

2. On The Minimum Company (Minimum) Working

The Department of Company Manufacture (Minimum) Working and equipment maintenance with general production departments. Minimum also has an extensive repair and maintenance department for repairing the company's equipment. In the last two the department's efficiency has decreased. The common committee for a review of the operations of the M&M department and discussed the administrative problems, and decided that in the interests of the department (Minimum) the company should prepare a formal work order system for equipment. The new system would require the production department to submit a written request to the M&M department for repair and/or maintenance (including a suggested time frame for having the work done). The M&M department will prepare a work estimate and the proposed work order form. Once the request is done the M&M department will submit it to the production department for approval. The production department will review and approve they will submit it to the M&M department. The M&M department will decide if and when it needs the work to be done.

Requirements:

1. On The Departmental Work Order System

- a. Identify the three types of equipment in the repair and maintenance department and the production department that should be incorporated into the work order.
The following items of data should be necessary to administer this department in any work order system would be:
Estimated time: Estimated of the cost of work requested
Name of request: Estimated time of completion
Date for requesting the work: Date work was begun
Work requested: Signature of person giving estimate
When work is completed date: Signature of person authorizing work Date the request goes to:

b. Indicate how many copies of the work order should be prepared and explain how work order should be distributed.
The work order should have three copies. The production department will keep one for their records and one for submitted up with the billing. The M&M department will keep one for their records whether the work that was done. Finally the committee goes over to be able to follow the requests i.e. follow, supply, and maintain in the proper manner and bill the production department.

c. Prepare a diagram showing to show how the M&M Service Request and the M&M Work Order should be processed and sent among the departments of the Minimum Company to request and complete the repair and maintenance work, to provide the basis for billing the production department for the cost of the completed work, and to maintain the
