Genome Paperback Tony Peter:

Inventing the Thrifty Gene Travis Hay, 2021-09-10 Though First Nations communities in Canada have historically lacked access to clean water affordable food and equitable health care they have never lacked access to well funded scientists seeking to study them Inventing the Thrifty Gene examines the relationship between science and settler colonialism through the lens of Aboriginal diabetes and the thrifty gene hypothesis which posits that Indigenous peoples are genetically predisposed to type 2 diabetes and obesity due to their alleged hunter gatherer genes Hay's study begins with Charles Darwin's travels and his observations on the Indigenous peoples he encountered setting the imperial context for Canadian histories of medicine and colonialism It continues in the mid twentieth century with a look at nutritional experimentation during the long career of Percy Moore the medical director of Indian Affairs 1946-1965 Hay then turns to James Neel's invention of the thrifty gene hypothesis in 1962 and Robert Hegele's reinvention and application of the hypothesis to Sandy Lake First Nation in northern Ontario in the 1990s Finally Hay demonstrates the way in which settler colonial science was responded to and resisted by Indigenous leadership in Sandy Lake First Nation who used monies from the thrifty gene study to fund wellness programs in their community Inventing the Thrifty Gene exposes the exploitative nature of settler science with Indigenous subjects the flawed scientific theories stemming from faulty assumptions of Indigenous decline and disappearance as well as the severe inequities in Canadian health care that persist even today

Hollywood Sex Comedies, 1953-1964 Hal Erickson, 2024-06-27 The Hollywood sex comedy a feature length film in which sex motivates the storyline and the laughs are triggered by sexual situations came into its own with the 1953 release of the once controversial The Moon Is Blue That film received very positive critical and audience response despite being denied a seal of approval from the Production Code Administration and receiving a Condemned rating from the Legion of Decency These two formidable watchdog agencies would continue to be challenged and audiences would continue to be convulsed by the abundance of sex comedies still to come The present informal survey focuses on 25 selected examples of the genre released between 1953 and 1964 Along with such familiar works as The Seven Year Itch The Tender Trap Pillow Talk and Kiss Me Stupid several lesser known sex comedies like I Married a Woman The Tunnel of Love Happy Anniversary and Period of Adjustment are documented analyzed and placed in context with their times Some are masterpieces others mildly amusing and a few downright awful but all are fascinating artifacts of a bygone era in popular entertainment Genome:
