Beyond Thinking Dogen, 2004-04-27 Spiritual practice is not some kind of striving to produce enlightenment but an expression of the enlightenment already inherent in all things Such is the Zen teaching of Dogen Zenji 1200 1253 whose profound writings have been studied and revered for more than seven hundred years influencing practitioners far beyond his native Japan and the Soto school he is credited with founding In focusing on Dogen s most practical words of instruction and encouragement for Zen students this new collection highlights the timelessness of his teaching and shows it to be as applicable to anyone today as it was in the great teacher s own time Selections include Dogen s famous meditation instructions his advice on the practice of zazen or sitting meditation guidelines for community life and some of his most inspirational talks Also included are a bibliography and an extensive glossary Dogen on Meditation and Thinking

Eihei Dogen: Mystical Realist Hee-Jin Kim, 2012-06-25 Eihei Dogen the founder of the Japanese branch of the Soto Zen Buddhist school is considered one of the world's most remarkable religious philosophers Eihei Dogen Mystical Realist is a comprehensive introduction to the genius of this brilliant thinker This thirteenth century figure has much to teach us all and the questions that drove him have always been at the heart of Buddhist practice At the age of seven in 1207 Dogen lost his mother who at her death earnestly asked him to become a monastic to seek the truth of Buddhism We are told that in the midst of profound grief Dogen experienced the impermanence of all things as he watched the incense smoke ascending at his mother's funeral service This left an indelible impression upon the young Dogen later he would emphasize time and again the intimate relationship between the desire for enlightenment and the awareness of impermanence His way of life would not be a sentimental flight from but a compassionate understanding of the intolerable reality of existence At age 13 Dogen received ordination at Mt Hiei And yet a question arose As I study both the exoteric and the esoteric schools of Buddhism they maintain that human beings are endowed with Dharma nature by birth If this is the case why did the buddhas of all ages undoubtedly in possession of enlightenment find it necessary to seek enlightenment and engage in spiritual practice When it became clear that no one on Mt Hiei could give a satisfactory answer to this spiritual problem he sought elsewhere eventually making the treacherous journey to China This was the true beginning of a life of relentless questioning practice and teaching an immensely inspiring contribution to the Buddhadharma As you might imagine a book as ambitious as Eihei Dogen Mystical Realist has to be both academically rigorous and eminently readable to succeed Professor Hee Jim Kim's work is indeed both

Dogen's Manuals of Zen Meditation Carl Bielefeldt, 1990-08-16 Zen Buddhism is perhaps best known for its emphasis on meditation and probably no figure in the history of Zen is more closely associated with meditation practice than the thirteenth century Japanese master Dogen founder of the Soto school This study examines the historical and religious character of the practice as it is described in Dogen's own meditation texts introducing new materials and original perspectives on one of the most influential spiritual traditions of East Asian civilization The Soto version of Zen meditation is known as just sitting a practice in which through the cultivation of the subtle state of nonthinking the meditator is said to be brought into perfect accord with the higher consciousness of the Buddha mind inherent in all beings This study examines the historical and religious character of the practice as it is described in Dogen's own meditation texts introducing new materials and original perspectives on one of the most influential spiritual traditions of East Asian civilization

Engaging Dogen's Zen Jason M. Wirth, Shudo Brian Schroeder, Kanpu Bret W. Davis, 2016 How are the teachings of a thirteenth century master relevant today Twenty contemporary writers unpack Dogen's words and show how we can still find meaning in his teachings Engaging Dogen's Zen is a practice oriented study of Shushogi a canonical distillation of Dogen's thought used as a primer in the Soto School of Zen and Fukanzazengi Dogen's essential text on the practice of just sitting a text recited daily in the Soto School of Zen It is also a study of the entire self Here the principles of Soto Zen practice are unpacked and explained by leading contemporary Buddhists from the living tradition monks priests academics and community teachers Tackling Dogen's approach to key issues such as the preeminence of shikantaza universal buddha nature and what it means to be a Mahayana Buddhist the contributors to the volume help Zen practitioners and any who are trying to deepen their lives to appreciate better the teachings of Soto Zen and make these teachings part of their lives By revisiting what remains precious in Shushogi and Fukanzazengi we let them breathe just as we learn to breathe in zazen We find that Soto practice not only engages Dogen and Sakyamuni but all of our sisters and brothers and indeed the great earth itself Includes essays from Kosho Itagaki Taigen Dan Leighton Tenshin Charles Fletcher Shudo Brian Schroeder Glen A Mazis David Loy Drew Leder Steven DeCaroli Steve Bein John Maraldo Michael Schwartz Tetsuzen Jason M Wirth Leah Kalmanson Erin Jien McCarthy Dainen David Putney Steven Heine Graham Parkes Mark Unno Shudo Brian Schroeder and Kanpu Bret W Davis

Japanese Thought James Giles, 2008-04-30 The Danish philosopher Kierkegaard 1813 1855 is an enigmatic thinker whose works call out for interpretation One of the most fascinating strands of this interpretation is in terms of Japanese thought Kierkegaard himself knew nothing of Japanese philosophy yet the links between his own ideas and Japanese philosophers are remarkable This book examines Kierkegaard in terms of Shinto Pure Land Buddhism Zen Buddhism the Samurai the famous Kyoto school of Japanese philosophers and in terms of pivotal Japanese thinkers who were influenced by Kierkegaard
