The Publisher and Bookseller ,1928 Official organ of the book trade of the United Kingdom      The Method of Response Function in Psychology & Sociology Irina G. Malkina-Pykh,Y. A. Pykh,2013 Social psychological and sociological systems present considerable difficulties for modellers due to their complexity multidimensionality uncertainty and irreducibility The book proposes that response functions MRF be used as a method of constructing purposeful credible and integrated social systems models from data and prior knowledge or information A semi empirical or grey box MRF model may be regarded as a trade off between a knowledge based model and a black box empirical model It may embody all the existing knowledge on the process or a part thereof and in addition it relies on parameterised functions whose parameters are determined from measurements Observations contain hidden information on the processes under consideration and one of the main purposes of the proposed method is to extract and describe these hidden relationships Parameterisation offers ways to couple qualitative with quantitative analysis This combination makes it possible to take into account all the phenomena that are not modelled with the required accuracy through prior knowledge Although only a simplified picture of the processes is modelled a grey box system model provides some insight into the system processes These processes are featured by chains of causality highlighting stressors and variables responsive to stressors The method of response functions is a nonlinear regression method that implies credible models in the sense that they are identifiable and hopefully explain system output behaviour satisfactorily For case studies the authors have selected the problems usually studied by psychologists and sociologists with statistical procedures such as investigation of variance and discriminant analysis based on the general linear model or one of its multivariate generalisations structural equation models etc disordered eating and obesity subjective well being and alexithymia An accompanying CD ROM contains the demonstration versions of three models that are discussed in the various chapters The Method of Response Functions in Psychology and Sociology is aimed at Mathematical Psychologists Mathematical Sociologists Applied Psychologists Sociologists and Social Practitioners It will also be suitable for use on undergraduate as well as graduate and postgraduate courses specializing in these areas      Fossil Energy Update ,1984      Monthly Catalog of United States Government Publications ,1984      Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1983      Paperbacks in Print ,1967      Monthly Catalogue, United States Public Documents ,1984      Marital Separation and Lethal Domestic Violence Desmond Ellis,2015-03-05 This book is the first to investigate the effects of participation in separation or divorce proceedings on femicide murder of a female femicide suicide homicide and suicide Because separation is one of the most significant predictors of domestic violence this book is exclusively devoted to theorizing researching and preventing lethal domestic violence or other assaults triggered by marital separation The authors provide evidence supporting the use of an estrangement specific risk assessment and estrangement focused public education to prevent murders and assaults This information is needed not only by instructors in criminal justice and sociology programs but by researchers theorizing about or investigating domestic violence In the world of practitioners family court judges divorce mediators family lawyers prosecutors involved in bail hearings shelter staff and family counselors urgently need this resource Ellis et al include discussion questions and chapter objectives to support learners in the classroom or in community based settings and instructor support material includes PowerPoint lecture slides additional teaching and research resources and a test bank This text advocates convincingly for prevention of domestic violence and gives academics and practitioners the tools they need This text advocates convincingly for prevention of domestic violence and gives academics and practitioners the tools they need
