Disability Politics And Care The Challenge Of Direct Funding:

Disability Politics and Care Christine Kelly, 2016-01-15 Disability Politics and Care examines a provincial direct funding program to illuminate what happens when people with disabilities take control of their own care arrangements In addition to investigating responses from a wide range of stakeholders Christine Kelly reflects on the broader social and political implications of these types of programs She probes the divide that exists between rejections of care by disability activists on the one hand and attempts by feminists to value gendered forms of labour on the other Rather than trying to find common ground between these viewpoints Kelly explores how maintaining a tension between them could positively transform the understanding and practice of care Enlivened by the voices of disabled people attendants and informal supports this book uses one independent living program as a starting point for untangling much larger philosophical theoretical and material questions about self determination inter dependence governance and justice

The Aging-Disability Nexus Katie Aubrecht, Christine Kelly, Carla Rice, 2020-06-01 As the global population ages disability demographics are shifting Societal transformation and global health inequities have changed who is likely to reach old age who is likely to live with disability and the relationship between aging and disability in various socio cultural and geopolitical contexts The Aging Disability Nexus breaks new ground by bringing gerontology and disability studies into dialogue with each other through a variety of empirical conceptual and pedagogical approaches Contributors explore the tensions that shape the way disability and aging are understood experienced and responded to at both individual and systemic levels while avoiding the common tendency to conflate these overlapping elements and map them onto a normative faulty notion of the human life trajectory This perceptive work analyzes the distinction between aging with a disability and aging into disability and reveals how multiple identities socio economic forces culture and community give form to our experiences

Disability Alliances and Allies Allison C. Carey, Joan M. Ostrove, Tara Fannon, 2020-11-09 For its breadth and depth of research Disability Alliances and Allies Opportunities and Challenges is essential reading for researchers and students across the social sciences interested in disability social movements activism and identity

Love, Money, Duty Rachel Adams, 2025-04-29 From birth to death we care and are cared for by others Yet we rarely acknowledge care except when it fails In Love Money Duty Rachel Adams examines the stories we tell about care those who do the work and those who depend on it These narratives she argues help us better understand our complicated feelings about care and the obligations that come with it Combining insightful and compassionate readings of writers and artists among them Toni Morrison Susan Sontag Roz Chast Sally Mann and Jamaica Kincaid with stories of her own experiences Adams analyzes the work feelings and ethical dilemmas associated with care including unwelcome emotions such as boredom resentment exhaustion and disgust From the universal dependence of infancy to elder care and from the intimacy of home and family to institutions like hospitals nursing facilities and asylums Love Money Duty considers our ambivalence about vulnerability and need and how it is shaped by capitalism race and gender Drawing from moral philosophy gender and queer theory critical race and disability studies and health humanities Adams treats care as a form of work a feeling an ethic and an art Exploring the radical possibilities of care and the devastating consequences of its failure this book invites readers to appreciate care that works recognizing the creativity and resourcefulness of dependent people and their caregivers

Disability Politics Symposium ,1994

Disability and Social Policy in Canada Mary Ann McColl,Lyn Jongbloed,2006 Concise and accessible this book is the authoritative up to date resource for academics researchers students and professionals engaged in the field of disability and social policy This new edition moves beyond existing programs and history and focuses more on issues affecting policy and policy analysis It analyzes the current state and future prospects of disability policy at the beginning of the 21st century and attempts to identify directions for development and investment to ensure the best possible policy environment for disabled Canadians

Disability Politics and Community Care Mark Priestley,1999 Priestley encourages health and welfare professionals and policy makers to start working much more closely with disabled people themselves He argues that this will break barriers between user and provider and result in the reality of integrated living

Disability Management Dianne E. G. Dyck,2002

Living in the Community with Disability Susan Allen,1998 Text discussing disability research from a life course perspective and emphasizing the reality that people of all ages are at risk of being disabled For policy makers and researchers

Wasting Away Pat Armstrong,Hugh Armstrong,2003 Wasting Away is a provocative text that examines and assesses the Canadian health care system It examines the development of the Canadian health care system and breaks the analysis down into accessible units who provides the institutions and the people who pays funding sources and who decides public private and patients

The New Political Economy of Disability Georgia van Toorn,2021-02-22 This book addresses the ways in which individualised market based models of disability support provision have been mobilised in and across different countries through cross national investigation of individualised funding IF as an object of neoliberal policy mobility Combining rich theoretical and interdisciplinary perspectives with extensive empirical research the book provides a timely examination of the policy processes and mechanisms driving the spread of IF amongst countries at the forefront of disability policy reform It is argued that IF s mobility is not attributable to neoliberalism alone but to the complex intersections between neoliberal and emancipatory agendas and to the transnational networks that have blended the two agendas in new ways in different institutional contexts The book shows how disability rights struggles have synchronised with neoliberal agendas which explains IF s propensity to move and mutate between different jurisdictions Featuring first hand accounts of the activists and advocates engaged in these struggles the book illuminates the consequences and risks of the dangerous liaisons and political trade offs that seemed necessary to get individualised funding on the policy agenda for disabled people It will be of interest to all scholars and students working in disability studies social policy sociology and political science more generally
