Doing Museology Differently Routledge Research In Museum Studies:

Doing Museology Differently Duncan Grewcock, 2013-09-05 One might believe that museum studies is a stable field of academic inquiry based on a set of familiar institutional forms and functions But as institutions museums have never been stable or singular and neither has the discipline of museum studies Museum studies as a field of academic inquiry has received little critical attention One result of this neglect has arguably been a lack of invention in museum studies another is the distancing of academic museum studies from museum practice Doing Museology Differently charts a different course A critical creative reflection on academic practice the book takes the form of a narrative account of museological fieldwork A research story unfolds challenging academic conventions at the level of its own presentation the book combines critical museum visiting with an autobiographical voice The identification of a previously underexplored interdisciplinary space leads the author to experiment with museum studies using contemporary developments in the theory and practice of human geography The new approaches to museological research and representation that emerge from this unique inquiry challenge assumed institutional and intellectual boundaries and act as a call to further creative experimentation Museum Practice Conal McCarthy, 2020-11-19 MUSEUM PRACTICE Edited by CONAL MCCARTHY Museum Practice covers the professional work carried out in museums and art galleries of all types including the core functions of management collections exhibitions and programs Some forms of museum practice are familiar to visitors yet within these diverse and complex institutions many practices are hidden from view such as creating marketing campaigns curating and designing exhibitions developing fundraising and sponsorship plans crafting mission statements handling repatriation claims dealing with digital media and more Focused on what actually occurs in everyday museum work this volume offers contributions from experienced professionals and academics that cover a wide range of subjects including policy frameworks ethical guidelines approaches to conservation collection care and management exhibition development and public programs From internal processes such as leadership governance and strategic planning to public facing roles in interpretation visitor research and community engagement and learning each essential component of contemporary museum practice is thoroughly discussed The International Handbooks of Museum Studies, 4 Volume Set Sharon Macdonald, Helen Rees Leahy, 2015-07-20 The International Handbooks of Museum Studies is a multi volume reference work that represents a state of the art survey of the burgeoning field of museum studies Featuring original essays by leading international museum experts and emerging scholars readings cover all aspects of museum theory practice debates and the impact of technologies The four volumes in the series divided thematically offer in depth treatment of all major issues relating to museum theory historical and contemporary museum practice mediations in art design and architecture and the transformations and challenges confronting the museum In addition to invaluable surveys of current scholarship the entries include a rich and diverse panoply of examples and original case studies to illuminate the various perspectives Unprecedented for its in depth topic coverage and breadth of scholarship the multi volume International Handbooks of Museum Studies is an indispensable resource for the study of the development roles and significance of museums in contemporary society A New Testament Tone Bleie,2023-12-19 A NEW TESTAMENT offers a recast economic legal and social history of the strangely neglected enduring and power laden relationship between a Scandinavian Transatlantic mission and the Santals Boro and Bengalis of East India Northern Bangladesh and Eastern Nepal Bleie s kaleidoscopic portraits transport readers back to the medieval period and Danish and British Company Rule The British Raj and the early post Independence period remain her principal framing however This customized text enables readers to navigate and selectively immerse themselves in theoretical and descriptive chapters brimming with immersive storytelling The volume is relevant for university curricula in international history Scandinavian and Norwegian transnational history Santal ethnohistory the history of religion the sociology of religion mission history intercultural history of Christianity museum studies subaltern and postcolonial studies comparative international law peace and development studies social anthropology history of aid tribal studies women s studies and the study of indigenous oral and textual history Emotion and the Contemporary Museum Candice P. Boyd,Rachel Hughes,2019-06-28 This book outlines a geographically informed method of evaluating the emotional impact of museum exhibits The authors have personally developed the method they describe over several years of working with the Museo Laboratorio della Mente in Rome and the Melbourne Museum in Australia Informed by non representational theories in cultural geography this book offers solutions to museum staff for how they might evaluate aspects of visitor experience such as emotions and embodied experience which can be very difficult to assess using conventional approaches Museums and Photography Elena Stylianou,Theopisti Stylianou-Lambert,2016-12-08 Museums and Photography combines a strong theoretical approach with international case studies to investigate the display of death in various types of museums history anthropology art ethnographic and science museums and to understand the changing role of photography in museums Contributors explore the politics and poetics of displaying death and more specifically the role of photography in representing and interpreting this difficult topic Working with nearly 20 researchers from different cultural backgrounds and disciplines the editors critically engage the recent debate on the changing role of museums exhibition meaning making and the nature of photography They offer new ways for understanding representational practices in relation to contemporary visual culture This book will appeal to researchers and museum professionals inspiring new thinking about death and the role of photography in making sense of it Cities, Museums and Soft Power , Gail Dexter Lord,Ngair Blankenberg,2016-07-08 Museum planners Gail Lord and Ngair Blankenberg demonstrate how museums and cities are using their soft power to address some of the most important issues of our time Soft power is the exercise of influence through attraction persuasion and agenda setting rather than military or economic coercion Thirteen of the world s leading museum and cultural experts from six continents explore the many facets of soft power in cities and museums to include how it amplifies civic discourse accelerates cultural change and contributes to contextual intelligence among the great diversity of city dwellers visitors and policy makers The authors urge city governments to embrace museums which so often are the signifiers of their cities increasing real estate values while attracting investment tourists and creative workers Lord and Blankenberg propose 32 practical strategies for museums and cities to activate their soft power and create thriving and sustainable communities Follow the link below to watch co author Gail Lord speaking about soft power on The Agenda a popular public affairs program on TVO a leading educational television broadcaster <http://tvo.org/video/programs/the-agenda-with-steve-paikin-a-cultural-sleeping-giant-to-read-more> <http://tvo.org/article/current-affairs/shared-values-how-museums-help-cities-realize-their-soft-power>

