The Discourse of Disability in Communication Education Ahmet Atay, Mary Z. Ashlock, 2016 This book examines the ways in which communicative practices influence the lives of students and faculty with disabilities in higher education Overall the volume promotes more effective mindful honest and caring interaction between able bodied and disabled individuals Voicing Diverse Teaching Experiences, Approaches, and Perspectives in Higher Education Alvarez, Wilfredo, De Walt, Patrick S., 2022-04-22 The U S higher education system is changing demographically With these complex changes also comes a greater diversity of people entering spaces that they could not previously access This new dynamic is exciting however it also comes with challenges New approaches must be developed to facilitate the acceptance of this greater diversity Voicing Diverse Teaching Experiences Approaches and Perspectives in Higher Education extends the conversation on how to engage diverse and complex social identity groups in a system historically designed to be exclusive of their lived experiences This book elevates the voices of people who have been absent in the academy and considers these experiences across various types of institutions academic disciplines and ranks Covering topics such as critical race theory diverse gender identities and interpersonal needs this book is an essential resource for higher education administrators faculty and students of higher education organizational leaders academicians pre service teachers and researchers

Examining Millennials Reshaping Organizational Cultures Ahmet Atay, Mary Z. Ashlock, 2018-12-03 In From Theory to Practice Examining Millennials Reshaping Organizational Cultures contributors to the collection focus on several interrelated issues They examine the ways in which the members of the millennial generation influence how we work and communicate with our millennial students colleagues and employees They also elaborate on how to create work life balance for the members of the millennial generation and explore ways in which millennials can be open and responsive to others in a society who don't necessarily share the values political views or desires of the millennial generation nor the ways in which they prefer to communicate This collection engages in a scholarly dialogue about millennials and how their actions within the workplace and needs within organizational cultures and everyday performances influence our communication with them With equal importance it addresses the question of how millennials can become more adaptable in their communication with others in society especially within organizations with different generations or cultures that may or may not communicate the way they do Contributors suggest that the millennial culture should be carefully studied by employers instructors and researchers to create a better workplace experience and to also improve the level of communication among different generations in the workplace The Rhetorical Legacy of Wangari Maathai Alberto González, Eddah Mbula Mutua, Anke Wolbert, 2018-10-25 This book honors the advocacy of Dr Wangari Maathai acclaimed environmentalist and the first African woman to receive the Nobel Prize for Peace Dr Maathai was a gifted orator who crafted messages that imagined new possibilities for human agency and social justice and who inspired action to protect our natural habitats This collection explores the various strategies Maathai employed in her speeches to create memorable images and arguments for audiences in Kenya and around the world Specifically authors examine Maathai's use of storytelling her creative use of metaphor and local cultural knowledge and her use of sharp social political analysis Authors approach Maathai's rhetoric from both African Aussie Fans Celia Lam, Jackie Raphael, 2019-10-01 Australia holds a unique place in the and Western ways of knowing global scheme of fandom Much of the media consumed by Australian audiences originates from either the United States or the United Kingdom yet several Australian productions have also attracted international fans in their own right This first ever academic study of Australian fandom explores the national popular culture scene through themes of localization and globalization The essays within reveal how Australian audiences often seek authentic imports and eagerly embrace different cultures examining both Hollywood's influence on Australian fandom and Australian fan reactions to non Western content By shining a spotlight on Australian fandom this book not only provides an important case study for fan studies scholars it also helps add nuance to a field whose current literature is predominantly U S and U K focused Contributors Kate Ames Ahmet Atay Jessica Carniel Toija Cinque Ian Dixon Leigh Edmonds Sharon Elkind Jacqui Ewart Lincoln Geraghty Sarah Keith Emerald L King Renee Middlemost Disability Studies and the Classical Body Ellen Adams, 2021-05-13 By triangulating the Greco Roman world classical reception and disability studies this book presents a range of approaches that reassess and reimagine traditional themes from the narrative voice to sensory studies It argues that disability and disabled people are the forgotten other of not just Classics but also the Humanities more widely Beyond the moral merits of rectifying this neglect this book also provides a series of approaches and case studies that demonstrate the intellectual value of engaging with disability studies as classicists and exploring the classical legacy in the medical humanities The book is presented in four parts Communicating and controlling impairment illness and pain Using creating and showcasing disability supports and services Real bodies and retrieving senses disability in the ritual record and Classical reception as the gateway between Classics and disability studies Chapters by scholars from different academic backgrounds are carefully paired in these sections in order to draw out further contrasts and nuances and produce a sum that is more than the parts The volume also explores how the ancient world and its reception have influenced medical and disability literature and how engagements with disabled people might lead to reinterpretations of familiar case studies such as the Parthenon This book is primarily intended for classicists interested in disabled people in the Greco Roman past and in how modern disability studies may offer insights into and reinterpretations of historic case studies It will also be of interest to those working in medical humanities sensory studies and museum studies and those exploring the wider tension between representation and reality in ancient contexts As such it will appeal to people in the wider Humanities who notwithstanding any interest in how disabled people are represented in literature art and cinema have had less engagement with disability studies and the lived experience of people with impairments FREE CHAPTER AVAILABLE Please go to https bit ly 3pzpO7n to access the Introduction which we
