiting thanksgiving listening being alone or abandoned and hands with their own lives At the close of each chapter readers are invited to try a different prayer practice to help them continue to reflect on the theme and psalm each day This intentional engagement without feeling burdensome opens just enough space and time for a creative spiritual practice to flourish sustaining the life of faith during the Lenten season in ways that can make a difference in God's world Reflection and discussion questions are included with each chapter The book includes a leader's guide at the end for study groups Download more resources for group study sermon series and worship services including illustrated visual aids at www.wjkbooks.com Pause Feasting on the Word: Pentecost and season after Pentecost 1 (Propers 3-16) David L.
