Echoes Of Scripture In The Letters Of Paul:

Echoes of Scripture in the Letters of Paul Richard B. Hays, 1989-01-01 Analyzes Paul's use of Old Testament Scriptures and discusses the themes of Paul's letters Echoes of Scripture in the Letter of Paul to the Colossians Christopher A. Beetham, 2008 The introduction of literary intertextuality into biblical studies has led to both discovery and dilemma This study proposes new definitions of an allusion and an echo and a methodology on how to detect them using the neglected letter of Colossians as a test case Echoes of Scripture in the Gospels Richard B. Hays, 2017-05-15 The claim that the events of Jesus' life, death, and resurrection took place according to the Scriptures stands at the heart of the New Testament's message All four canonical Gospels declare that the Torah and the Prophets and the Psalms mysteriously prefigure Jesus The author of the Fourth Gospel states this claim succinctly in his narrative Jesus declares 'If you believed Moses you would believe me for he wrote about me' John 5:46 Yet modern historical criticism characteristically judges that the New Testament's christological readings of Israel's Scripture misrepresent the original sense of the texts this judgment forces fundamental questions to be asked Why do the Gospel writers read the Scriptures in such surprising ways Are their readings intelligible as coherent or persuasive interpretations of the Scriptures Does Christian faith require the illegitimate theft of someone else's sacred texts Echoes of Scripture in the Gospels answers these questions Richard B. Hays chronicles the dramatically different ways the four Gospel writers interpreted Israel's Scripture and reveals that their readings were as complementary as they were faithful In this long-awaited sequel to his Echoes of Scripture in the Letters of Paul Hays highlights the theological consequences of the Gospel writers' distinctive hermeneutical approaches and asks what it might mean for contemporary readers to attempt to read Scripture through the eyes of the Evangelists In particular Hays carefully describes the Evangelists' practice of figural reading an imaginative and retrospective move that creates narrative continuity and wholeness He shows how each Gospel artfully uses scriptural echoes to re-narrate Israel's story to assert that Jesus is the embodiment of Israel's God and to prod the church in its vocation to engage the pagan world Hays shows how the Evangelists summon readers to a conversion of their imagination The Evangelists' use of scriptural echo beckons readers to believe the extraordinary that Jesus was Israel's Messiah that Jesus is Israel's God and that contemporary believers are still on mission The Evangelists, according to Hays, are training our scriptural senses calling readers to be better scriptural people by being better scriptural poets The End of Deuteronomy in the Epistles of Paul Guy Prentiss Waters, 2006 Originally presented as the author's thesis doctoral Duke University 2002 Paul and the Scriptures of Israel Craig A. Evans, James A. Sanders, 2015-01-29 What is an echo of Scripture How can we detect echoes of the Old Testament in Paul and how does their detection facilitate interpretation of the Pauline text These are questions addressed by this collection of essays from the SBL programme unit Scripture in Early Judaism and Christianity The first part of the book reports its vigorous 1990 discussion of Richard Hays's Echoes of Scripture in the Letters of Paul including contributions by Craig Evans, James Sanders

William Scott Green and Christiaan Beker as well as a response by R B Hays The second part of the book studies specific passages where reference is made to the Old Testament explicitly or allusively The contributors here are James Sanders Linda Belleville Carol Stockhausen James Scott Nancy Calvert and Stephen Brown Reading with the Grain of Scripture Richard B. Hays, 2020-10-22 Christianity Today Book Award in Biblical Studies 2021 All these essays illustrate in one way or another how I have sought to carry out scholarly work as an aspect of discipleship as a process of faith seeking exegetical clarity Richard Hays has been a giant in the field of New Testament studies since the 1989 publication of his Echoes of Scripture in the Letters of Paul His most significant essays of the past twenty five years are now collected in this volume representing the full fruition of major themes from his body of work the importance of narrative as the glue that holds the Bible together the figural coherence between the Old and New Testaments the centrality of the resurrection of Jesus the hope for New Creation and God's eschatological transformation of the world the importance of standing in trusting humility before the text the significance of reading Scripture within and for the community of faith Readers will find themselves guided toward Hays's hermeneutic of trust rather than the hermeneutic of suspicion that has loomed large in recent biblical studies Elenchus of Biblica, 1993 Origen, the Egyptian Nancy R. Heisey, 2000 Echoes of the Scriptures in the Letters of Paul Richard B. Hays, 1989 Literary-critical Approaches to the Bible Mark Minor, 1992 Paul and the Emergence of Christian Textuality Margaret Mary Mitchell, 2017 The apostle Paul was the inaugurator of early Christian literary culture not only through the writing of his own letters ca 50-62 CE which were to become surprisingly influential once collected and published after his death but also through the successful propagation of a religious logic of mediated epiphanies of Christ on the one hand and of synecdochical hermeneutics of the gospel narrative about Christ on the other He set the precedent that the Christ-believing movements were to be rooted in texts and textual interpretation Already in his own letters Paul began a process of ongoing articulation and reinterpretation of the gospel narrative and the various means by which it could be replicated in each new generation and locale This process was to continue through the letters written in his name the Acts of the Apostles and apostolic imitators and expositors in the centuries to come These 15 essays by Margaret M Mitchell are accompanied by an introduction that lays out thirteen propositions for the development of early Christian literary culture from its inception in the astounding claims of Paul the self-styled apostolic envoy of Jesus Christ crucified up through Constantine Tyndale Bulletin, 2003 Scripture Bulletin, 2003 New Testament Writers and the Old Testament John M. Court, 2002 Most up-to-date translations of the Bible do not cross-reference quotations from the Old Testament in the New Testament leaving students unaware of the importance of its influence This work contains essays on the question of how one identifies what is quotation and the understanding of the Old Testament that the New Testament writers had The main body of the work consists of a list of all cross-references in both directions which should act as a useful resource Proceedings Eastern Great Lakes and Midwest Biblical Societies, 1993 New Testament Abstracts, 1990