Experiencing Materiality Valentina Gamberi, 2021-02-03 Representing a cutting edge study of the junction between theoretical anthropology material culture studies religious studies and museum anthropology this study examines the interaction between the human and the nonhuman in a museum setting usually defined as non Western non scientific and religious Combining an on site analysis of exhibit spaces with archival research and interviews with museum curators the chapters highlight contradictions of museum practices and suggests that museum practitioners use museum spaces and artefacts as a way of formulating new theoretical stances in material culture studies thus viewing museums as producers of theories together with affective engagements

Museum Practices and the Posthumanities Fiona R. Cameron, 2023-10-24 This book critiques modern museologies and curatorial practices that have been complicit in emerging existential crises It confidently presents novel more than human curatorial visions methods frameworks policies and museologies radically refiguring the epistemological foundations of curatorial museological thinking and practice for a habitable planet Modern curatorial and museological practices are dominated by modern humanism in which capital growth social technological advancement hubris extraction species logics and colonial domination predominate often without reflection While history science and technology museums and their engagement with non human worlds have always been ecological as an empirical reality the human centred frameworks and forms of human agency that institutions deploy tend to be non cognizant of this reality Museum Practices and the Posthumanities Curating for Planetary Habitability reveals how these practices are ill equipped to deal with the contemporary world of rapid digital transformations post Covid living climate change and its impacts among other societal changes and it shows how museums might best meet these challenges by thinking with and in more than human worlds This book is aimed at museological scholars and museum professionals and it will provide them with the inspiration to conduct research on and curate from a different ecological reference point to promote a world good enough for all things to thrive in radical co existence

Connecting Museums Mark O'Neill, Glenn Hooper, 2020 Connecting Museums focuses on museums and their relationship with health inclusion and community as well as a detailed assessment of the alliances that have been established between museums and other stakeholders in recent years

Reflections on Critical Museology J. Pedro Lorente, 2022-02-20 Reflections on Critical Museology Inside and Outside

