Documentary Film Classics William Rothman, 1997-01-28 A study of classic documentary film Documentary Film Classics Produced by the United States Government, 1979 Documentary Film Classics Produced by the United States Government National Audiovisual Center, 1982 British Film Institute Film Classics Rob White, Edward Buscombe, 2003 Documentary Film Classics James B. Rhoads, United States Government, 1977 Documentary Film Classics National Audiovisual Center, William J. Blakefield, 1980 Documentary Film Classics United States. National Archives and Records Service, Forbidden Love: A Queer Film Classic Jean Bruce, Gerda Cammaer, 2015-12-14 A Queer Film Classic on the 1992 feature documentary on lesbian experience from the 1940s to the 1960s as seen through the lens of lesbian pulp fiction This award winning movie became the most popular ever produced by the National Film Board of Canada and became emblematic of the bold new queer cinema of the early 1990s In 2014 the NFB re released the film in a digitally remastered version Jean Bruce and Gerda Cammaer are both associate professors in the School of Image Arts at Ryerson University in Toronto Cinematic Cuts Sheila Kunkle, 2016-05-09 Editing has been called the language of cinema and thus a film s ending can be considered the final punctuation mark of this language framing everything that came before and offering the key to both our interpretation and our enjoyment of a film In Cinematic Cuts scholars explore the philosophical literary and psychoanalytic significance of film endings analyzing how film endings engage our fantasies of cheating death finding true love or determining the meaning of life They examine how endings offer various forms of enjoyment for the spectator from the momentary fulfillment of desire in the happy ending to the pleasurable torment of an indeterminate ending The contributors also consider how film endings open onto larger questions relating to endings in our time They suggest how a film ending s hidden counternarrative can be read as a political act how our interpretation of a film ending parallels the end of a psychoanalytical session how film endings reveal our anxieties and fears and how cinema itself might end with the increasing intervention of digital technologies that reorient the spectator s sense of temporality and closure Films by Akira Kurosawa Lars von Trier Joon Hwan Jang Claire Denis Christopher Nolan Jane Campion John Huston and Spike Jonze among others are discussed Grey Gardens Matthew Tinkcom, 2019-07-25 Grey Gardens 1975 is one of most important documentary films of the past thirty years gaining the status of a cult classic Matthew Tinkcom argues that the film reshaped documentary cinema by moving the non fiction camera to the heart of the household a private space into which film makers had seldom previously ventured 360 Film Classics from the National Film and Television Archive, 1998 Tuitions and Intuitions William Rothman, 2019-11-01 Makes the case that philosophy has an essential role to play in the serious study of film William Rothman has long been considered one of the seminal figures in the field of film philosophy From his landmark book Hitchcock The Murderous Gaze now in its second edition to the essays collected here in Tuitions and Intuitions Rothman has been guided by two intuitions first that his kind of film criticism is philosophy and second that such a marriage of criticism and philosophy has an essential part to play in the serious study of film In this book he aspires borrowing a formulation from Emerson to pay the tuition for these intuitions Thoughtful philosophically sophisticated and provocative the essays included here address a wide range of films including classical Hollywood movies the work of auteur directors like Alfred Hitchcock George Cukor Yasujir Ozu and Woody Allen performances by John Barrymore and James Stewart unconventional works by Jean Genet Chantal Akerman Terrence Malick and the Dardenne brothers the television series Justified and documentaries by Jean Rouch Ross McElwee and Robert Gardner All the essays address questions of philosophical significance and taken together manifest Rothman s lifelong commitment when writing about a film to respect the film s own ideas to remain open to the film s ways of expressing its ideas and to let the film help teach him how to view it how to think about it and how to discover what he has at heart to say about it Tuitions and Intuitions is simply indispensable to anyone interested in philosophy and in film as philosophy This book as a whole expresses and exemplifies moral perfectionism through the exploration of what our self becomes with this experience of cinema Sandra Laugier University Panth on Sorbonne Paris Bringing Rothman s work together highlights patterns and consistent concerns that may not otherwise be obvious to readers The book will be invaluable to current and future Rothman scholars Kyle Stevens author of Mike Nichols Sex Language and the Reinvention of Psychological Realism Paris is Burning Lucas Hilderbrand,2013 This latest addition to the Queer Film Classics series pays homage to the award winning 1991 documentary Paris Is Burning which looks at the struggle of African American and Latino participants in the 1980s New York drag ball scene Capturing the energy wit and diversity of a lively underground sub culture Jennie Livingston