Faulkner At Fifty Tutors And Tyros:

Faulkner at Fifty Marie Liénard-Yeterian, Gérald Préher, 2014-05-02 2012 commemoration ceremonies included strange bedfellows as the year marked the 50th anniversary of the deaths of both Marilyn Monroe and William Faulkner The Faulkner commemoration events were an opportunity for scholars to honor not just the memory of the writer but also the memory of dear departed members of the Faulkner community a community of past readers and lovers of Faulkner s oeuvre Divided into three parts this collection first focuses on ways of teaching Faulkner and then endeavors to show how the Mississippi writer made use of his knowledge of other writers to give shape to his craft and later help others The last section puts Faulkner into perspective by bringing together new ways of reading his works and new voices that echo his The twenty first century shows how Faulkner s fiction can be dislodged from its traditional moorings dislocated and placed in movement and transformed and tutored into new meanings and significance This volume is a tribute to the memory of Noel Polk Andr Bleikasten and Michel Gresset pioneers in charting the course of the Faulkner journey Nineteenth-Century Southern Women Writers Melissa Heidari, Brigitte Zaugg, 2019-08-12 The essays in this book explore the role of Grace King s fiction in the movement of American literature from local color and realism to modernism and show that her work exposes a postbellum New Orleans that is fragmented socially politically and linguistically In her introduction Melissa Walker Heidari examines selections from King s journals and letters as views into her journey toward a modernist aesthetic what King describes in one passage as the continual voyage I made Sirpa Salenius sees King s fiction as a challenge to dominant conceptualizations of womanhood and a reaction against female oppression and heteronormativity In his analysis of An Affair of the Heart Ralph J Poole highlights the rhetoric of excess that reveals a social satire debunking sexual and racial double standards Ineke Bockting shows the modernist aspects of King s fiction through a stylistic analysis which explores spatial temporal biological psychological social and racial liminalities Fran oise Buisson demonstrates that King s writing is inspired by the Southern oral tradition but goes beyond it by taking on a theatrical dimension that can be quite modern and even experimental at times Kathie Birat claims that it is important to underline King s relationship to realism for the metonymic functioning of space as a signifier for social relations is an important characteristic of the realist novel St phanie Durrans analyzes The Story of a Day as an incest narrative and focuses on King s development of a modernist aesthetics to serve her terrifying investigation into social ills as she probes the inner world of her silent character Amy Doherty Mohr explores intersections between regionalism and modernism in public and silenced histories as well as King s treatment of myth and mobility Brigitte Zaugg examines in The Little Convent Girl King s presentation of the figure of the double and the issue of language as well as the narrative voice which she argues definitely inscribes the text with its understatement economy and quiet symbolism in the modernist tradition Miki Pfeffer closes the collection with an afterword in which she offers excerpts from King s letters as encouragement for scholars to seek Grace King as a primary source arguing that Grace King s own words seem best able to dialogue with the critical readings herein Each of these essays enables us to see King s place in the construction of modernity each illuminates the continual voyage that King made

Inventing Benjy Frédérique Spill,2024-01-30 Inventing Benjy William Faulkner s Most Splendid Creative Leap is a groundbreaking work at the intersection of Faulkner studies and disability studies Originally published in 2009 by Presses de la Sorbonne Nouvelle as L Idiotie dans l uvre de Faulkner this translation brings the book to English language readers for the first time Author Fr d rique Spill begins with a sustained look at the monologue of Benjy Compson the initial first person narrator in Faulkner s The Sound and the Fury Spill questions the reasons for this narrative choice bringing readers to consider Benjy s monologue which is told by a narrator who is deaf and cognitively disabled as an impossible discourse This paradoxical discourse which relies mostly on senses and sensory perception sets the foundation of a sophisticated poetics of idiocy Using this form of writing Faulkner shaped perspective from a disabled character revealing a certain depth to characters that were previously only portrayed on a shallow level This style encompasses some of the most striking forms and figures of his leap into modernist writing In that respect Inventing Benjy thoroughly examines Benjy's discourse as an experimental workshop in which objects and words are exclusively modelled by the senses This study regards Faulkner's decision to place a disabled character at the center of perception as the inaugural and emblematic gesture of his writing Closely examining excerpts from Faulkner's novels and a few short stories Spill emphasizes how the corporal temporal sensorial and narrative figures of idiocy are reflected throughout Faulkner's work These writing choices underlie some of his most compelling inventions and certainly contribute to his unmistakable writing style In the process Faulkner's writing takes on a phenomenological dimension simultaneously dismantling and reinventing the intertwined dynamics of perception and language

