General Sketch of the History of Pantheism, Vol. 1 of 2 (Classic Reprint) C. E. Plumptre, 2017-09-11 Excerpt from General Sketch of the History of Pantheism Vol 1 of 2 The other school of which I shall treat is not Pantheism proper Yet I think it may be justly called a phase of Pantheism It is that school which refuses to give an opinion upon the nature of God whether He be Creator alone or whether He be Creator and Creation in one But it so far resembles Pantheism proper in that it believes a true knowledge of Nature to be in reality a true knowledge of God If on the one hand God be both Creator and Creation if that is to say the various phases of nature be but various phenomena having for their noumenon God then an intimate acquaintance with the various beauties and marvels of Nature implies an intimate acquaintance with the various perfections of God If on the other hand God be Creator alone and Nature but His handiwork the school still believes the only way of attaining a knowledge and adoration of God is by a reverent investigation of His works About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
