Een Revolutie Die Voorbij Ging Domela Nieuwenhuis En Het Palingoproer:

Een revolutie die voorbij ging P. de Rooy, 1971 Acta Historiae Neerlandicae/Studies on the History of the Netherlands VI W. Brulez, A. C. F. Koch, E. H. Kossman, F. C. Spits, Joh. de Vries, P. L. Geschiere, Alice. C. Carter, J. Dhondt, 2012-12-06 The five previous volumes of the Acta Historiae Neerlandicae appeared under the auspices of the Netherlands Committee for Historical Sciences When in 1970 this Committee merged with the Historical Society to form the Dutch Historical Society Nederlands Historisch Genootschap an opportunity arose to rethink the aims of the Acta s original promoters Also this sixth and succeeding volumes became the responsibility of the new combined Society as above The volumes will from now on be published at The Hague by Martinus Nijhoff From the early days of the Acta language barriers were broken down and interested scholars from other countries could acquaint themselves with developments in historical work in the Low Countries hitherto published only in Dutch The Acta thus enabled discussion on Dutch historical topics to become international However initially subjects covered a wide field not only of Dutch but also of general history and articles were translated from Dutch not only into English but also into French and German If sales can be taken as a guide it appeared that scholars were not finding in the Acta precisely what they were seeking Editors expectations and therefore their hopes were it was felt going unrealised Historical research in the Low Countries 1970-1975 Alice C.

Carter, 2024-09-16 The five review articles included in this volume were produced by the Dutch History Seminar of the University of London with the assistance of several Belgian and Dutch historians They first appeared in the volumes VI X of the Acta Historiae Neerlandicae in 1978 renamed The Low Countries History Yearbook a periodical published by the Dutch Historical Society with the objective of bringing new publications on the history of the Low Countries in the Dutch language to the attention of English speaking historians These articles have been republished and provided with indexes in the hope that in this form they will also prove to be useful to students of Belgian and Dutch history who have not been regular readers of the Acta Should this publication be favourably received a subsequent volume covering the years 1976 1981 may be issued THE EDITORS VII Survey of recent Dutch Historiography ALICE C CARTER Editor INTRODUCTION This bibliographical article has been put together by members of the Dutch history seminar held at London University s Institute of Historical Research The article is intended for non Dutch reading scholars and indeed all who are interested in Netherlands history An attempt has been made and will continue to be made to survey important works published in the year previous to that in which the article is drawn up This year we have concerned ourselves with books or in the earlier part of 1971

Charismatic Leadership and Social Movements Jan Willem Stutje, 2012-08-01 Much of the writing on charisma focuses on specific traits associated with exceptional leaders a practice that has broadened the concept of charisma to such an extent that it loses its distinctiveness and therefore its utility More particularly the concept s relevance to the study of social movements has not moved beyond generalizations The contributors to this volume renew the debate on charismatic leadership from a historical perspective and seek to illuminate the concept's relevance to the study of social movements. The case studies here include such leaders as Mahatma Gandhi, the architect of apartheid Daniel F. Malan, the heroine of the Spanish Civil War Dolores Ibarruri, the pasionaria, and Mao Zedong. These charismatic leaders were not just professional politicians or administrators but sustained a strong symbiotic relationship with their followers, one that stimulated devotion to the leader and created a real group identity.

The House of Orange in Revolution and War Jeroen Koch, Dik van der Meulen, Jeroen van Zanten, 2022-06-06. An epic account of the House of Orange-Nassau over one hundred and fifty years of European history. Three rulers from the House of Orange-Nassau reigned over the Netherlands from 1813 to 1890: King William I from 1813 to 1840, King William II from 1840 to 1849, and King William III from 1849 to 1890. Theirs is an epic tale of joy and tragedy, progress and catastrophe, disappointment and glory, all set against the backdrop of a Europe plagued by war and revolution. The House of Orange in Revolution and War relates one and a half centuries of House of Orange history in a gripping narrative leading the reader from the last stadholders of the Dutch Republic to the modern monarchy of the early twentieth century, from the French Revolution and the Napoleonic wars to World War I and the European Revolutions that came after it.

Power and Urban Space in Pre-Modern Holland Clé Lesger, 2024-02-22. Cities and urban societies have many faces. In this study, the pre-modern cities of Holland are presented as arenas where power relations between social classes are expressed in a more or less permanent appropriation of physical space and through discursive strategies. The continuity of the power relations in the cities of Holland spanning centuries makes it urgent to look not only at the assumption of urban space as an expression of power relations within society but also at the contribution of this appropriation to the acceptance and continuity of the existing power relations in pre-modern Holland. Within this broad area, extensive attention is paid to the very prominent and enduring appropriation of urban space in the field of housing, the less permanent but violent appropriation of urban space during the public execution of scaffold punishments, the maintenance of public order by civic militias, and appropriation during riots and revolts. In addition, city descriptions, maps, and pictures of the pre-modern cities of Holland are scrutinised for what they can reveal about the appropriation of urban spaces. These themes each have an extensive historiography but they have never been brought together in an interpretative framework that fits in with Pierre Bourdieu's model of society and the work of especially John Allen on power until now.

Jewish Workers and the Labour Movement Karin Hofmeester, 2017-05-15. During the late nineteenth century, many Jewish workers and intellectuals considered their integration into the general labour movement as a good way to counter the double disadvantage they suffered in society as Jews and workers. Whilst in Amsterdam, this process encountered few obstacles, it was more problematical in London and Paris. Through a detailed examination of the collaborative efforts of Jewish labour in these three cities, Jewish Workers and the Labour Movement reveals the multi-layered and unique position of Jewish workers in the labour market. It shows how various factors such as economic change, political upheaval, state intervention, and anti-Semitism all affected the pace of integration and draws conclusions that highlight the similarities as well as the differences between the efforts of Jewish workers to improve their lot in France Britain and Holland Acta Historiae Neerlandicae ,1973
