Ethical Choices Richard Burnor, Yvonne Raley, 2024 In preparing this edition we have sought to preserve and strengthen what users have found to be the book's unique strengths These include its cases the narratives introducing each chapter the pedagogical aids and our commitment to making the text as readable and conversational as possible The Human Use of Animals : Case Studies in Ethical Choice Kennedy Institute of Ethics F. Barbara Orlans Senior Research Fellow, Kennedy Institute of Ethics both at Georgetown University Tom L. Beauchamp Professor of Philosophy and Senior Research Scholar, Center for Biomedical Ethics Case Western Reserve University School of Medicine Rebecca Dresser John Deaver Drinko-Baker and Hostetler Professor of Law, David B. Morton Professor of Biomedical Science and Ethics University of Birmingham Medical School, John P. Gluck Professor of Psychology University of New Mexico, 1997-12-31 The first set of case studies on animal use this volume offers a thorough up to date exploration of the moral issues related to animal welfare Its main purpose is to examine how far it is ethically justifiable to harm animals in order to benefit mankind An excellent introduction provides a framework for the cases and sets the background of philosophical and moral concepts underlying the subject Sixteen original previously unpublished essays cover controversies associated with the human use of animals in a broad range of contexts including biomedical behavioral and wildlife research cosmetic safety testing education the food industry commerce and animal use as pets and in religious practices Scientific research is accorded the closest scrutiny The authors represent a wide range of expertise within their specialized areas of research physiology public policy ethics philosophy law veterinary science and psychology The careful analysis of each case makes it possible to elevate the discourse beyond over simplified positions and to demonstrate the complexity of the issues The Human Use of Animals will be welcomed by students and faculty in law philosophy ethics public policy religion medicine and veterinary medicine It will also interest activists in the animal protection movement and members of animal protection organizations and Institutional Animal Care and Use Committees Proceedings and Addresses of the American Philosophical Association American Philosophical Association, 2010 List of members in v 1 Ethical Choices Lois Snyder, 1996 A guidebook for ethical action in medicine featuring case studies that physicians should find relevant in day to day practice and that patients should find relevant to their health welfare and rights The principles of medical ethics are related to daily practice through their application in specific common situations Ethical issues covered include sexual relationships between physicians and patients the impaired doctor the disclosure of errors patient preference for referrals and physician assisted suicide Case Studies in Criminal Justice Ethics Michael Braswell, Larry Miller, Joycelyn Pollock, 2011-08-30 Building on the success of the popular first edition the authors provide hypothetical criminal justice scenarios for analysis having found in their experience as teachers that the process adds depth and dimension to the study of justice and ethics This expanded second edition offers ten new cases addressing the intricate process of moral and ethical decision making Focusing on both personal and social context the authors explore true to life situations and encourage readers to think about the possible consequences that could result from the choices they make The case studies provide realistic portrayals of current dilemmas in policing courts corrections and juvenile justice Political and noble cause corruption perjury and judicial prosecutorial misconduct ethnic and gender prejudice and many other social and criminal justice themes are featured Following each scenario are thought provoking questions to facilitate personal reflection and class discussion Each section contains a bibliography of topical books and articles for readers interested in a more in depth treatment of the issues
