A Brief Introduction to Egyptian Coins and Currency Peter Watson, 2014-10-16 There are many books that discuss the coins from specific periods of Egyptian history but none that considers the coins from the whole of that history This work aims to provide such an account covering the currency from ancient times through the Ptolemaic Roman Byzantine Arabic and Ottoman periods to modern times An important feature of the work is the illustration of a selection of about 150 coins and banknotes which represent the major types throughout that history Adjunct to this selection of these illustrations is a key which provides further numismatic detail about each of the coins in it A difficulty with Egyptian coinage is that it includes inscriptions in many languages Some notes in the key to the coins and in the appendices are provided to give a little help in this In addition to providing a chronological account of the currency the coins and notes are related to aspects of the daily lives of the people of each period and also to some aspects of the development of the state particularly its architecture

The Monastic Landscape of Late Antique Egypt Darlene L. Brooks Hedstrom, 2017-11-27 Darlene L Brooks Hedstrom offers a new history of the field of Egyptian monastic archaeology It is the first study in English to trace how scholars identified a space or site as monastic within the Egyptian landscape and how such identifications impacted perceptions of monasticism Brooks Hedstrom then provides an ecohistory of Egypt's tripartite landscape to offer a reorientation of the perception of the physical landscape She analyzes late antique documentary evidence early monastic literature and ecclesiastical history before turning to the extensive archaeological evidence of Christian monastic settlements In doing so she illustrates the stark differences between idealized monastic landscape and the actual monastic landscape that was urbanized through monastic constructions Drawing upon critical theories in landscape studies materiality and phenomenology Brooks Hedstrom looks at domestic settlements of non monastic and monastic settlements to posit what features makes monastic settlements unique thus offering a new history of monasticism in Egypt
