Discontent and its Civilizations Mohsin Hamid, 2015-02-24 From the bestselling author of How to Get Filthy Rich in Rising Asia and Exit West coming in March 2017 a near perfect essay collection filled with insight compassion and intellect NPR Mohsin Hamid's brilliant moving and extraordinarily clever novels have not only made him an international bestseller they have earned him a reputation as a master critic of the modern global condition Foreign Policy His stories are at once timeless and of the moment and his themes are universal love language ambition power corruption religion family identity Here he explores this terrain from a different angle in essays that deftly counterpoise the personal and the political and are shot through with the same passion imagination and breathtaking shifts of perspective that gives his fiction its unmistakable electric charge A water lily who has called three countries on three continents his home Pakistan the birthplace to which he returned as a young father the United States where he spent his childhood and young adulthood and Britain where he married and became a citizen Hamid writes about overlapping worlds with fluidity and penetrating insight Whether he is discussing courtship rituals or pop culture drones or the rhythms of daily life in an extended family compound he transports us beyond the scarifying headlines of an anxious West and a volatile East beyond stereotype and assumption and helps to bring a dazzling diverse global culture within emotional and intellectual reach

Discontent and Its Civilizations Mohsin Hamid, 2014-12-01 Foreign Policy's 100 leading global thinkers in 2013 We're born with an in-built capacity for language It is wired into our brains just as an in-built capacity for breathing is wired into our lungs We need language We need language to tell stories We need stories to create a self Alongside his highly acclaimed novels Mohsin Hamid has written superb pieces over the years about politics literature and his own life Collected together for the first time they show that Hamid is not just a great novelist but a master critic of the modern global condition Provocative dexterous full of ideas this is a sparkling collection

Rhetorics of Religion in American Fiction Liliana M. Naydan, 2016-05-23 Rhetorics of Religion in American Fiction considers the way in which contemporary American authors address the subject of belief in the post 9/11 Age of Terror Naydan suggests that after 9/11 fiction by Mohsin Hamid Laila Halaby Philip Roth Don DeLillo John Updike and Barbara Kingsolver dramatizes and works to resolve impasses that exist between believers of different kinds at the extremes These impasses emerge out of the religious paradox that shapes America as simultaneously theocratic and secular and they exist for instance between liberals and fundamentalists between liberals and certain evangelicals between fundamentalists and artists and between fundamentalists of different varieties Ultimately Naydan argues that these authors function as literary theologians of sorts and forge a relevant space beyond or between extremes They fashion faith or lack thereof as hybridized and hence as a negotiation among secularism atheism faith fundamentalism and fanaticism In so doing they invite their readers into contemplations of religious difference and new ways of memorializing 9/11

Shifting Twenty-First-Century Discourses, Borders and Identities Oana-Celia Gheorghiu, 2020-09-01 The world is spinning around us and we are spinning with it When changes occur at the geopolitical level inevitable changes also occur in people's identity and in the way they see and represent the world This book looks at this world with new eyes approaching contemporary history and herstory from a scholarly perspective that cancels borders Emphasis here is laid on migration geopolitics global citizenship human rights the EU and the non EU and East and West as represented in fiction and drama or translated on television The first part of the volume deals with migration and alterations in the non Western world with constant references to September 11 terrorism and wars and the Syrian refugee crisis before the focus moves on to one of the most important migration hosts nowadays the European Union discussing its expansion to the East French President Macron's call for renewal and lastly a possible beginning of the end announced by Brexit This volume is a mirror of the discourses of globalization one that makes the old self other dichotomy obsolete We are all selves in the eye of the storm that is raving around us bringing change with it

Transnational Politics in the Post-9/11 Novel Joseph Conte, 2019-11-22 Transnational Politics in the Post 9 11 Novel suggests that literature after September 11 2001 reflects the shift from bilateral nation state politics to the multilateralism of transnational politics While much of the criticism regarding novels of 9 11 tends to approach these works through theories of personal and collective trauma this book argues for the evolution of a post 9 11 novel that pursues a transversal approach to global conflicts that are unlikely to be resolved without diverse peoples willing to set aside sectarian interests These novels embrace not only American writers such as Don DeLillo Dave Eggers Ken Kalfus Thomas Pynchon and Amy Waldman but also the countervailing perspectives of global novelists such as J M Coetzee Orhan Pamuk Mohsin Hamid and Laila Halaby These are not novels about terrorism nor do they seek comfort in the respectful cloak of national mourning Rather they are instances of the novel in terror which recognizes that everything having been changed after 9 11 only the formally inventive presentation will suffice to acknowledge the event's unrepresentability and its shock to the political order

Literature and the War on Terror Sk Sagir Ali, 2023-02-14 This book examines cultural imaginations post 9 11 It explores the idea of a religious community and its multifaceted representations in literature and popular culture The essays in the volume focus on the role of literature film music television shows and other cultural forms in opening up spaces for complex reflections on identities and cultures and how they enable us to rethink the trauma of familiarity post traumatic heterotopias religious extremism and the idea of the neighbour in post 9 11 literary and cultural imagination The volume also probes the intersections of religion popular media televised simulacrum and digital martyrdom in the wake of 9 11 It also probes the simulation of new age media images with reference to the creation and dissemination of martyrs the languages of grief religionisation of terrorism islamophobia religious stereotypes and the reading of comics in writing the terror An essential read the book reclaims and reinterprets the alternative to a Eurocentric Americentric understanding of cultural and geopolitical structures of global designs It will be of great interest to researchers of literature and cultural studies media studies politics film studies and South Asian studies
