Sherlock Holmes Robby Bevard, 2015 Sherlock Holmes and the Apocalypse Murders Barry Day, 2001 000 000 00 /

The Return of Sherlock Holmes (0000) 00 00 00, 2025-08-13 The Return of Sherlock Holmes 13 Arthur Conan Doyle 1859 1930 THE ADVENTURE OF THE EMPTY HOUSE THE ADVENTURE OF THE NORWOOD BUILDER THE ADVENTURE OF THE DANCING MEN THE ADVENTURE OF THE SOLITARY CYCLIST THE ADVENTURE OF THE PRIORY SCHOOL THE ADVENTURE OF BLACK PETER THE ADVENTURE OF CHARLES AUGUSTUS MILVERTON THE ADVENTURE OF THE SIX NAPOLEONS THE ADVENTURE OF THE THREE STUDENTS THE ADVENTURE OF THE GOLDEN PINCE NEZ THE ADVENTURE OF THE MISSING THREE QUARTER THE ADVENTURE OF THE ABBEY GRANGE THE ADVENTURE OF THE SECOND STAIN copyrights 65 It was in the spring of the year 1894 that all London was interested and the fashionable world dismayed by the murder of the Honourable Ronald Adair under most unusual and inexplicable circumstances The public has already learned those particulars of the crime which came out in the police investigation but a good deal was suppressed upon that occasion since the case for the prosecution was so overwhelmingly strong that it was not necessary to bring forward all the facts Only now at the end of nearly ten years am I allowed to supply those missing links which make up the whole of that remarkable chain The crime was of interest in itself but that interest was as nothing to me compared to the inconceivable sequel which afforded me the greatest shock and surprise of any event in my adventurous life Even now after this long interval I find myself thrilling as I think of it and feeling once more that sudden flood of joy amazement and incredulity which utterly submerged my mind Let me say to that public which has shown some interest in those glimpses which I have occasionally given them of the thoughts and actions of a very remarkable man that they are not to blame me if I have not shared my knowledge with them for I should have considered it my first duty to do so had I not been barred by a positive prohibition from his own lips which was only withdrawn upon the third of last month It can be imagined that my close intimacy with Sherlock Holmes had interested me deeply in crime and that after his disappearance I never failed to read with care the various problems which came before the public And I even attempted more than once for my own private satisfaction to employ his methods in their solution though with indifferent success There was none however which appealed to me like this tragedy of Ronald Adair As I read the evidence at the inquest which led up to a verdict of willful murder against some person or persons unknown I realized more clearly than I had ever done the loss which the community had sustained by the death of Sherlock Holmes There were points about this strange business which would I was sure have specially appealed to him and the efforts of the police would have been supplemented or more probably anticipated by the trained observation and the alert mind of the first criminal agent in Europe All day as I drove upon my round I turned over the case in my mind and found no explanation which appeared to me to be adequate At the risk of telling a twice told tale I will recapitulate the facts as they were known to the public at the conclusion of the inquest The Honourable Ronald Adair was the second son of the Earl of Maynooth at that time governor of one of the Australian colonies Adair's mother had returned from Australia to undergo the operation for cataract and she her son Ronald and her daughter Hilda were living together at 427 Park Lane The youth moved in the best society had so far as was known no enemies and no particular vices He had been engaged to Miss Edith Woodley of Carstairs but the engagement had been broken off by mutual consent some months before and there was no sign that it had left any very profound feeling behind it For the rest the man's life moved in a narrow and conventional circle for his habits were quiet and his nature unemotional Yet it was upon this easy going young aristocrat that death came in most strange and unexpected form between the hours of ten and eleven twenty on the night of March 30 1894 Ronald Adair was fond of cards playing continually but never for such stakes as would hurt him He was a member of the Baldwin the Cavendish and the Bagatelle card clubs It was shown that after dinner on the day of his death he had played a rubber of whist at the latter club He had also played there in the afternoon The evidence of those who had played with him Mr Murray Sir John Hardy and Colonel Moran showed that the game was whist and that there was a fairly equal fall of the cards Adair might have lost five pounds but not more His fortune was a considerable one and such a loss could not in any way affect him He had played nearly every day at one club or other but he was a cautious player and usually rose a winner It came out in evidence that in partnership with Colonel Moran he had actually won as much as four hundred and twenty pounds in a sitting some weeks before from Godfrey Milner and Lord Balmoral So much for his recent history as it came out at the inquest On the evening of the crime he returned from the club exactly at ten His mother and sister were out spending the evening with a relation The servant deposed that she heard him enter the front room on the second floor generally used as his sitting room She had lit a fire there and as it smoked she had opened the window No sound was heard from the room until eleven twenty the hour of the return of Lady Maynooth and her daughter Desiring to say good night she attempted to enter her son's room The door was locked on the inside and no answer could be got to their cries and knocking Help was obtained and the door forced The unfortunate young man was found lying near the table His head had been horribly mutilated by an expanding revolver bullet but no weapon of any sort was to be found in the room On the table lay two banknotes for ten pounds each and seventeen pounds ten in silver and gold the money arranged in little piles of varying amount There were some figures also upon a sheet of paper with the names of some club friends opposite to them from which it was conjectured that before his death he was endeavouring to make out his losses or winnings at cards