Museums offers a reflective and reflexive re assessment of museum studies and the first wide ranging account of critical museology Drawing on an extensive range of examples from museums and across the museological literature which are purposefully representative of very different cultural backgrounds the book issues a plea for critical thinking in and about museums The various institutions covered and the plural analytical standpoints offer a broad interdisciplinary approach by intermingling art history anthropology sociocultural theories and heritage studies The result is not claimed as a universal or all encompassing account but a subjective review produced by J Pedro Lorente an art critic and historian who has been writing extensively about critical museology in different languages for many years Lorente offers a fascinating synopsis of his ideas in this extremely valuable short book looking inside and outside museums combining practice and theory whilst also relating both to the work of museum professionals and to a range of publications by academics including those from other research fields Reflections on Critical Museology Inside and Outside Museums will be essential reading for university students and academics working in museum studies and cognate disciplines such as art history anthropology and cultural studies

Art in Science Museums Camilla Rossi-Linnemann, Giulia de Martini, 2019-11-28 Art in Science Museums brings together perspectives from different practitioners to reflect on the status and meaning of art programmes in science centres and museums around the world Presenting a balanced mix of theoretical perspectives practitioners reflections and case studies this volume gives voice to a wide range of professionals from traditional science centres and museums and from institutions born with the very aim of merging art and science practices Considering the role of art in the field of science engagement the book questions whether the arts might help curators to convey complex messages foster a more open and personal approach to scientific issues become tools of inclusion and allow for the production of totally new cultural products The book also includes a rich collection of projects from all over the world synthetically presenting cases that reveal very different approaches to the inclusion of art in science programmes Art in Science Museums should be of great interest to academics researchers and postgraduate students working in the fields of museum studies cultural heritage management material culture science communication and contemporary art It should also be essential reading for museum professionals looking to promote more reflective social science engagement in their institutions

Museums as Cultures of Copies Brita Brenna, Hans Dam Christensen, Olav Hamran, 2018-12-07 Few institutions are warier of copies than museums Few fields of knowledge are more prone to denounce copies as fake than the heritage field Few discourses are as concerned with authenticity aura originals and provenance as those concerning exhibiting and collecting So why is it that these are institutions fields and discourses where copies proliferate and copying techniques have thrived for hundreds of years Museums as Cultures of Copies aims to make the copying practices of museums visible and to discuss from a range of interrelated perspectives precisely what function copies fulfil in the heritage field and in museums today With contributions from Europe and Canada the book interrogates the meaning of copies and presents copying as a fully integrated part of museum work Including chapters on ethnographic mannequins digitalized photos death masks museum documentation and mechanical models contributors consider how copying as a cultural form changes according to time and place and how new forms of copying and copy technologies challenge and expand museum work today Arguing that copying is at the basis of museum practice and that new technologies and practices have been taken up and developed in museums since their inception the book presents both heritage work and copies in a new light Museums as Cultures of Copies should be of great interest to academics scholars and postgraduate students working in the fields of museum and heritage studies as well as visual studies cultural history and archaeology It should also be essential reading for museum practitioners Theorizing

Equity in the Museum Bronwyn Bevan, Bahia Ramos, 2021-08-30 Theorizing Equity in the Museum integrates the perspectives of learning researchers and museum practitioners to shed light on the deep seated structures that must be accounted for if the field is to move past aspirations and rhetoric and towards more inclusive practices Written during a time when museums around the world were being forced to reckon with their institutional practices of exclusion their histories of colonization both cultural and intellectual and for many their tenuous business models the chapters leverage a range of theoretical perspectives to explore lived experiences of working in the museum towards changing the museum Theories of spatial justice critical pedagogy culturally relevant pedagogy critical race theory and others are used to consider how the museum s dominant cultural structures and norms collide with museum professionals aspirations for inclusive practices The chapters present a mix of empirical research and reflections which collectively operate to theorize the museum as a potential force for enriching empowering and transforming an inclusive public s relationship with some of our most powerful ideas and aspirations But first they must change from the inside out Grounded in practice and practical problems Theorizing Equity in the Museum demonstrates how theory can be used as a practical tool for change As a result the book will be of interest to academics and students engaged in the study of museums education learning and culture as well as to museum practitioners with an interest in equity and inclusion The Personalization of the Museum Visit Seph Rodney, 2019-05-31 The

