Generative Trance The Experience Of Creative Flow:

Generative Trance Stephen Gilligan, 2012-10-25 This book describes an entirely new way of conducting hypnotherapeutic interventions Stephen Gilligan's generative trance The first generation of trance work the traditional hypnosis that still holds sway in most places considers that both the conscious mind and the unconscious mind of the client are to put it bluntly idiots So trance work involves first knocking out the conscious mind and then talking to the unconscious mind like a 2 year old that needs to be told how to behave Milton Erickson created the second generation of trance work He approached the unconscious as having creative wisdom and each person as extraordinarily unique Thus rather than trying to programme the unconscious with new instructions Erickson saw trance as an experiential learning state where a person's own creative unconscious could generate healing and transformation At the same time Erickson for the most part carried the same low opinion of the conscious mind Thus Ericksonian hypnosis looks to bypass the conscious mind with indirect suggestions and dissociation and depotentiate it with confusion techniques Practicing Psychotherapy in Constructed Reality Stephen Bacon, 2018-04-26 In Practicing Psychotherapy in Constructed Reality Ritual Charisma and Enhanced Client Outcomes Stephen Bacon charts a radical and provocative new direction forward for psychotherapy Based on the research finding that techniques have no inherent power and the insights of constructionism Bacon explores new ways of understanding therapeutic rituals therapist charisma and client centered therapy Special emphasis is given to an analysis of the work of master therapists and all of the concepts are illustrated with numerous clinical examples Finally Bacon develops a geography of constructed reality which pragmatically supports deliberate practice and therapist mindfulness The journey of love in couples Jessica Riberi, Inge Ludvigsen, 2021-01-20 A couple's relationship is not just about two people Numerous unconscious psychological scripts from the collective sphere and mandates inherited from family history affect our way of living love one of the most significant human experiences The psychotherapists and Master Trainer in NLP Jessica Riberi and Inge Ludvigsen combine their professional and teaching experience in Chile and Denmark and propose a system to align six energy fields that promote and strengthen the love bond Jessica Riberi and Inge Ludvigsen have written a delightful and very helpful guide to how archetypal forms that is the patterns of the universal energies of human being can support and transform intimate relationships They are especially good in describing how to develop more mature and generative levels of each universal energy I highly recommend it to both people helpers as well as those seeking deeper intimacy connections Stephen Gilligan psychologist author of The Courage to Love and The Hero's Journey with Robert Dilts What could be more important and timely than having pathways to bring more quality into our relationships We are relational beings seeking the connections for outcomes of life partners families work spaces and communities Connection is there but managing these connections is quite a different order This is where archetypes guide us by reflecting back an ideal Not that we ever really get to the ideal but they remind us to bring awareness to the learning and the nurturing of the relationships that bring the joy to our lives Thank you so much for this book The Journey of love in couples as it also can bring us some hope for our inner and outer peace Judith DeLozier anthropologist coauthor of Turtle all the way down with John Grinder and Encyclopedia of Systemic NLP with Robert Dilts Authenticity Godehard Brüntrup, Michael Reder, Liselotte Gierstl, 2020-09-14 Today authenticity is considered an essential part of manifold interpersonal relationships actions and agreements Authenticity's association with sincerity honesty and reliability not only normatively charges the term in the context of social coexistence but also makes it a demand which we impose on ourselves The success of our lives is measured decisively by whether we live in harmony with our own convictions wishes and needs In philosophy authenticity has also become the focus of interest both in the context of the mechanisms of self knowledge as well as of personal development The anthology aims to expand the cooperation across disciplines in order to develop a comprehensive and profound understanding of authenticity not by over simplifying the highly complex subject but by approaching the underlying concept from different scientific perspectives Attachment-Informed Grief Therapy Phyllis S.
