Fellow Workers With God Orthodox Thinking On Theosis Foundations:

Fellow Workers with God Norman Russell, 2009 Asked about the Orthodox doctrine of salvation many people will say it has to do with theosis or deification yet few can explain what theosis actually means Norman Russell builds on his magisterial study The Doctrine of Deification in the Greek Patristic Tradition to present this complex teaching of the Fathers with uncompromising scholarship and welcome clarity The book will interest specialists and non specialists alike About the Author Norman Russell is an independent scholar who has written widely on Orthodox themes specializing in early Greek patristics and fourteenth century hesychasm He is the author of The Doctrine of Deification in the Greek Patristic Tradition

Theosis and Forgiveness in the Gospel of Matthew Kangil Kim, 2023-10-03 In this book Kangil Kim reads the Matthean teaching of forgiveness through the framework of theosis Kim argues that theosis provides a theological lens that brings into sharper focus the meaning of forgiveness especially with respect to the dynamics of heaven and earth and of God and the human in Matthew's Gospel Forgiveness as an embodied way of life is more than following Jesus and imitating what Jesus does but one of theosis the extension of God's own power working itself out through Jesus in our lives

Christification Jordan Cooper, 2014-07-18 The doctrine of theosis has enjoyed a recent resurgence among varied theological traditions across the realms of historical dogmatic and exegetical theology In Christification A Lutheran Approach to Theosis Jordan Cooper evaluates this teaching from a Lutheran perspective He examines the teachings of the church fathers the New Testament and the Lutheran Confessional tradition in conversation with recent scholarship on theosis Cooper proposes that the participationist soteriology of the early fathers expressed in terms of theosis is compatible with Luther's doctrine of forensic justification The historic Lutheran tradition Scripture and the patristic sources do not limit soteriological discussions to legal terminology but instead offer a multifaceted doctrine of salvation that encapsulates both participatory and forensic motifs This is compared and contrasted with the development of the doctrine of deification in the Eastern tradition arising from the thought of Pseudo Dionysius Cooper argues that the doctrine of the earliest fathers such as Irenaeus Athanasius and Justin is primarily a Christological and economic reality defined as Christification This model of theosis is placed in contradistinction to later Neoplatonic forms of deification Dietrich Bonhoeffer's Christian Humanism Jens Zimmermann, 2019 An innovative study of the theology of Dietrich Bonhoeffer which elucidates that his work teaches and represents a Christian humanism that is also present in the wider Christian tradition Alexandrian Legacy Mario Baghos, Doru Costache, Philip Kariatlis, 2015-09-04 This volume brings together contributions exploring a range of aspects of the Alexandrian patristic tradition from the second half of the second century to the first half of the fifth century a tradition whose complex and significant legacy is at times misunderstood and in some quarters wholly neglected With contributions by both Australian and international scholars the fourteen chapters here highlight that behind the complexity of this tradition one finds a vibrant Christian spirit granted one that has successfully put on the flesh of Hellenistic culture and a consistent striving towards the reformation and transformation of the human being according to the gospel Furthermore this volume contributes a nuanced voice to the scholarly choir which already hums a new song about Christian Alexandria and its representatives Indeed these contributions are interdisciplinary in approach combining methods pertaining to the fields of historiography theology and philosophy pastoral care hermeneutics hagiography and spirituality By way of this complex approach this book brings together areas which currently evolve in separate scholarly universes which is wholly befitting to the complexities entailed by the ever challenging Alexandrian legacy

Sin, the Human Predicament, and Salvation in the Gospel of John Mathew E. Sousa, 2021-08-12 Mathew E Sousa demonstrates that in certain respects John's doctrine of salvation fails to align with its customary depiction in Johannine scholarship Sousa suggests that according to John the human predicament is not merely unbelief or a lack of mental perception and Jesus's mission consists not merely of revelation and or a purely forensic atonement Rather Jesus is for John the one who makes true and everlasting life an accomplished fact for humanity and in doing so Jesus reveals the true nature of the predicament from which he saves Sousa argues that salvation in the Gospel of John concerns ethics and the quality or condition of human corporeality The matters of sin and death in particular also make clear that according to John the human predicament is a reality that in various ways persists for believers as they both are and become children of God Sousa thus concludes that salvation for John consists of far more than the emergence of belief in a moment of decision

