Generations Hues Between Black White:

Generations in Black and White Rudolph P. Byrd, 2014-02 This portfolio of eighty three photographs constitutes a stunning celebration of African American achievement in the twentieth century Carl Van Vechten a longtime patron of black writers and artists took these photographs over the course of three decades primarily as gifts to his subjects such luminaries as W E B Du Bois Langston Hughes Bessie Smith Billie Holiday Joe Louis James Baldwin Richard Wright Ruby Dee Lena Horne and James Earl Jones The photographs Rudolph P Byrd has selected for this volume come from the James Weldon Johnson Memorial Collection of Negro Arts and Letters which Van Vechten established at Yale University Byrd has arranged the images chronologically according to the time at which each subject emerged as a vital presence in African American tradition Complementing the photographs are a substantial introduction by Byrd biographical sketches of each subject and poems by the noted writer Michael S Harper The result is a volume of beauty and power a record of black excellence that will engage and inform new generations

Hospitality Design for the Graying Generation Alfred H. Baucom, 1996-08-03 A comprehensive and practical approach to designing for the growing senior market As people live longer stay healthier and enjoy more disposable income their use of hospitality services is increasing dramatically Hospitality Design for the Graying Generation helps you cater to this expanding market by providing critical information on designing facilities which are sensitive to the needs of the over 65 population With the important principles explained in this book designing for the senior consumer can be creative cost effective and benefit all consumers without sacrificing style This indispensable guide includes A Universal Design approach that can be applied to both commercial and residential projects going beyond compliance with ADA guidelines A wide range of hospitality design including restaurants hotel guest rooms lobbies and lounges Design principles beautifully illustrated with concise detailed drawings Extensive coverage of the specific physical needs and psychology of seniors including physical strength hearing sight color preferences and other areas A quick reference checklist of senior friendly design features When the interior design needs of the over 65 market are met all potential users gain regardless of age or ability This accessible book is an invaluable resource for designers operators and other professionals throughout the hospitality industry With millions of baby boomers rapidly approaching retirement age the over 65 age group is the fastest growing segment of the population As they become healthier live longer and have more disposable income their use of hospitality services such as hotels and restaurants will increase dramatically Whether you are a designer or a hospitality professional Hospitality Design for the Graying Generation helps you plan for this growing market by providing you with critical information for designing facilities that accommodate the needs of all generations Clearly written and generously illustrated Hospitality Design for the Graying Generation shows you how to address the specific physical and psychological needs of seniors with detailed chapters on mobility hearing vision color preferences and other important areas Going beyond ADA guidelines Alfred Baucom's Universal Design approach enables you to integrate senior friendly design principles into a wide range of specific environments from lobbies common areas and public restrooms to restaurants lounges and hotel guest rooms In meeting the needs of the over 65 market Hospitality Design for the Graying Generation ensures that all potential users regardless of age or ability will be well accommodated

Evolution of the Colors of North American Land Birds

Charles Keeler, 1893 The Indignant Generation Lawrence P. Jackson, 2021-10-12 Recovering the lost history of a crucial era in African American literature The Indignant Generation is the first narrative history of the neglected but essential period of African American literature between the Harlem Renaissance and the civil rights era The years between these two indispensable epochs saw the communal rise of Richard Wright Gwendolyn Brooks Ralph Ellison Lorraine Hansberry James Baldwin and many other influential black writers While these individuals have been duly celebrated little attention has been paid to the political and artistic milieu in which they produced their greatest works With this commanding study Lawrence Jackson recalls the lost history of a crucial era Looking at the tumultuous decades surrounding World War II Jackson restores the indignant quality to a generation of African American writers shaped by Jim Crow segregation the Great Depression the growth of American communism and an international wave of decolonization He also reveals how artistic collectives in New York Chicago and Washington fostered a sense of destiny and belonging among diverse and disenchanted peoples As Jackson shows through contemporary documents the years that brought us Their Eyes Were Watching God Native Son and Invisible Man also saw the rise of African American literary criticism by both black and white critics Fully exploring the cadre of key African American writers who triumphed in spite of segregation The Indignant Generation paints a vivid portrait of American intellectual and artistic life in the mid twentieth century