Both Swords and Ploughshares Ineke Bockting, Linda Martz, 2015-10-13 This collection of essays examines interactions of war peace and religion in the United States a country where religious faith was and still is often deeply felt and widely held where faith has provided a set of values to uphold with fervor or to transgress in protest and where religion has been used to legitimize both armed violence and passive resistance These essays analyze the mythos of America as a place of religious freedom yet one imbued with a socially imposed civil religion and underpinned by a heavy presumption of Protestant dominance With subjects ranging from the War of Independence to the early 21st century the contributions to this volume focus on a variety of historical and chronological circumstances in order to consider what concrete tangible outcomes what artifacts were produced by the interface of war peace and religion the swords and ploughshares of the title This volume thus presents a variety of often multifaceted responses that reflect its interdisciplinary scope Some contributions refer to fine art pieces including statues paintings and murals and others to works of literature theology or public speaking Some of these interfaces were performed on stage or in film while yet others were heard on the radio or read in newspapers or journals Some of the essays gathered here concern individuals working through the meaning of armed conflict in terms of their own personal faith while others examine the impact of such conflicts on a larger scale as with whole faith communities or in the shaping of national or foreign policy The first part Communities looks at interfaces that served to structure a whole community The second Margins examines instances where the relationship between religion and war and peace has occupied a more marginal space within a faith community The final section turns this interface outward situating it away from American soil or noting how foreign war shaped the spirituality of those returning

The Ecopoetics of War Sylvain Belluc, Isabelle Brasme, Guillaume Tanguy, 2024-12-30 The Ecopoetics of War explores the interrelationality of human and nonhuman entities in the context of conflict as recorded in literature and culture This collection of essays demonstrates the specific and fertile role of literature in representations of war as it foregrounds the manifold ways in which the borders between human and nonhuman including flora fauna and technology become porous thus questioning traditional onto epistemological and ethical categories Bringing together British American and postcolonial studies The Ecopoetics of War covers a variety of historical periods geographical areas and literary genres Interdisciplinary in its outlook it intertwines war studies ecocriticism literary theory philosophy and cultural studies By analyzing the stylistic and discursive strategies devised by writers to translate the sensory experience of the battlefield the contributors shed light on the unique capacity of literature to foreground the entanglement of human and nonhuman in the context of armed conflict and thus unveil an ecopoetics of war This collection will interest scholars of literature specialists of war studies and ecocriticism and any reader interested in such issues such as ecowar ecocide the Anthropocene or environmental justice It can inspire interdisciplinary teaching or research projects especially in the current context of global environmental crisis Agrégation anglais 2022.

Radiance of Small Things in Ron Rash's Writing Frédérique Spill, 2019 This is the e mail autoreply that until recently one got within minutes when trying to get in touch with Professor Rash at Western Carolina University a bouncing message that apparently experienced little change over time Over the past fifteen years or so Ron Rash has indeed mostly been either writing or editing a book or touring both the United States and the world obviously not his favorite aspect of his job as a writer as implied by the comparison with comatose Edgar Allan Poe He obviously enjoys cultivating the myth of his being a mountain man who is more familiar with the company of bats frogs or bears for that matter than with modern technology What this sketchy self portrait also reveals is that the writer has a particularly keen ear for sounds it seems he cannot help producing assonance and alliteration erase displace replace deface when receiving this message there is no doubt one was being bounced back but at least it was in music Faulkner, Fifty Years After "the Marble Faun", 1976 Faulkner in the University William Faulkner, 1959 From February to June of 1957 and 1958 William Faulkner was Writer in Residence at the University of Virginia under a grant from the Emily Clark Balch Fund for American Literature Mr Faulkner held thirty seven group conferences and an uncounted number of individual office meetings with students and staff of the University He encouraged groups to ask questions about his writing and indeed about anything which resulted in his answering publicly over two thousand queries on everything from spelling to the nature of man Preface
