Economic Development 10th Edition By Michael P Todaro 2008 03 07:

Economic Justice in a Flat World Steven Rundle, 2009-08-07 Writers urge the church to help identify the essentials of Christian perspective on the societal environmental and economic implications of globalization and to live accordingly

Latin American Politics David Close, 2009-01-01 Highlighting eleven different topics in separate chapters the thematic approach of Latin American Politics offers students the conceptual tools they need to analyze the political systems of all twenty Latin American nations Such a structure makes the book self consciously comparative allowing students to become stronger analysts of comparative politics and better political scientists in general Globalization and Sustainable Development in Africa Bessie House-Soremekun, Toyin Falola, 2011 The first comprehensive work on globalization within the context of sustainable development initiatives in Africa Educating the Children of Migrant Workers in Beijing Myra

Pong, 2014-10-17 Educating the Children of Migrant Workers in Beijing is a timely book that addresses the gap in the provision of basic education to migrant children in China It examines the case of Beijing with a focus on policy implementation at the municipal and district levels and its impacts on migrant schools and their students Rural migrant workers in the cities usually lack local hukou household registration and face serious obstacles in accessing basic social services including schooling for their children The educational situation of these children however can vary both across and within localities and despite policies and regulations from the central government there have emerged broad and sometimes even extreme differences in the implementation of these policies at the local levels This book uses evidence from qualitative interviews and the analysis of policy documents and materials to provide readers with a rare glimpse into the local politics surrounding migrant children s education in China s political center including the nature of and motives behind policy implementation at the municipal and district levels and the implications for the survival and development of migrant schools in the city Educating the Children of Migrant Workers in Beijing is a unique and in depth contribution to an important area and will appeal to scholars and students across a range of disciplines including China studies migration studies education social policy and development studies as well as to practitioners and policymakers working on migrant issues and social welfare provision in China Matatu Kenda Mutongi, 2017-06-26 This prize winning study takes a unique ethnographic approach to reconstructing the history of Nairobi s privately owned urban transport Martin A Klein Prize Committee American Historical Association Drive the streets of Nairobi and you are sure to see many matatus colorful minibuses that transport huge numbers of people around the city Once ramshackle affairs held together with duct tape matatus today are name brand vehicles maxed out with aftermarket detailing They can be stately black or extravagantly colored sporting names slogans and airbrushed portraits of everyone from Kanye West to Barack Obama In this richly interdisciplinary book Kenda Mutongi explores the history of the matatu from the 1960s to the present As Mutongi shows matatus offer a window onto the socioeconomic and political conditions of late twentieth century Africa In their diversity of idiosyncratic designs they reflect divergent aspects of Kenyan life from rapid urbanization and the transition to democracy to organized crime entrepreneurship social insecurity and popular culture Offering a shining model of interdisciplinary analysis Mutongi mixes historical ethnographic literary linguistic and economic approaches to tell the story of the matatu and explore the entrepreneurial aesthetics of the postcolonial world
