Feminist Knowledge Critique And Construct:

Feminist Knowledge (RLE Feminist Theory) Sneja Gunew, 2013-05-20 The minority feminist viewpoints have often been submerged in the interests of maintaining a mainstream universal model of feminism This anthology takes into account the various differences among women while looking at the important areas of feminist struggle While sisterhood is indeed global it certainly does not mean that all women are required to submerge their specific differences and assimilate to a universal model Consequently the collection includes essays by leaders in the field of post structuralist enquiry as well as by those immersed in the new spirituality and the social consequences of recent biological research Other essays reflect the political struggles which continue to be waged with different strategies by socialist and radical feminists and the self searching analyses undertaken by feminists uneasy about their inclusion within educational institutions and the radical new interpretations of sexuality within the cultural domain The collection begins with a critique of white mainstream feminism emanating from Aboriginal women in Australia The implications of the critique indicate that there is a pervasive racism within the feminist movement

Feminist Knowledge Sneja Gunew, 2012-10-11 This collection contains essays by leaders in the field of post structuralist enquiry as well as by those immersed in the new spirituality and the social consequences of recent biological research Other essays reflect political struggles being waged with different strategies by radical feminists and the analyses undertaken by feminists uneasy about their inclusion within educational institutions and the radical new interpretations of sexuality within the cultural domain

From Revolution to Deconstruction Pam Papadelos, 2010 Feminist theory is no longer guiding the development of policy interventions in Australia because it is seen to be irrelevant to modern women Many leading feminists are locked into a politics that is based on liberal or socialist principles and do not want or know how to move away from these even when this type of politics is failing to change many women's circumstances This book confronts feminism and challenges its relationship to philosophy which the author argues impacts on the reception of poststructural theories like deconstruction It provides a narrative of why the potential for deconstruction has been denied as well as where it has been taken on It gives an account of deconstruction that tackles some of its more difficult aspects namely its political applications The book also outlines the history of Women s Studies as a discipline that is its institutionalization and identifies its theoretical concerns as a social movement with a political agenda The book maps deconstruction s impact on feminism in Australia and more specifically its introduction to Women s Studies programs Postfeminisms Ann Brooks,2002-09-11 Once seen as synonymous with anti feminism postfeminism i now understood as the theoretical meeting ground between feminism and anti foundationalist movements such as postmodernism post structuralism and post colonialism In this clear exposition of some of the major debates theorists and practitioners Ann Brooks shows how feminism is being redefined for the twenty first century Individual chapters look at postfeminism in relation to feminist epistemology Foucault psychoanalytic theory and semiology postmodernism and postcolonialism cultural politics popular culture film and media and sexuality and identity For all students looking for guidance through the sometimes murky waters of contemporary feminist theory this book wil provide a reassuring first port of call The Formation of the Early Church Jostein Ådna,2005 Essays presented are adapted papers read at the 7th Nordic New Testament Conference in Stavanger Norway June 14 18 2003 Resistance, Flight, Creation Dorothea Olkowski,2000 Thirteen women at the forefront of philosophy locate new feminist points of view within the discipline by rigorously engaging works of contemporary French philosophy In so doing they both transform the standard practices of the field and carve out new territory These writers amplify the work of feminist philosophers such as Simone de Beauvoir Luce Irigaray and Sarah Kofman in ways that are both stylistically and substantively creative They also appropriate for radical feminist use the works of male philosophers such as Michel Foucault Gilles Deleuze Maurice Merleau Ponty and Jean Paul Sartre The essays illustrate the manner in which feminist philosophers bypass traditional methodology in favor of a disciplinary freedom characterized by fluid methodologies best exemplified in Beauvoir s work and by the employment of imaginative forms including the autobiographical and the poetic The modes of inquiry used here range variously from psychoanalysis and existentialism to deconstruction post structuralism and newly resurgent phenomenology This volume also contains a comprehensive bibliography of feminist thinkers who are enacting French philosophy in English German and French Handbook on Gender in World Politics Jill Steans,Daniela Tepe-Belfrage,2016-07-27 The Handbook on Gender in World Politics is an up to date comprehensive multi disciplinary compendium of scholarship in gender studies The text provides an indispensable reference guide for scholars and students interrogating gender issues in international and global contexts Substantive areas covered include statecraft citizenship and the politics of belonging international law and human rights media and communications technologies political economy development global governance and transnational visions of politics and solidarities Feminist Research - an Intellectual Adventure? Aino Saarinen,1992 Feminism Under Fire Ellen R. Marina Gunew,1991 A collection of essays written in the field of feminist theory this book reflects the social consequences of biological research and the political struggles waged by socialist and radical feminists The contributors suggest that there is a pervasive racism within the feminist movement Academic Women Ann Brooks,1997 How and why have women academics experienced patterns of exclusion segregation and discrimination in higher education To what extent are academic relationships characterized by endemic sexism in defence of male privilege What parallels are there in patterns of discrimination and disadvantage for academic women in different cultural contexts Academic Women explores these questions and investigates the relationships between gender power and the academy through an analysis of the position of academic women in higher education in the UK and New Zealand It considers the gap between the models of equality and academic fairness which are said to characterize academic life and the sexist reality of the academy Ann Brooks combines new and original data drawn from statistical evidence and from the results of questionnaires and interviews with British and New Zealand women academics and this evidence is located within a wider framework of historical evidence on the position of academic women in both countries The A-Z Guide to Modern Literary and Cultural Theorists Stuart Sim,1995
