Fictions of Race in Contemporary French Literature Étienne Achille, Oana Panaïté, 2025-05-19 Contemporary French writers have embarked on various quests for new sources of thematic and formal inspiration which are increasingly tied to issues of postcolonial legacies However French literature has never been consistently examined through the lens of race ethnicity and its relation to post coloniality Fictions of Race in Contemporary French Literature is the first scholarly study to engage with the figure of the White writer and explore the White literary gaze in contemporary France The book highlights the inherent postcoloniality of White Hexagonal literature in a context marked by institutionalized colour blindness and offers a reflection on responsible writing in and about postcolonial France The book identifies a set of formal features functions and aesthetic dispositions which reveal the ways in which White writers grapple with postcolonial subjects It focuses on seven case studies featuring texts by Marie Darrieussecq Virginie Despentes Annie Ernaux Nicolas Fargues Pierre Lemaitre douard Louis and Nicolas Mathieu Achille and Panaïté argue that it is imperative to recast the enduring boundedness of race and empire as a matter of equal concern to White and non White writers

Universality after Universalism Markus Messling, 2023-10-24 The idea of universalism inherited from the French Revolution has been strongly discredited by its colonial history today it is also the target of nationalist attacks What remains of it Now available in English Markus Messling's critically acclaimed study shows how contemporary Francophone literatures seek after European universalism approaches to a new universality without which knowledge and justice cannot be organised in world society With a foreword by Souleymane Bachir Diagne
