Disabling Professions Ideas In Progress:

Disabling Professions Ivan Illich, 1977 Why do we put so many resources into medicine education and law with so little apparent benefit Why do we hold the professions in awe and allow them to set up what are in effect monopolies This fascinating and controversial collection of essays challenges the power and the mystique of the modern professions

Disabling Professions ,1977 Troubled Persons Industries Martin Harbusch, 2022-01-13 This book critiques the use of psychiatric labelling and psychiatric narratives in everyday areas of institutional and social life across the globe It engages an interpretive sociology emphasising the medial and individual everyday practices of medicalisation and their role in establishing and diffusing conceptions of mental abnormality The reconstruction of psychiatric narratives is currently taking place in multiple contexts many of which are no longer strictly psychiatric On the one hand psychiatric narratives now pervade contemporary public discourses and institutions through advertising news and internet sites On the other hand professionals like social workers teachers counsellors disability advisors lawyers nurses and or health insurance staff dealing with psychiatric narratives are becoming servants of the psychiatric discourse within troubled person s industries Abstract academic categories get turned into concrete aggrieved victims of these categorisations and academic formulas turned into individual narratives To receive support it seems one must be labelled The practice oriented micro sociological field with which this volume is concerned has only recently begun to integrate itself into public and academic debates regarding medicalisation and the social role of psychiatry Discussions on the evolution and expansion of official diagnoses within academia and society in general frequently overlook the individualised roles of psychiatric diagnoses and the experiences of those involved and affected by these processes an oversight which this volume seeks to both highlight and address

Collaborative Practice in Psychology and Therapy David A Pare, Glen Lerner, 2014-01-02 Collaborative Practice in Psychology and Therapy provides mainstream academics and practitioners with easy access to cutting edge thinking in social constructionist psychology and therapy This unique book is geared to readers who may not be familiar with narrative social constructionist or critical psychology and therapy presenting contemporary theory and practice with a minimum of jargon The field s leading practitioners and theorists demonstrate through a collaborative and relational focus how to work with people rather than on them in a mutual co constructive exchange Collaborative Practice in Psychology and Therapy bridges the gap between modern and postmodern theory providing a well rounded view that enables readers to see how contemporary theory can be applied in various subdisciplines Each user friendly chapter is virtually free of technical terms beginning with a readable thumbnail summary of the practical accessible material that follows The book includes case studies and examples illustrations tables a brief glossary of the few terms that do need explaining and suggestions for additional readings Collaborative Practice in Psychology and Therapy includes easy to apply ideas on theory therapeutic practice teaching supervision research and much more Collaborative Practice in Psychology and Therapy is a practical accessible resource for psychology and therapy students and practitioners academics working in psychotherapy training and supervision critical psychology and psychological research The book provides vital information for theorists and professionals interested in relational and collaborative practice on psychology and therapy including clinical psychologists individual couple and family therapists school counselors and social workers

Machine Learning Phil Bernstein, 2025-09-01 The advent of machine learning based AI systems demands that our industry does not just share toys but builds a new sandbox in which to play with them Phil Bernstein The profession is changing A new era is rapidly approaching when computers will not merely be instruments for data creation manipulation and management but empowered by artificial intelligence they will become agents of design themselves Architects need a strategy for facing the opportunities and threats of these emergent capabilities or risk being left behind Architecture's best known technologist Phil Bernstein provides that strategy Divided into three key sections Process Relationships and Results Machine Learning lays out an approach for anticipating understanding and managing a world in which computers often augment but may well also supplant knowledge workers like architects Armed with this insight practices can take full advantage of the new technologies to future proof their business Features chapters on Professionalism Tools and technologies Laws policy and risk Delivery means and methods Creating consuming and curating data Value propositions and business models

Beyond Medicine Paul V. Dutton, 2021-04-15 In Beyond Medicine Paul V Dutton provides a penetrating historical analysis of why countless studies show that Americans are far less healthy than their European counterparts Dutton argues that Europeans are healthier than Americans because beginning in the late nineteenth century European nations began construction of health systems that focused not only on medical care but the broad social determinants of health where and how we live work play and age European leaders also created social safety nets that became integral to national economic policy In contrast US leaders often viewed investments to improve the social determinants of health and safety net programs as a competing priority to economic growth Beyond Medicine compares the US to three European social democracies France Germany and Sweden in order to explain how in differing ways each protects the health of infants and children working age adults and the elderly Unlike most comparative health system analyses Dutton draws on history to find answers to our most nettlesome health policy questions

The Discipline of Architecture, 2001 Disabled People and Employment Barnes, Helen, Thornton, Patricia, Sue Maynard Campbell, 1998-07-08 Considers research to date and existing research and development initiatives Evaluates the prospects for future research and development in the areas identified as priority by disabled people themselves Educational Forum, 1983 Disabling professions.
