Telecinematic Stylistics Christian Hoffmann, Monika Kirner-Ludwig, 2020-05-14 Over the last two decades the study of discourse in film and television has become one of the most promising research avenues in stylistics and pragmatics due to the dazzling variety of source material and the huge pragmatic range within it. Meanwhile with the advent of streaming and the box set film and television themselves are becoming separated by an increasingly blurred line. This volume closes a long standing gap in stylistics research bringing together a book level pragmastylistic showcase. It presents current developments from the field from two complementary perspectives looking stylistically at the discourse in film and the discourse of and around film. This latter phrase comes to mean the approaches which try to account for the pragmatic effects induced by cinematography. This might be the camera work or the lighting or the mise en scene or montage. The volume takes a multimodal approach looking at word movement and gesture in keeping with modern stylistics. The volume shows how pragmatic themes and methods are adapted and applied to films including speech acts im politeness implicature and context. In this way it provides systematic insights into how meanings are displayed enhanced suppressed and negotiated in both film and televisual arts.
