Animal Ethics and Animal Law Andrew Linzey, Clair Linzey, 2022-11-07 Animal law is a growing discipline as is animal ethics In this wide ranging book scholars from around the world address the intersections between the two Specifically this collection focuses on pressing moral issues and how law can protect animals from cruelty and abuse A project of the Oxford Centre for Animal Ethics the book is edited by the Oxford Centre s directors Andrew Linzey and Clair Linzey and features contributions from many of its fellows Divided into three sections the work explores historical perspectives and ethical legal issues such as personhood and property before focusing on five practical case studies The volume introduces readers to the interweaving between these subjects and should act as a spur to further interdisciplinary work Rhetorical Animals Kristian Bjørkdahl, Alex C. Parrish, 2017-11-30 For this edited volume the editors solicited chapters that investigate the place of nonhuman animals in the purview of rhetorical theory what it would mean to communicate beyond the human community how rhetoric reveals our brute roots In other words this book investigates themes that enlighten us about likely or possible implications of the animal turn within rhetorical studies The present book is unique in its focus on the call for nonanthropocentrism in rhetorical studies Although there have been many hints in recent years that rhetoric is beginning to consider the implications of the animal turn as yet no other anthology makes this its explicit starting point and sustained objective Thus the various contributions to this book promise to further the ongoing debate about what rhetoric might be after it sheds its long standing humanistic bias
