Discourse And Knowledge A Sociocognitive Approach:

Discourse and Knowledge Teun A. van Dijk, 2014-07-17 Most of our knowledge is acquired by discourse and our ability to produce and understand discourse is impossible without the activation of massive amounts of knowledge of the world Both discourse and knowledge are fundamental concepts of the humanities and social sciences but they are often treated separately Based on a theory of natural knowledge the book deals with the cognitive processes social distribution cultural differences and the linguistic and discursive management of knowledge in interaction and communication in epistemic communities The first book to adopt a multidisciplinary approach to studying the relationship between the two concepts Discourse and Knowledge introduces the new field of epistemic discourse analysis Using a wide range of examples to illustrate the theory it is essential reading for both students and academics interested in epistemology linguistics discourse analysis cognitive and social psychology and the social sciences

Discourse and Context Teun A. van Dijk, 2010-02-11 How do social situations influence language use discourse and conversation This book is a monograph which presents a multidisciplinary theory of context and the way context influences language use and discourse Unlike in earlier approaches contexts are not defined as objective social variables such as gender or age Rather they are constructs of the participants themselves that is subjective definitions of the communicative situation that are made explicit in the sociocognitive notion of context models These models dynamically control all language use make sure that discourses are appropriate in the communicative situation and hence are the basis of pragmatics In this book context models are studied especially from a socio linguistic and cognitive perspective In another book published by Cambridge University Press Society and Discourse Teun A van Dijk develops the social psychological sociological and anthropological dimensions of the theory of context

An Introduction to Sociolinguistics Ronald Wardhaugh, Janet M. Fuller, 2021-04-12 AN INTRODUCTION TO SOCIOLINGUISTICS The new eighth edition of An Introduction to Sociolinguistics brings this valuable bestselling textbook up to date with the latest in sociolinguistic research and pedagogy providing a broad overview of the study of language in social context with accessible coverage of major concepts theories methods issues and debates within the field This leading text helps students develop a critical perspective on language in society as they explore the complex connections between societal norms and language use The eighth edition contains new and updated coverage of such topics as the societal aspects of African American Vernacular English AAVE multilingual societies and discourse gender and sexuality ideologies and language attitudes and the social meanings of linguistic forms Organized in four sections this text first covers traditional language issues such as the distinction between languages and dialects identification of regional and social variation within languages and the role of context in language use and interpretation Subsequent chapters cover approaches to research in sociolinguistics variationist sociolinguistics ethnography and discourse analytic research and address both macro and micro sociolinguistic aspects of multilingualism in national transnational global and digital contexts The concluding section of the text looks at language in relation to gender and sexuality education and language planning and policy issues Featuring examples from a variety of languages and cultures that illustrate topics such as social and regional dialects multilingualism and the linguistic construction of identity this text provides perspectives on both new and foundational research in sociolinguistics and linguistic anthropology An Introduction to Sociolinguistics Eighth Edition remains the ideal textbook for upper level undergraduate and graduate course in sociolinguistics language and society linguistic anthropology applied and theoretical linguistics and education The new edition has also been updated to support classroom application with a range of effective pedagogical tools including end of chapter written exercises and an instructor website as well as materials to support further learning such as reading suggestions research ideas and an updated companion student website containing a searchable glossary a review guide additional exercises and examples and links to online resources

NGO Discourses in the Debate on Genetically Modified Crops Ksenia Gerasimova, 2017-07-20 The development and use of genetically modified organisms GMOs has been a contentious topic for the last three decades While there have been a number of social science analyses of the issues this is the first book to assess the role of Non Governmental Organizations NGOs in the debate at such a wide geographic scale The various positions for and against GMOs particularly with regard to transgenic crops articulated by NGOs in the debate are dissected classified and juxtaposed to corresponding campaigns These are discussed in the context of key conceptual paradigms including nature fundamentalism and the organic movement post colonialism food sovereignty anti globalisation sustainability and feminism The book also analyses how NGOs interpret the debate and the persuasive communication tactics they use This provides greater understanding of the complexity of negotiations in the debate and explains its specific features such as its global scope and difficulty in finding compromises The author assesses the long term interests of various participants and changes in perceptions of science and in public communication as a result Examples of major NGOs such as Greenpeace Oxfam and WWF are included but the author also provides new research into the role of NGOs in Russia

Pictorial Framing in Moral Politics Ahmed Abdel-Raheem, 2018-10-26 This book seeks to extend research on framing beyond linguistic and cognitive perspectives by examining framing in visual and multimodal texts and their impact on moral cognition and attitudes Drawing on perspectives from frame semantics blending theory relevance theory and pragmatics the volume establishes a model of pictorial framing arguing that subtle alterations in the visual presentation of issues around judgment and choice in such texts impact perception and applies this framework to a range of case studies from Egyptian British and American cartoons and illustrations The book demonstrates the affordances of applying this framework in enhancing our understanding of both the nature of word image relations and issues of representation in the op ed genre but also in other forms of media more generally The volume will be of particular interest to students and scholars in multimodality critical discourse analysis cognitive linguistics social psychology and communication studies

