Awaiting the King (Cultural Liturgies Book #3) James K. A. Smith, 2017-11-07 In this culmination of his widely read and highly acclaimed Cultural Liturgies project James K A Smith examines politics through the lens of liturgy What if he asks citizens are not only thinkers or believers but also lovers Smith explores how our analysis of political institutions would look different if we viewed them as incubators of love shaping practices not merely governing us but forming what we love How would our political engagement change if we weren t simply looking for permission to express our views in the political sphere but actually hoped to shape the ethos of a nation a state or a municipality to foster a way of life that bends toward shalom This book offers a well rounded public theology as an alternative to contemporary debates about politics Smith explores the religious nature of politics and the political nature of Christian worship sketching how the worship of the church propels us to be invested in forging the common good This book creatively merges theological and philosophical reflection with illustrations from film novels and music and includes helpful exposition and contemporary commentary on key figures in political theology

Following Jesus N. T. Wright, 1995-07-14 The twelve exhilarating meditations in this volume explore what it truly means to follow Jesus today. Part One outlines the essential messages of six major New Testament books: Hebrews, Colossians, Matthew, John, Mark, and Revelation. Engaged Fr Stavros N Akrotirianakis, 2021-10-04 There is no better way to live than as a disciple of the Lord Jesus. But how do I actually do that? Fr Stavros Akrotirianakis offers a simple but not simplistic path for those who desire to embark on the greatest adventure of this life. Fr John Riccardo, Executive Director of ACTS XXIX, forty days after His Resurrection from the dead, Jesus gathered His Disciples and commissioned them to go out into all the world and spread the Gospel to all nations. Many of them were illiterate fishermen. Not one held a degree from an advanced Rabbinical school. And yet these men took the Christian message and shared it with the whole world. With faith they changed history and have led billions of people to salvation. We too are enjoined to cultivate disciples. However, before we can make others disciples or spread the message of salvation, we ourselves need to become disciples, students of the Gospel. Before we can become students, we must answer the call to be a follower of Jesus. And before we can become a true follower of Jesus, we have to understand who Jesus is.

Engaged: The Call to Be Disciples contains 130 short reflections offering practical instruction on what it means to be a follower of Jesus Christ. It begins by reflecting on the simple question, Who is Jesus Christ? Fr Akrotirianakis discusses the costs and benefits of being a disciple. His reflections on prayer and stewardship build to the final section on rallying and sustaining confidence in our Christian walk. Although written by a Greek Orthodox priest, this provocative work offers inspiration for Christians of all denominations of what it means to believe, belong, and follow. Father Stavros N Akrotirianakis is a Greek Orthodox Priest who serves St John the Baptist Greek Orthodox Church in Tampa, Florida. He has also authored the books Let All Creation Rejoice: Reflections on Advent, the Nativity, and Epiphany, The Road Back to Christ: Reflections on Lent, Holy Week, and Pascha, Blessed is the Kingdom: Now and Forever, Reflections on the Divine Liturgy, and Let Us Be Attentive: Reflections on the Sunday and Feastday Scripture Readings of the Orthodox Church. He writes a daily reflection called The Prayer Team, which can be found at www.prayerteam365.com.