s film became a surprise hit upon its initial release A key cultural text with stunning visuals and a strong moralistic tone the film still resonates with audiences 20 years later making this commententary a crucial companion Three Documentary Filmmakers William Rothman,2009-03-10 Uses new critical approaches to demonstrate deep affinities in these vastly different filmmakers philosophies on film fantasy and reality Olympia Taylor Downing,2019-07-25 Leni Riefenstahl s Olympia 1938 is one of the most controversial films ever made Capitalising on the success of Triumph of the Will 1935 her propaganda film for the Nazi Party Riefenstahl secured Hitler s approval for her grandiose plans to film the 1936 Berlin Olympics The result was a work as notorious for its politics as celebrated for its aesthetic power This revised edition includes new material on Riefenstahl s film making career before Olympia and her close relationship with Hitler Taylor Downing also discusses newly available evidence on the background to the film s production that conclusively proves that the film was directly commissioned by Hitler and funded through Goebbels s Ministry of Propaganda and not as Riefenstahl later claimed commissioned independently from the Nazi state by the Olympic authorities In writing this edition Taylor Downing has been given access to a magnificent new restoration of the original version of the film by the International Olympic Committee High Points in the Work of the High Schools of New York City New York (N.Y.). Board of Education,1955 Word is Out Greg Youmans,2011 A Queer Film

Classic on the groundbreaking 1977 documentary that profiles the lives of ordinary gay men and lesbians of different ages races and backgrounds Word Is Out found a wide audience theatrically and perhaps more importantly had a national public television broadcast The film provided an intimate portrait of gay men and lesbians and by doing so it played a significant role in the then nascent struggle for gay rights It premiered six months after Anita Bryant s infamous Save Our Children campaign led to the repeal of a gay rights ordinance in Florida and just as other antigay activists were beginning to copy her tactics elsewhere in the US With its affable portrait of twenty six gay men and women Word Is Out offered an important counterpoint to the homophobic rhetoric that Bryant and others were spreading Greg Youmans examines the historical political and aesthetic significance of this important film situating it firmly in its late 1970s context He also delves beneath the film s surface to explore the backstory of its making from the complicated relationships among its six filmmakers three men three women to the more than 140 video pre interviews they conducted in their search for the perfect cast Arsenal s Queer Film Classics series cover some of the most important and influential films about and by LGBTQ people Creative Use of Films in Education Duane Beeler, Frank McCallister, 1968 Documentary film Paul Rotha, 2017-05-21 Excerpt from Documentary Film Juncture becomes a matter for desperate choice The film may be used for propaganda and so focused are we on purposes these days that all is propaganda But which If the film lends its dramatic aid to any one of these powers which have religious mania in them and drive men mad it is propaganda of the devil If the film is devoted to saying how men live and should live and where the creative forces that fulfil men s honest needs reside then it is propaganda that has its roots in a continuing reality and is capable of beauty Some will take the path of partisan excitement We shall have pretty pictures of pennants ying and guns pop ping and rhetoric the jingling harness of expression will be the keynote of their films Others will resist this defeat The best work the documentary film has done has been to describe the work of workmen the work of scientists and organisers in peace time pur suits and the great work of social reconstruction which is going on even while the maniac armies march over us These others will attempt to maintain this progress so that perhaps when the armies have passed a hand ful of grain will be left to cast into the battered ground They will insist that the propagation of ideas must not depart from the deeper needs of public education and keeping their roots in this continuing reality they can not fail sometimes to be poets About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works Night Mail Scott Anthony, 2019-07-25 Night Mail 1936 is one of the best loved and best known films in the canon of British documentary cinema Bringing together the creative talents of Harry Watt

Basil Wright W H Auden and Benjamin Britten the film gave John Grierson s documentary school its first popular success Its collectivist politics and its peculiarly modest brand of modernism is as redolent of the inter war age as Agatha Christie Penguin Books or The Shell Guides But it was also a corporate promo part of a publicity campaign initiated by Clement Attlee to stave off Post Office part privatisation and to improve the morale of postal workers Scott Anthony s study provides a lively appreciation of this vivid witty and often just plain eccentric masterpiece In doing so he uncovers the remarkable stories of civic minded idealism creative intrigue and political trickery that underpin this classic documentary