and discourse are emerging as a new battleground in the environmental debate With the rise of new environmentalist movements and their subsequent backlash we are now exposed to a plethora of different and often opposing discourses on the environmental crisis and our relationship with nature This book argues for the need to develop classroom practices which aid students in critically reviewing and evaluating different perspectives on discourses of environmentalism and sustainability Remarking that language and humanities teachers are perfectly positioned to play a key role in the development of eco critical language awareness at this crucial juncture this book explores how they can help students utilise a critical perspective to navigate the multitude of cultural messages regarding our relationship with nature Employing ecolinguistics as a form of eco critical pedagogy Emile Bellewes presents key concepts underpinning ecolinguistics before guiding readers through their application in the classroom Serving as a bridge between critical perspectives on environmental education and forms of discourse analysis Ecolinguistics and Environment in Education explains how ecolinguistics can be used to carry out detailed linguistic analyses of environmentally significant messages in the classroom

Manual of Romance Languages in the Media Kristina Bedijs, Christiane Maaß, 2017-09-25 This manual provides an extensive overview of the importance and use of Romance languages in the media both in a diachronic and synchronic perspective Its chapters discuss language in television and the new media the language of advertising or special cases such as translation platforms or subtitling Separate chapters are dedicated to minority languages and smaller varieties such as Galician and Picard and to methodological approaches such as linguistic discourse analysis and writing process research

Discourse and Power Teun A van Dijk, 2008-06 Teun van Dijk is one of the founders of critical discourse studies This volume brings together some of his key writings framed by new introductory material Knowledge Organization, 2003

Constructing Professional Discourse Concepción Orna-Montesinos, 2012 This book explores the fascinating role that language plays in the construction of non verbal objects by mapping out the ontological meaning of the specialised concepts and the domain specific knowledge embedded in them In doing so it provides a comprehensive linguistic insight into the discourse of professional domain specific communities and hence into the communication practices and procedures of those communities In this respect the book offers a response to the claims made by many of the most influential applied linguists today such as Vijay Bhatia 1993 2004 John Swales 1990 2004 or Ken Hyland 2002 among others who have consistently defended the need for applied linguistic research into the textual generic and social perspectives on the under researched interrelatedness of the discoursal and professional practices of a discipline Specifically this book provides readers with an integrative multi perspective approach to the study of professional domain specific discourses While it mainly draws on the tenets of genre theory and discourse semantics it also nurtures from the theoretical and empirical foundations of applied linguistics cognitive linguistics corpus linguistics and ontological engineering The book starts from the analysis of domain specific texts as final written products with specific lexico grammatical semantic and rhetorical features to later enquire into the written products as textual artefacts closely linked to the social context of production and interpretation of the text This integrative approach provides fresh new insights into the way the processes of writing are affected by the community specific institutional and socio historical circumstances in which domain specific texts are produced From Information to Knowledge Ephraim Nissan, Klaus M. Schmidt, 1995 These papers explore the linguistic philosophical and computational problems encountered when attempting to attribute meaning whether to words or to electronic data This volume argues that the search for a theory of human thinking and knowledge now crosses all disciplinary boundaries with system biology biophysics and neuroscience having as much relevance as philosophy and linguistics Knowledge Organization for a Global Learning Society International Society for Knowledge Organization, 2006 Dieser Band beinhaltet Proceedings of the Ninth International ISKO Conference 4-7 July 2006 Vienna Austria Language, Children, and Society Olga K. Garnica, Martha L. King, 1979 Linguistics and Language Behavior Abstracts, 2008-02 Language, Literacy, and Culture Judith A. Langer, 1987 Annual Review of Information Science and Technology Blaise Cronin, 2004 ARIST published annually since 1966 is a landmark publication within the information science community It surveys the landscape of information science and technology providing an analytical authoritative and accessible overview of recent trends and significant developments The range of topics varies considerably reflecting the dynamism of the discipline and the diversity of theoretical and applied perspectives While ARIST continues to cover key topics associated with classical information science e.g. bibliometrics information retrieval editor Blaise Cronin is selectively expanding its footprint in an effort to connect information science more tightly with cognate academic and professional communities Southern African Linguistics and Applied Language Studies, 2002 Actes de la ... Réunion Annuelle de L'Association de Linguistique Des Provinces Atlantiques Atlantic Provinces Linguistic Association. Meeting, 1993 Examining Central Issues in Literacy Research, Theory, and Practice Donald J. Leu, Charles K. Kinzer, 1993 Strategies for Teaching English Learners Lynne T. Díaz-Rico, 2008 Thoroughly updated the second edition includes a description of the unique contributions of non native English speaking teachers make to the teaching of English up to date information on the demographics of English learners and the demand for English teachers worldwide a profile of an elementary school with an innovative social justice curriculum approach suggestions about the use of learning centers in English as a foreign language elementary classrooms an expanded definition of culture to include a contemporary emphasis on identity a critical view about the study of gender and race in the classroom new ways to incorporate volunteers into classroom instruction ways to encourage virtual volunteering and finally project based learning and service learning are combined in Chapter 15 as ways to link English learners with the larger community From publisher's description
