Punëtorët Dalin Nga Studioja Vincent W.J. van Gerven Oei, 2015-10 Workers Leaving the Studio Looking Away from Socialist Realism catalogs the exhibition Workers leaving the studio Looking away from socialist realism curated by Mihnea Mircan in the National Gallery of Arts in Tirana Albania in 2015 According to Mircan The exhibition reflects on another projection machine whose history and consequences unlike cinema are circumscribed by national boundaries specific histories and ideological configurations The regime of production and representation of socialist realism radicalizes the violence that the creation of a new image does to its subject it intensifies the fraught relation between refashioned representation and that which is represented Its insistence on a particular projective notion of reality is commensurate with the coercion of daily cultural social emotional life into a grid whose perspective lines and vanishing points carry heavy ideological charges It enforces what it represents onto that which it represents so that representation would replace reality Apart from a full documentation of the exhibition by photographer Marco Mazzi the catalogue also features theoretical and art historical contributions both in English and in Albanian on socialist realist art as developed in Albania under the communist regime as well as texts highlighting contemporary attempts to display political realities through progressive artistic practices Artists include Santiago Sierra Jonas Staal Ciprian Mure an Irwin Sarah Vanagt and Armando Lulaj with scholarly contributions by Albanian: Botëkuptimi Kur'anor: Një Pikënisje Për Reformën Kulturore (The Qur'anic Worldview: A Springboard for Cultural Reform) AbdulHamid AbuSulayman, 2018-01-01 This is a carefully reasoned positive and largely reflective work Looking back at the various stages of Islamic historical development AbuSulayman puts forward a thesis that focuses on the recovery of what is termed the Qur'anic worldview By this is meant an ethical monotheistic and purposeful perspective on the world and those within it Our faith will only be complete when we have become utterly sincere in our love for God a love expressed in a pure passionate love for goodness and truth in this world It was the strict internalization of this perspective and close adherence to the principles of the Qur'an which AbuSulayman contends played a key factor in galvanizing the devout and intensely God conscious followers of fledgling Islam to achieve the successes that they once did the profound historical and global impact of which is still the subject of much study and admiration today The rebirth of Islamic identity through this Qur'anic worldview is the key requirement of our times and a prerequisite for any future healthy and viable development of Muslim societies
