Estimation of Extreme Wind Speeds and Guide to the Determination of Wind Forces Emil Simiu, Richard D. Marshall, 1977

The Matrix of Policy in the Philippines Harvey A. Averch, John E. Koehler, Frank H. Denton, 2015-03-08 The prevailing view of the state of Philippine society is bleak the Philippines it is alleged is suffering from unsatisfactory economic growth mounting corruption increasing lawlessness and declining morale To arrive at an accurate assessment of current problems and future prospects the authors have undertaken a broad quantitative analysis of politics economics crime and dissidence within the country Addressing the problems systematically measuring alternative explanations and interpretations their analysis is directed to a clearer articulation of information and policy decisions within the Philippines and a more realistic view of the country For the benefit of other social scientists or countries who wish to make a similar study the appendices list in detail the data used by the authors Originally published in 1971 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 2007
