Echoes Of Vaudeville:

Echoes of Vaudeville Jasper Cook, 2005-08-01 Jasper Cook shares humorous account of his life as an entertainer and performer Featured are over twenty skits and routines Cook performed during his career Coming Attractions Lisa Kernan, 2009-07-21 Movie trailers those previews of coming attractions before the start of a feature film are routinely praised and reviled by moviegoers and film critics alike They give away too much of the movie They re better than the films They only show the spectacular parts They lie They re the best part of going to the movies But whether you love them or hate them trailers always serve their purpose of offering free samples of a film to influence moviegoing decision making Indeed with their inclusion on videotapes DVDs and on the Internet trailers are more widely seen and influential now than at any time in their history Starting from the premise that movie trailers can be considered a film genre this pioneering book explores the genre s conventions and offers a primer for reading the rhetoric of movie trailers Lisa Kernan identifies three principal rhetorical strategies that structure trailers appeals to audience interest in film genres stories and or stars She also analyzes the trailers for twenty seven popular Hollywood films from the classical transitional and contemporary eras exploring what the rhetorical appeals within these trailers reveal about Hollywood s changing conceptions of the moviegoing audience Kernan argues that movie trailers constitute a long standing hybrid of advertising and cinema and as such are precursors to today s heavily commercialized cultural forms in which art and marketing become increasingly indistinguishable The Drama, 1924 Drama, 1926 The Billboard, 1926 Road Memories Michael Hayes, 2007 This volume is an exploration of the image that is the Traveller Gypsy the migrant and the oeOther Rapid developments as relating to the global flows of cultural diaspora have both overcome spatial temporal distance and separation and have created enhanced necessity for the exploration of issues relating to cross cultural and identity representation In an age of mass migration and mass media dissemination a wide combination of forces have ruptured and blurred the borders of the modern nation state These forces have created the trans national contexts for scholarly enquiry as relating to such scholarly disciplines as Irish Studies Traveller Studies Romani Studies and Diaspora and Migration Studies As outlined in these essays the diversity that encompasses traditionally migrant and diaspora communities such as Travellers and Gypsies frequently disrupt those narratives which have defined hitherto dominant cultures and thereby serve to hybridise the discourse The Vaudeville News, 1925 Migrant and Nomad Mícheál Ó hAodha, Ian F. Migrancy, Memory and Repossession Úna Ní Aodha, 2009 The writing of women s history has witnessed a huge increase in recent decades In the past the focus of some of this work was the representation of the oeheroine or the oegrand dame Recent theoretical writing particularly as relating to historical anthropology has focussed on a more oerounded view of women TM s historical representation and experience however This book explores aspects of Western visual culture and the cultures of so called oemarginal groups groups which have as yet seen little light shed on them By analysing the discursive and oehidden histories of a range of women artists who worked on the periphery of oemainstream society or whose representational subjects were deemed oemarginal Travellers Roma Gypsies and Circus people it is possible to come to some new conclusions regarding the historical relationships that have existed between different cultures and peoples Such a process can generate a better understanding of the shifting power dynamic as between diverse historical phenomena It is through such explorations also that we can enable the historical recovery and emergence of new identities in an increasingly multicultural world
