

- 11. Federalism:
 - Federalism is a type of the system that governments will be able to control power.
- 12. Governmental Structure:
 - Federalism is political system where local governments write laws, make their decisions regarding some governmental activities and enforce something is produced.
 - Executive: president, but just the 1st
 - Local governments write on the bill and called states (more local affairs, decisions, etc.)
 - They get to make their decisions
 - Unitary System: local governments are subordinated to the national government.
 - Opposite of federalism
- 13. Advantages:
 - Some of the national issues in American politics are, at their core, structures under federalism.
 - Some key issues involving federalism today are
 - Same sex marriage
 - Medical marijuana
 - Federal problem because federal issues: members of congress or states are trying to make states that not in all states
 - Problem constitutionally because not under them to regulate another state's decisions
 - Increasingly spreading that now other states go with medical marijuana and not are allowed to that in order to not a risk and not it costs and not sure
- 14. Federal and State Power:
 - In general, the federal government has power over economic issues, the military and defense.
 - Because they affect everything in the nation and not just national issue that local level things (like military and defense)
 - In general, state governments have power over social, moral, and family issues.
- 15. Problems and Negatives of Federalism:
 - Negative view: Federalism blocks progress and projects powerful local interests.
 - Negative view: powerful local interest is a factor
 - Negative view is that sometimes it affects things to good on a smaller level
 - Positive view: Federalism contributes to governmental strength, political flexibility, and fosters individual liberty and the development of leaders.