Personalization of the Museum Visit examines a fundamental shift in institutional behavior in museums located in the United States and the United Kingdom Contending that art museums have moved toward a new paradigm of public engagement it posits that modern museum visitors are treated as self directed clients with the agency to make meaning for themselves The book then considers how this change has come about examining factors such as the onset of a new museology an experience economy and a marketing revolution Drawing on extensive research undertaken at Britain s Tate Modern the book examines a range of issues including visitor engagement curatorial practice and museum management A visit experience that is customizable to the individual visitor in which curators and marketers work together with visitor clients to create an experience of personalized meaning is Rodney argues rising in prevalence in the art museum field but it is also being stymied by certain structural impediments This book examines such obstacles including institutional division of labor long standing conceptions or misconceptions of the museum's mission and the orientation of museums toward a certain conceptual model of their visitors. The Personalization of the Museum Visit is essential reading for scholars and students engaging with issues of visitor engagement, curatorial practice and museum management. With a particular focus on the role of business interests and public policy, the book should also be of interest to those undertaking research in fields outside of museum and visitor studies. The Routledge Handbook of Museums, Media and Communication Kirsten Drotner, Vince Dziekan, Ross Parry, Kim Christian Schrøder, 2020-06-30. The Routledge Handbook of Museums, Media and Communication explores what it means to take mediated communication as a key concept for museum studies and as a sensitizing lens for media related museum practice on the ground.

Experimental Museology Taylor & Francis Group, 2021-06-29. Experimental Museology scrutinizes innovative endeavours to transform museum interactions with the world. Analysing cutting edge cases from around the globe, the volume demonstrates how museums can design, apply and assess new modes of audience engagement and participation. Written by an interdisciplinary group of researchers and research led professionals, the book argues that museum transformations must be focused on conceptualizing and documenting the everyday challenges and choices facing museums, especially in relation to wider social, political and economic ramifications. In order to illuminate the complexity of these challenges, the volume is structured into three related key dimensions of museum practice: namely institutions, representations and users. Each chapter is based on a curatorial design proposed and performed in collaboration between university based academics and a museum. Taken together, the chapters provide insights into a diversity of geographical contexts, fields and museums, thus building a comprehensive and reflexive repository of design practices and formative experiments that can help strengthen future museum research and design. Experimental Museology will be of great value to academics and students in the fields of museum, gallery and heritage studies, as well as architecture, design, communication and cultural studies. It will also be of interest to museum professionals and anyone else who is interested in learning more about experimentation and design as resources in museums.

Routledge research in museum studies, Museum Studies Rhianon Mason, 2020. Museum as Process Raymond Silverman, 2014-09-19. The museum has become a vital strategic space for negotiating ownership of and access to knowledges produced in local settings. Museum as Process presents community engaged culture work of a group of scholars whose collaborative projects consider the social spaces between the museum and community and offer new ways of addressing the challenges of bridging the local and the global Museum as Process explores a variety of strategies for engaging source communities in the process of translation and the collaborative mediation of cultural knowledges Scholars from around the world reflect upon their work with specific communities in different parts of the world Australia Canada Ghana Great Britain New Zealand Papua New Guinea Philippines South Africa Taiwan and the United States Each global case study provides significant insights into what happens to knowledge as it moves back and forth between source communities and global sites especially the museum Museum as Process is an important contribution to understanding the relationships between museums and source communities and the flow of cultural knowledge
