Educationtechnologypower Educational Computing As A Social Practice Suny Series Frontiers In Education:

Education/Technology/Power Michael W. Apple,Hank Bromley,1998-07-10 With a focus on educational computing this book examines how technological practices align with or subvert existing forms of dominance Examines the important question Is the enormous financial investment school districts are making in computing technology a good idea

Educational Knowledge Thomas S. Popkewitz,2000-01-06 An examination of educational reform and change throughout the world focusing on how issues of power and governance within states affect school practice and policy making

Teaching and Evaluating Writing in the Age of Computers and High-Stakes Testing Carl Whithaus,2005-04-27 Teaching and Evaluating Writing in the Age of Computers and High Stakes Testing offers a theoretical framework case studies and methods for evaluating student writing By examining issues in writing assessment the book discovers four situated techniques of authentic assessment that are already in use at a number of locales throughout the US Making and Moving Knowledge John Sutton Lutz,Barbara Neis,2008-07-09 It has been clear for some time that research does not automatically translate into knowledge nor does knowledge necessarily translate into wisdom Whether the immediate challenge is global warming epidemic disease poverty environmental degradation or social fragmentation research efforts are wasted if we cannot devise efficient and understandable processes to create and transfer knowledge to policy makers interested groups and communities How to maximize the impact of scholarly research and combine it with practical knowledge already available in lay communities are key issues in a world threatened with social ecological disasters Making and Moving Knowledge focuses directly on how knowledge is created and transferred or is blocked and atrophies It places knowledge generated by universities and governments beside practical knowledge from coastal aboriginal and non aboriginal communities and looks at how different kinds of knowledge flow in different directions Concentrating on intellectually fertile spaces at the edges of disciplines and the rich socio ecological interfaces where land meets sea authors demonstrate their commitment to knowledge transfer in their work showing how knowledge transfer can be considered theoretically methodologically and practically Increasing Access to College William G. Tierney,Linda Serra Hagedorn,2012-02-01 At a time when college enrollment rates for low income and under represented students are far below those of non minority students policies and practices designed to increase access should be a priority for colleges universities high schools and community agencies Increasing Access to College examines pre college enrichment programs that offer a specific and immediate remedy The Racial Crisis in American Higher Education William A. Smith,Philip G. Altbach,Kofi

Lomotey,2012-02-01 Why is it that as we enter the twenty first century the nation s predominantly white colleges and universities continue to be settings where people of color feel unwelcome and marginalized The contributors to this volume dissect a variety of structural and attitudinal factors that are prevalent in the higher education community organizational constructs and value orientations which seem to hark more to the past than to the future They comment on the political social and economic factors that have shaped academic culture and buttressed its quietly efficient maintenance of racially discriminatory practices The American system of higher education is often regarded as the best in the world Smith Altbach and Lomotey have edited a volume that implicitly asks how much better still it could be if it embraced people of color and provided them with a supportive and nurturing environment one which encouraged them to reach their fullest creative and intellectual potential Indeed this will probably be the most significant challenge that the academy faces in the twenty first century William B Harvey Vice President and Director Office of Minorities in Higher Education American Council on Education Washington D C     Community Colleges as Cultural Texts Kathleen M. Shaw,James R. Valadez,Robert A. Rhoads,1999-09-02 Community colleges are positioned to play a critical role in the process of upward mobility in American society Yet despite the open door accessibility of these institutions the question remains as to whether or not community colleges enhance the social mobility of working class and minority students The contradictory and often paradoxical nature of research on community colleges suggests that making generalizations about the sector as a whole is perhaps misguided This book takes an important step toward developing a more nuanced understanding of the rich and varied cultures inherent in community colleges The contributors approach this task by examining community colleges as cultural texts using critical qualitative frameworks to address the question of whether and how community colleges confront the challenges of diversity and provide real opportunities for upward mobility Contributors include Marilyn Amey Eusebio Diaz Stanford T Goto Berta Vigil Laden Dennis McGrath Laura I Rend n Robert A Rhoads Kathleen M Shaw Armando Trujillo James R Valadez and Bill Van Buskirk     Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,2003     Resources in Education ,1997     American Book Publishing Record ,1998     Whitaker's Books in Print ,1998     Books in Print ,1994     Books in Series, 1876-1949 R.R.