Transformed into the Same Image Paul Copan, Michael M. C. Reardon, 2024-10-15 Though the doctrine of theosis has been gaining interest among scholars for some time most have focused on Roman Catholic or Orthodox traditions In this constructive account of deification biblical scholars and theologians focus on the work of major Protestant thinkers and Protestant expressions of the doctrine

Living in God's Creation Elizabeth Theokritoff, 2009 The ecological vision of Orthodox Christianity portrays creation as God's epiphany and the human person as a connecting link between creation and Creator Christian love is manifest through the right use of material things With fresh wisdom and insight Elizabeth Theokritoff draws on the Fathers the liturgy saints lives and modern sources to challenge both theologians and non theologians to change the way they think This is a compelling read

Prodromou, 2008 Within these pages a younger generation of Orthodox scholars in America takes up the perennial task of transmitting the meaning of Christianity to a particular time and culture This collection of twelve essays as the title Thinking Through Faith implies is the result of six years of reflective conversation and collaboration regarding core beliefs of the Orthodox faith tenets that the authors present from fresh perspectives that appeal to reason and spiritual sensibilities alike Subjects covered include The Kingdom of God The Foundations of Noetic Prayer The Discipline of Theology Understanding Pastoral Care in the Early Church Orthodox Theologies of Women and Ordained Ministry Reading the Lives of the Saints The Meaning and Place of Death in an Orthodox Ethical Framework Confession Desire and Emotions International Religious Freedom and the Challenge of Proselytism Typologies of Orthopraxy Byzantine Liturgy as God's Family at Prayer and the Orthodox Church in the Twentieth Century The Orthodox Understanding of Salvation Christopher Veniamin, 2023-07-20 The Orthodox Understanding of Salvation brings together some of Dr Veniamin's talks and articles hitherto available in relatively little known theological journals and periodicals which pertain to the fundamental question of the purpose of human existence to Salvation as understood in the age old and unbroken tradition of the Orthodox Christian Faith the faith of the Patriarchs Prophets Apostles Martyrs and Saints of our Lord God and Saviour Jesus Christ Dr Christopher Veniamin is a spiritual child of St Sophrony the Athonite 1896 1993 a graduate of the Universities of Thessalonica and Oxford has served as Professor of Patristics at St Tikhon's Seminary 1994 2023 and as Dean and COO of The Antiochian House of Studies 2015 2020 He is also the author of The Orthodox Understanding of Salvation Theosis in Scripture and Tradition and The Transfiguration of Christ in Greek Patristic Literature From Irenaeus of Lyons to Gregory Palamas With Addendum The Transfiguration of Christ in the Spiritual Homilies of Macarius the Egyptian His translation Saint Gregory Palamas The Homilies for which he wrote a prodigious number of scholia is arguably the greatest single volume commentary on the Bible in Patristic literature The Cambridge Companion to Orthodox Christian Theology Elizabeth Theokritoff, 2008-12-18 Orthodox Christian theology is often presented as the direct inheritor of the doctrine and tradition of the early Church But continuity with the past is only part of the truth it would be false to conclude that the eastern section of the Christian Church is in any way static Orthodoxy building on its patristic foundations has blossomed in the modern period This volume focuses on the way Orthodox theological tradition is understood and lived today It explores the Orthodox understanding of what theology is an expression of the Church's life of prayer both corporate and personal from which it can never be separated Besides discussing aspects of doctrine the book portrays the main figures themes and

developments that have shaped Orthodox thought There is particular focus on the Russian and Greek traditions as well as the dynamic but less well known Antiochian tradition and the Orthodox presence in the West A Manual of Theosis Joshua Schooping, 2020-09-23 Rather than being shrouded in mystique reduced to a transactional asceticism or stripped down to mere piety theosis is the transformation of the human person by grace as it works in their will to move them in ever increasing freedom towards God Gleaning from the Patristic wisdom contained in such works as the Philokalia this short manual seeks to lay out the necessary practical framework for the systematic cultivation of theosis by connecting theoretical comprehension together with clarity of application It aims to present the basics of theory and praxis and the logic of their connection in such a way that a person can faithfully understand and earnestly apply themselves to the upward call of God in Christ Jesus There is not another life with which we might undertake these efforts therefore anyone who desires all that God has purchased for them by His Blood is urged thus to apply themselves to the exercise of theosis From the tumult of the passions to the transformative nature of faith and from practical apophaticism to the insight born of theoria the stepping stones of watchfulness stillness and ceaseless prayer lead the grace led person onward in their mystical union with the Lord Jesus Christ The present work thus hopes to assist the faithful reader in fulfilling this God's Gospel call to abide in Him and to be indwelt by Him Deification in Eastern Orthodox Theology Emil Bartos, 2007-01-01 In recent years Eastern Orthodox thought has had an increasing influence on key aspects of contemporary Western Christian thought particularly as regards the doctrine of the Trinity and mystical spirituality However the foundations and fundamental presuppositions of Eastern Christianity's theological system have remained largely unstudied and thus unknown in the West In this important study Emil Bartos examines the doctrine of deification which provides the conceptual basis for the way Staniloae and other Orthodox theologians understand the major doctrines of the Christian faith The idea that God became man that man might become God sounds almost heretical to many Western ears yet this affirmation is repeated countless times in the writings of the Eastern Fathers Beginning with the apophaticism that lies at the heart of Eastern theology Bartos examines each of the key doctrines of anthropology christology soteriology and ecclesiology as they relate to deification in Staniloae's thought Bartos study represents not merely a contribution to contemporary dialogue between Eastern and Western theologians but also a much needed introduction to an aspect of Christian thought down the centuries that is largely neglected in the Christian West

