The Friend ,1870      Badfellas Simon Winlow,2020-05-25 Fights fraud and drugs racketeering regularly hit the headlines but they are just news stories for most of us For others they constitute a way of life This book uncovers a world where male identity is expressed each day through physical strength and power Focusing on professional criminals and violent men the author shows how workshop camaraderie hard physical work and criminal reputations allow for changing masculinities It is all too easy to stereotype criminals when in fact their world is complex and creative Criminal men adapt and modify their forms of gender expression to fit in with their changing economic social and cultural circumstance as do men in all walks of life Why is violence attractive to these men What motivates their crimes both planned and impulsive How do criminals themselves view their activities and their reputations and how do these reputations affect their perception of masculinity This book is the first sustained analysis of organized crime and violence to use covert research methods Far from the sensationalized memoirs of retired gangsters or the abstract discussions of scholars this book builds on first hand experiences and relationships made while working amongst bouncers and criminals The social world of professional criminals and the working environments of criminal bouncers are demystified and laid bare The author sets individual criminal careers and experiences in the wider context of de industrialization and globalization and provides a thoughtful and stimulating addition to the fields of anthropology sociology and criminology      For Folk's Sake Erin Morton,2016-11-01 Folk art emerged in twentieth century Nova Scotia not as an accident of history but in tandem with cultural policy developments that shaped art institutions across the province between 1967 and 1997 For Folk s Sake charts how woodcarvings and paintings by well known and obscure self taught makers and their connection to handwork local history and place fed the public s nostalgia for a simpler past The folk artists examined here range from the well known self taught painter Maud Lewis to the relatively anonymous woodcarvers Charles Atkinson Ralph Boutilier Collins Eisenhauer and Clarence Mooers These artists are connected by the ways in which their work fascinated those active in the contemporary Canadian art world at a time when modernism and the art market that once sustained it had reached a crisis As folk art entered the public collection of the Art Gallery of Nova Scotia and the private collections of professors at the Nova Scotia College of Art and Design it evolved under the direction of collectors and curators who sought it out according to a particular modernist aesthetic language Morton engages national and transnational developments that helped to shape ideas about folk art to show how a conceptual category took material form Generously illustrated For Folk s Sake interrogates the emotive pull of folk art and reconstructs the relationships that emerged between relatively impoverished self taught artists a new brand of middle class collector and academically trained professors and curators in Nova Scotia s most important art institutions      Farmers and Consumers Market Bulletin ,2011      AFTER THE END - Dystopia Box Set: 34 Dystopias and Post-Apocalyptic Works Edgar Allan Poe,William Hope Hodgson,Jack London,Ernest Bramah,Jonathan Swift,Cleveland Moffett,Sinclair Lewis,Anthony
