Documentation Planning For The Us Health Care System:

Documentation Planning for the U.S. Health Care System Joan D. Krizack, 1994 Because health care institutions produce massive quantities of records and because these institutions have complex interconnections with other organizations they now need to take an active approach to selecting documentation for historical preservation This book provides the background information necessary for archivists who deal with health care systems records to devise appropriate procedures including a systematic method for devising institutional documentation plans strategic plans that specify which materials should be preserved Volume editor Joan Krizack begins by offering a general overview of the U S health care system and of the different settings in which care is delivered Contributing authors then discuss the salient characteristics for archivists of health agencies and foundations biomedical research facilities educational institutions professional and voluntary associations and health industries In the final chapter Krizack explains how to develop and carry out a documentation plan describing the implementation of one such plan at Children s Hospital in Boston

Documenting Localities Richard J. Cox, 1996-01-01 Now in paperback Documenting Localities is the first effort to summarize the past decade of renewed discussion about archival appraisal theory and methodology and to provide a practical guide for the documentation of localities This book discusses the continuing importance of the locality in American historical research and archival practice traditional methods archivists have used to document localities and case studies in documenting localities These chapters draw on a wide range of writings from archivists historians material culture specialists historic preservationists librarians and other professionals in considering why we need to continue to stress the systematic documentation of geographic regions The heart of the book is the presentation of a practical series of steps and tools archivists and manuscript curators can use in documenting localities The final part of the book considers the need for the better education of archivists and manuscript curators in appraisal theory and methodology with a description of the primary writings on new macroappraisal approaches forming the crux of how archivists need to consider documenting localities and regions Useful to all archivists and manuscript curators grappling with how to contend with the increasing quantity and complexity of local records recordkeeping systems and other documentary forms