Theosis and Religion Norman Russell, 2024-03-14 Theosis originally a Greek term for Christian divinisation or deification has become a vogue word in modern theology Although recent publications have explored its meaning in a selection of different contexts this is the first book to offer a coherent narrative of how the concept of theosis developed in both its Eastern and Western versions Norman Russell shows how the role of Dionysius the Areopagite was pivotal not only in Byzantium but also in the late mediaeval West where it strengthened the turn towards an individualistic interiority Russell also relates theosis to changing concepts of religion in the modern age He investigates the Russian version of theosis introduced in the West by Russian members the Paris School after the 1917 Revolution Since then theosis has undergone additional development through the addition of esoteric elements which have since passed into the mainstream of all theological traditions and even into popular spirituality

Remember the Days of Old Augustine Casiday, 2014 The faith of the orthodox Christian is apostolic in that it is continuous with the faith of the first century apostles But to be truly apostolic it must be sent into the world speaking to each new age In this fresh and innovative work Augustine Casiday shows us what it means to re appropriate the wisdom of the Fathers and to give their words new life in a new age Beginning with the basic inquiry of what it means to accord the ancient writers authority as it were affiliating them or adopting them as fathers the reader is invited to join on a journey to many new places as well as to ones we thought we knew but didn't really This book will inform anyone who wants to grapple with how we treat the past and its authoritative voices Beginners will encounter a first rate thinker writing comprehensibly and accessibly Advanced patristic scholars will be guaranteed to come away from this book with new insights and challenging arguments

Theosis: Fusion of Man/woman and God? Ángel Sánchez-Escobar, 2012-04-27 Theosis is the purpose of human existence and it is the meaning of human life The reason why creation and created creatures especially humans exist is so that they become one d or re united with the source of their BE ing with their Eternal Ground with their Creator The Orthodox Christian way of living the angelic way is the way of theosis or deification of the divine spark in or as the soul being one d with its origin again of the image reflected in the mirror through which we now only see darkly seen as the Infinite of which it is a reflection The way of theosis is the way of the individual of my will of my existence becoming always less as the Will of the Father becomes increasingly more clear to me and my own will as the nature of my existence becomes that of the life of the Trinity the beatific vision the Kingdom of Heaven its attitudes norms and values is realized in the present moment in my actual existence here and now

Modern Orthodox Theology Paul Ladouceur, 2019-02-21 Modern Orthodox theology represents a continuity of the Eastern Christian theological tradition stretching back to the early Church and especially to the Ancient Fathers of the Church This volume considers the full range of modern Orthodox theology The first chapters of the book offer a chronological study of the development of modern Orthodox theology beginning with a survey of Orthodox theology from the fall of Constantinople in 1453 until the early 19th century Ladouceur then focuses on theology in imperial Russia the Russian religious renaissance at the beginning of the 20th century and the origins and nature of neopatristic theology as well as the new theology in Greece and Romania and tradition and the restoration of patristic thought Subsequent chapters examine specific major themes God and Creation Divine humanity personhood and human rights The Church of Christ Ecumenical theology and religious diversity The Christification of life Social and Political Theology The Name of God conflict The ordination of women The volume concludes with assessments of major approaches of modern Orthodox theology and reflections on the current status and future of Orthodox theology Designed for classroom use the book features case studies a detailed index a list of recommended
